

Council Round-up Will Be Held In Scotland Neck

The East Carolina Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold a Council Round-Up for the northern half of the Council at Scotland Neck during the week end of October 4, 5 and 6 under the supervision of Louis Alexander, principal of the Scotland Neck High School and Camping and Activities chairman for the newly created Roanoke District.

Scouts from ten northern districts of the Council will participate in the Round-Up, among these will be scouts from Halifax, Northampton, Hertford, Bertie, Edgecomb, Wilson and Nash.

This will be the first time that the Council has undertaken to hold a fall meeting of Scouts of the Council. The fact that the spring Camporee was rained out and the expressed desire of many Scoutmasters to have a fall gathering of Scouts led the officials of the Council to plan the Fall Round-Up.

The Round-Up will be different from any former activity held by the Council in that all activities will be engaged in on a troop basis, rather than the usual Patrol basis. Thus each unit will work as a complete unit rather than each patrol as was done at the

Camporee

Since the plans for the Round-Up will be different from former activities the Council will hold a briefing session for adult and junior leaders somewhere in the Council on the evening of September 30, for the purpose of assisting the leadership in a better understanding of the activities that will be held at the Round-Up.

The Council Round-Up will tie in with the National Round-Up that is being held in the fall throughout the United States.
