

Bullard - Mizelle

Miss Louise Eileen Mizelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mizelle of Enfield, became the bride of James Franklin Bullard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Melvin of Rocky Mount, last Friday at half after six o'clock at the Enfield Baptist Church.

Pines formed the background of the chancel in the church, and Oregon fern, white gladioli and snapdragons were used in the tall white floor baskets. Tall white candles burned in candelabra which were entwined with fern.

The Rev. Ross A. Cadle, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Virginia Branch, organist, rendered the traditional wedding music and Mrs. R. E. Shervette, Jr., of Enfield sang "Oh Golden Day of Promise."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white gown of brocaded satin with long sleeves which ended in points over the hands. Chantilly lace formed the edging for the yoke and petalum and the skirt terminated in a full length train. The bride's veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap encircled with orange blossoms. The bride's only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Clellie Mizelle of Enfield was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. L. W. Huerth of Rocky Mount was matron of honor. They wore blue wool moire dresses with cap sleeves and bustles, matching net mittens, and coronets of crushed net which ended in shoulder length veils. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers tied with pink ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Gray of Enfield and Mrs. R. D. Smith, Jr., of Rocky Mount. Their gowns of pink moire were designed like those of the maid and matron of honor. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers tied with blue ribbon.

Sylvia and Jurney Lee Davis, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis of Freemont, were the miniature bride and bridegroom. Little Miss Davis wore a white satin gown with lace yoke, long sleeves ending in points, and a short train. Her veil fell from a Juliet cap ended in seed pearls and she carried a small bouquet similar to that of the bride. The miniature bridegroom wore a white satin suit with ruffled front and long sleeves with turn-back ruffle cuffs.

Edward R. Lamm of Rocky Mount was best man. Ushers were Charles Hunt, Edward Fowler and Clinton Bell all of Rocky Mount and Benton McMillan of Wilson.

The bride's mother wore a black lace dinner dress with long sleeves and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a black and printed jersey dress with cap sleeves. She wore long black gloves and her corsage was of red roses.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling, the bride wore a white wine gabardine suit with gold buttons and a gold studded belt with matching coat, a black straw hat, and black accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Mr. Bullard is a graduate of Aberdeen high school and was discharged from the service recently after spending 31 months in Europe with the Intelligence Department of the Eighth Air Force. The couple will be at home after their wedding trip at 218 North Peace Street, Rocky Mount.

LONG SEARCH FOR RELIEF SOON ENDED BY RETONGA

Pains In Muscles, Distress From Indigestion And Sluggish Elimination Promptly Relieved Says Mr. Shiver. He Feels Like Different Man.

"I hardly know how I made out before Retonga gave me such splendid relief, and I will always feel grateful to it," declares Mr. T. R. Shiver, well-known resident of 1524 Merryman Ave., Charlotte, N. C.

"I felt rundown and out of sorts all over," continued Mr. Shiver. "I was often in distress from nervous indigestion, and my appetite was so spotty that sometimes I hardly wanted a bite at mealtime, and at other times I would be ravenously hungry. At night I woke up after a few hours sleep and then couldn't go back to sleep again. I would go for as long as three days without a bowel movement and my head ached fit to burst. I felt loaded with toxic poisons and the muscles of my arms and legs pained so bad I could hardly stand it."

"Retonga ended my long search for relief. I now enjoy every meal,

MR. T. R. SHIVER

I sleep restfully, and those sharp pains in my muscles are relieved. For the first time in years I feel satisfactorily relieved of constipation. I feel so much better that I can hardly thank Retonga enough."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of gastric juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Rosemary Drug Company. (Adv.)
