

Rev. R. L. Topping Returns From Visit To Indiana Camp

Rev. Raleigh L. Topping, of 915 Hamilton Street, has just returned from a week's vacation at Lake James, near Angola, Indiana, where he was the guest of The Christian Standard, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The local minister was awarded the trip with all expenses paid by the church publishing house because of outstanding work in the field of religious education among the Christian churches of North Carolina. Outstanding achievement during the year by the Rev. Topping was the holding of position of Dean of Roanoke Christian Service Camp at Bath, N. C. during four weeks of June at which 400 students were enrolled.

He is the pastor of village and rural churches; and ministers to a membership of 2500.

We have Several Customers who want to Buy Tires like this that still have some miles in them. Right Now We Can Pay You a GOOD PRICE for Such a Tire as Trade-in on a New Tire. We happen to have several customers who want worn tires that still are not bruised or damaged. For such a tire, we can right now pay you a substantial trade-in price. But you can very easily lose most, if not all, of this good price—and here is why: Drive It 3 or 4 Thousand Miles More and it Will Bring You Only a JUNK PRICE. You see, as the tread wears thin you are very likely to bruise or damage the tire. At the very least, you can easily wear it to the point where it cannot be recapped. Either way, the tire will then bring you only a JUNK price. The last 3 or 4 thousand miles you try to get would then prove mighty expensive, wouldn't they? Come In and Let Us Make a Bid on Your Worn Tires. DEALERS WANTED Johnson's Amoco Station 98 Roanoke Ave.
