

People, Spots In The News

rate of above ten billion yards per year.

Posters and literature pointing out the merits of new cotton mer-

100,000 dry goods and department stores and specialty shops.

While some shortages of cotton products remain, the Institute and supplies of many items of which consumers are in most urgent need.