Marion Wilcox Is Guest Speaker

The guest speaker at the Presbyterian Church for the morning worship next Sunday is to be Miss Marion Wilcox, one of the Church's Missionaries to China. Miss Wilcox is a most attractive and inspiring speaker. She was at work in China at the time of Pearl Harbor and was imprisoned by the Japanese for 19 weeks. She returned to America on the Swedish liner, Gripsholm, and is eagerly looking forward to her return to China. The public is cordially invited to hear this first-hand report of Christian Missions in the Orient. Miss Wilcox will also speak to the young people of the church on Saturday night at 7:30. All the young people of this city and of Weldon and Littleton are invited to hear Miss Wilcox that night. Open house will be held by the young people after the service.

Albert Smith Is Commended For Entertainment

Among the 2000 battle hardened veterans of the ETO that docked in New York harbor on October 11 on the "Rushville Victory" was Pfc. Albert Smith, formerly of this city, and of the Second Armored Division. Aboard the ship Smith did an excellent job of assisting in the entertainment of the men. His guitar melodies and songs brought cheers and applause from his fellow soldiers.

J. B. ENTERTAINS POW

The first radio broadcast to be witnessed by repatriated prisoners of war stationed at Santa Barbara, California, will be the Jack Benny show, heard over NBC, Sunday, October 14th. Above, Lt. Col.
