

Enfield Town Board Favors Flood Control

Enfield — Enfield Commissioners at a meeting held November 26 passed the following resolutions:

WHEREAS it has been brought to the attention of the Commissioners of the Town of Enfield that a survey has been made by Army Engineers, which survey shows that it is feasible to control the flood waters of the Roanoke River, by erecting a dam at Bugg's Island, in Virginia, and at possible other locations south of that point on the Roanoke River, such engineering work providing adequate flood control for certain counties in Eastern North Carolina, Halifax County being among the number; Now therefore be it,

RESOLVED by the Commissioners of the Town of Enfield in special meeting assembled November 26, 1945, that we hereby approve the proposed project and further recommend to our Representatives in the Congress of the United States, that all legal means be used in order that the waters of the Roanoke may be controlled, so that no further heavy damages will be sustained by land-owners and manufacturing plants. BE IT FURTHER

RESOLVED that copies of these resolutions be forwarded to Senators Bailey and Hoey, and Congressman Kerr of the Second North Carolina District.
