PAGE 6—SECTION B

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1946

Paul Younts Commander

Greensboro . - Appointment of Paul R. Younts of Charlotte as North Carolina Department of the American Legion, was announced meantime he was engaged in busihere by Department Commander ness in Charlotte and was serving W. M. York.

Mr. Younts is a veteran of World War I and II and is a past 30th Division, National Guard, in department commander of the Le- 1940. After service in this country gi n in North Carolina and a past he was for more than two years national vice-commander. He recently retired from active service with distinction as chief of staff in the Army with the rank of colonel.

The office of executive vice-commander was established at the state convention in Winston-Salem in June and was set up to meet the needs of the vastly-expanding veterans organization.

The executive vice-commander will serve as a full time executive and administrative official and will handle many of the duties that have been discharged in the past by the department commander and the department adjutant.

OFFICE IN RALIEGH His office will be at department headquartes in Raleigh and he will be in direct charge of the Legion's program in the state. The Legion's membership passed the 67.000 mark this year and department officials estmate that it likely will reach 150,000 in the coming year

Mr. Young was elected by the department administrative committee also established at the Winston - Salem convention. The committee is composed of five members with the department commander as ex-officia chairman Commander York expressed extreme satifaction at the election of Col Young "He is one of the best informed Legionnaires in the state and is an organizer and executive of great ability. I am confident that under his direction the North Carolina Department will establish an enviable record in Legion accomplishment.

Mr. Younts will go to Raleigh some time this week and enter upon his duties immediately.

The new executive vice-commander served in France in World executive vice-commander of the War I and continued in the National Guard after that war. In the as jostmaster when he reported for active duty as a major in the in the Pacific, where he served to Gen. Nathan A. Twining, commander of the famed 13th Air Force. Upon his return to this country he was commanding officer at the Overseas Replacement Depot in Greensboro until his retirement a couple of months ago. He has been active in the reorCOTTON BOAT

When scientists put cotton and plastics together the result is a cotton boat. Made from plastic laminated cotton, this boat, complete with all fittings, weighs less than 150 pounds, the National Cotton Council states. Since the hull of the boat is molded in one piece, it is watertight. Easily handled by two persons, the cotton boat will carry up to six 200-pound adults or eight youngsters.

ganization of the National Guard | military service, the greater part and will continue in that organiza- of which was spent in the Medition.

Co.. Younts was commander of the North Carolina Department of the Legion in 1925 and a national vice-commander in 1927.

Mayne Albright Made Chairman

R. Mayne Albright of Raleiga has been appointed Chairman of State Department of the American Legion by the newly elected Department Commander William M. York. Albrought is the first World War II veteran in North Carolina to be appointed to a major statewide position in the American Legion. After four years of terranean Theatre, Albright was discharged as a Major, having received four battle stars and a decoration from the new Italian Government. In January 1946 he declined a position on a special mission to study labor conditions in the Japanese Empire in order to return to his former civilian position in North Carolina as the Membership Committee of the State Director of the United States Employment Service. J. W. Mc-Lennan, Burlington, World War I veteran, was named Vice-Chairman of the Membership Committee.

THE GREATEST FORCE FOR PEACE

WAR MOST?

. . . naturally, the men who lived amid its horrors day after day, the men who saw for themselves what this madness of mankind does. Do you think they want to go through another and more horrible Atomic War which would mean the end of all civilization?

. . . let's wake up, America! Let's realize that our greatest force for peace is the men who fought in war-World Wars I and II—the men in this mighty organization of overseas veterans who today ... now, in 1946 ... are working against war, for peace, for your countryl

(...

SENSIBLE AMERICANS REALIZE THAT VET-ERANS UNITED IN THIS ORGANIZATION ARE A MIGHTY FORCE FOR LASTING PEACE

> JOIN AND SUPPORT THE V.F.W HALIFAX POST No. 3702 This advertisement sponsored by

WHITE MOTORS, INC.

"Your Friendly Ford Dealer

ANS OF FOREIGN WARS OF NITED STATE