

Junior High News

BY VANCE COLLINS

Once again we're going to school and for nine more months we will be hearing more and newer things about our subjects.

Last week was a hurry week in school. Meeting your new teacher, paying for your books, and going through schedule were all on the list. This week things are beginning to settle down and everybody is beginning to work.

This year there are 486 pupils to be taught in Junior High and to teach them there are several new teachers. They are Miss Katherine Dunley, vocal music; Mrs. Betty Godwin, English; Mrs. Ethel Mickey, history; Miss Mary Curran, science; Dan Cagle, Mathematics and junior football team.

One of the new things in Junior High is a junior football team and this is coached by Mr. Cagle. There were 54 candidates during the first week of practice and the practices consisted principally of calisthenics and running to get the body in shape. Coach Cagle hopes to have a six-game schedule lined up for that team this year—three out of town and three home games.

The officers of the Junior High Council for this year are: Charles Hasty, President; Swain Loy, Vice-president; Margaret Clary, Secretary; Geneva Brown, Treasurer and Vance Collins, Reporter.

These officers were elected last May instead of the first school month, because of a change in the Constitution. Miss Irish Davis is the advisor of this body and has been for the last two years. We have her to thank for most of the Council's success.
