Recent Bride

Mrs. Walker Bowman Browning, Jr., before her marriage on February 23 was Miss Millicent Muriel Faison daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mason Faison. Mr. Browning is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Bowman Browning, Sr., of Ridgeville.

Browning - Faison

A wedding of beauty and dignity was that of Miss Millicent Muriel Faison and Walker Bowman Browning, Jr., of Ridgeville which took place at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday, February 23, in the First Baptist Church at Columbia, S. C., Dr. R. C. Campbell, pastor officiated in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends, using the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Browning is the charming and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mason Faison of Columbia, her mother being the former Lottie Mae Greene of Roanoke Rapids, N. C. The bride attended Brenau college, Gainesville, Ga., where she became a member of Alpha Chi Omega, national social sorority; Lorelei, honorary music fraternity and was active in many other student affairs. She was graduated from the University of South Carolina in 1942, where she had the distinction of being the first woman graduate of music. While at the University she was soloist for the Glee clubs, member of the Independents and active in student affairs. For two years Mrs. Browning taught school in Ridgeville.

Mr. Browning is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Bowman Browning (Florence Drummond) of Ridgeville. He attended Clemson College and before entering the service in 1942 was in business with his father at Ridgeville. The bridegroom served two and a half years in the Pacific with the Signal corps and he received his discharge early in December. He has now resumed his business association in Ridgeville.
