Troop 5 Will Entertain Troop Committee:
 December 19, Troop 5 will entertain its Troop Committee members at a Christmas party. Erlene Keeter, chairman of the decorating committee, will be ably assisted by Joyce Hall, Greta Churchill, Sandra Edwards, Merlene Carpenter, Mary Jo Suiter and Mary Lou Starke. Games and fun for all is being planned by Barbara Britton, Marilyn Coburn and Lois Taylor.

Troop Committee Members Help Troop 14 Plan Party:
 December 16, Troop 14 will have a Children's Christmas party. Mrs. Traynham and Mrs. Swartz are helping the Scouts plan the decorations and the refreshments. Last Thursday, Troop 14 made toys from walnut shells for the guests.
 The Troop hopes that Helen Knight, leader of the Troop before entering Flora McDonald this fall, will be able to attend the party.

Troop 16 Makes Christmas Cards:
 The Brownie Scouts at Clara Hearne School are making plans for Christmas, too. Miss Cozart, Leader, and Mrs. Roland Johnson and Mrs. Fleetwood Sullivan, Troop Committee Members, helped the Brownies make a Santa Claus Christmas Card with colored paper, cotton and gummed dots. Then the Troop practiced carols and planned to make lanterns at the next meeting. Simple refreshments were furnished by the troop committee.

Troop 6 Appoints Committees:
 Interest in the Hostess Badge is the reason for the many discussions and the detailed plans for the Christmas party. The committees are:
 Refreshment: Yvonne Tripp, Chairman; Annie Erwin and Jean Kidd, helpers.
 Entertainment: Neal Allsbrook, Chairman; Josie Johnson and Ann Wood, helpers.
 Invitation: Jean Sheffield, Chairman; Alice Twiddy and Peggy Kidd helpers.
 Serving: Dorothy Lynch, Chairman; Betty Kidd and Mary Frances Allsbrook helpers.
 Hostess: Margaret Asked, Chairman; and Bobby Fisher.

Troop 15 Needs Tiny Birthday Candles:
 Mrs. Rogers, Troop Leader, helped one patrol make attractive Christmas cards by tying a tiny yellow candle and bits of evergreen to construction paper. Anyone with candles left over from a birthday cake can make Troop 15 very happy by sending or telephoning a message to the Scout Hut. A Scout will call for the candles.
 Mrs. Bowman arrived early, and chaperoned the Scouts until the Leader called the meeting to order. Then Mrs. Bowman helped count out the bookmarks and delivered them to the hospital to be used as tray favors.
 The Troop is working hard to finish the "stained glass" window design for Christmas.

Troop 11 Meets Anyhow:
 Eager to begin work on the coin purses, Troop 11 ignored the fact that troops do not meet on rainy days when school teaches through. Ann Smith brought her pattern and the Scouts began cutting out felt elephants while Ann and Adrienne Cooper prepared refreshments. Mary Jane Whitby and Polly Cooper learned how to make paper sandals which they wore while their socks and shoes were drying.

Troop 12 Will Make Lanterns At The Scout Hut:
 After the troop sang Christmas carols, plans were made to take jars and candles to the Hut Friday, December 7, so that lanterns could be made. The Brownies remember the fun they had caroling last Christmas.

In Memoriam

In memory of my darling daughter, Mrs. Mildred Medlin Johnson, who God took to rest December 3, 1944.
 I cannot say, and I will not, say, that you are dead. You are only away with a cheerful smile, and with no sorrow, and no pain. You have gone to God's protecting arms, and left me dreaming how very fair since you are lingering there. And you with the sweetest For the old time clasp, and the glad return. Think of you smiling on as dear. In the love of here, and the love of there, I think of your happy smile and bright eyes, as I seem to say

You are not dead, but gone to the Heavenly Home.
 —Daddy,
 J. W. Medlin.
