Troop 16 Visits Sandlin's Florist:

Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. W. H. Proctor, Troop Committee member, took Brownie Troop 16 on a short hike to Sandlin's Florist. Mrs. Lloyd Sandlin very carefully explained the growth and care of hothouse plants. After showing the Brownies the entire shop, Mrs. Sandlin presented a dahlia bulb to each Scout and explained how to set it out and to care for it. If the Brownies follow instructions carefully, they may grow dahlias as beautiful as the ones in the window display Girl Scout Week.

Troop 15 Takes Fruit To Negro Ward:

Troop 15 had a Thanksgiving Dance to collect fruit for shut-ins. Troop members and guests piled fruit in a huge cornucopia which had been constructed from brown paper, paste, and a tall vegetable crate by Mrs. Kennedy and Troop 6. At the troop meeting Monday, the newest patrol decorated a box, filled it with fruit and delivered it to the Negro Ward at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital.

Scouts Help Decorate Stage:

Pasty Moore, of Troop 4; Jackie Williams and Patricia Wilson, of Troop 6, helped decorate the stage for the joint Thanksgiving Program at the High School Auditorium.

Troop 6 Has 100 Percent Attendance!

All members of Troop 6 were present Monday night to receive the new Girl Scout Calendar. Neal Allsbrook, Peggy Kidd, and Jackie Williams were chosen to sell calendars at the Rosemary Branch of the Roanoke Bank and Trust Company, Saturday, December 1, from 9:00 a. m., until 12:00 noon. Caroline Broum was appointed chairman of the decorating committee for the Christmas party, with Mary Francis Allsbrook, Mildred Dickens and Ann Grizzard assisting.

Troop 11 Making Coin Purses:

From old hats, beads and bits of wool, Troop 11 plans to make attractive coin purses like the one Ann Smith made and showed the troop Tuesday afternoon. Charlotte Davis and Patricia Johnson were hostesses. Brownie Scouts Receive Equipment:

Brownies of Troop 16 are the proud owners of crayons, rulers, and boxes for their equipment which Mr. W. H. Proctor presented them. Leggett's also gave them three dozen boxes for equipment.

Troop 12 Finds Treasure Chest:

Mrs. W. A. Thorne had a large wooden box with a lid which she promised Troop 12 when they arranged their troop room at Central School. Troop 4, just beginning Senior Service training, ripped off the covering, painted the box green to match the benches, and notified Mrs. B. Brown that it was ready to be moved to Central School. Brown cardboard boxes for individual equipment were given by Mr. Jack Weissner.

Calendar Sale Begins:

There is a great demand for the new Girl Scout Calendar. The picture shows a Brownie Scout and an Intermediate Scout admiring

THE CAR THAT'S REALLY NEW!

1946 OLDSMOBILE

WITH MANY NEW ADVANCEMENTS

OFFERING THE NEW GENERAL MOTORS HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE

Hydra-Matic Drive is a combination of a fluid coupling and a fully automatic transmission. Gears shift automatically through all four forward speeds, and there's not even a clutch pedal in the car!

"Look to Olds For All That's New!" Look to America's oldest motor car manufacturer for the newest, smartest thing in 1946 models—and the newest, simplest way to drive. The 1946 Oldsmobile, with General Motors' new and finer Hydra-Matic Drive, is here now—for all to come and see!

And it's truly NEW in every sense of the word. The appearance is different from any previous Oldsmobile—with newly tailored lines, smart new front-end design, and newly appointed Bodies by Fisher. The performance is new, due to smoother and livelier "Fire-Power" engines. There are many new advancements throughout the chassis to provide greater ruggedness and reliability.

Hydra-Matic Drive is new, too. First introduced by Oldsmobile in 1939, and thoroughly battle-proved in fast Army tanks during the war, this great General Motors development has now been made even finer, smoother, and longer lasting than ever . . . for the new 1946 Oldsmobile.

You are invited to come in, see and inspect this great new General Motors car. Oldsmobile has been building quality automobiles for nearly fifty years. This newest Oldsmobile is by far the finest—the best-built Oldsmobile of all time.
