

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS LEADER

the economy. Regardless of what he does or what his own income may be, he will be better off in proportion as there is vigor and growth through-

Taxation is burdensome. It impedes production; cuts down income; and, in some cases and to