Bridge Party Honors Miss Sarah Thompson

The Woman's Club house was the scene of a lovely party last Friday evening when Mrs. Jack Vincent and Miss Eccelle Harris entertained at bridge honoring Miss Sarah Thompson, bride-elect of February.

The Club house was decorated throughout with magnolia foliage, white carnations and candles carrying out the bridal colors of green and white. Upon arrival, the guests were given attractive wedding tallies which designated places for playing. At the conclusion of several progressions, high score for the evening was made by Mrs. Jim Joyner and second high by Mrs. Tommie Merritt. Floating prize was awarded Mrs. Raleigh Seay. The honoree was remembered by the hostesses with a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

A delicious salad plate with nuts and coffee, further carrying out the green and white motif, was enjoyed at refreshment time. Dainty bridal favors were on each plate.

Assisting Mrs. Vincent and Miss Harris in entertaining and serving were: Mrs. Ike Rochelle, Mrs. Lloyd Sandlin, Mrs. Carlton Brown and Miss Martha Boyd.

Those making up the tables were: Misses Sarah Thompson, Ruth Davis, Ella Dean Lee, Betty Leathers, Margie Cannon, Mamie Nash, Frances Wilson; and Mesdames Carlton Cannon, Jay Thompson, Bill King, Ellis Crew, Hunsinger, Graham Dean, M. C. Newsom, Jr., Fred Cooper, Bebe Williams, Clarence Coburn, Hugh Godwin, Raleigh Seay

Jesse Harrell, Frank Neal, Frank Hunter, Jim Joyner, Joseph Seiden of Weldon, George Hayes, Jr. John Wilbourne, George Wood, Rudolph Williams, Raine Wilson, W. H. Carter, Gene Shell, George Nethercutt, F. G. Kronke, John Lupton, Tommie Merritt and Bill Shell.

Mrs. Robert Long, Mrs. T. O. Wilson and Mrs. W. H. Babcock were refreshment guests.

The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Jean Tilghman Weds John Pemberton In Cape May, N. J.

Miss Jean Carolyn Tilghman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cam G. Tilghman of Weldon, became the bride of John Pemberton, III, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Pemberton, Jr. of Cape May, N. J., in a candlelight ceremony at dusk Saturday evening, January 17th, in the Cape May Baptist Church.

The church was decorated with white tapers and baskets of white gladioli and astors banked against a background of green palms.

Miss Peggy Wright, soloist, and Miss Edith Edwards, organist, both of Cape May, presented a program of wedding music.

The bridegroom's father performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ice blue satin gown with lengthy ballerina hooped skirt. The short sleeved fitted bodice was trimmed with self-covered buttons from neck to waist. She wore elbow length gloves of matching material. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a small white hat wreathed in lilies of the valley. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of white bride's rose buds.

Miss Ann Tilghman was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a copenhagen blue satin ankle length gown with elbow length gloves and head band and she carried a nosegay of yellow rose buds. The bridegroom's sister, Janie Pemberton, was bridesmaid. She wore a cherry satin gown fashioned like that of the maid of honor and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Best man was Bill Lazareth of New York City, who was the bridegroom's roommate at Princeton University.

Ushers were Charles Swain and Spicer Learning of Cape May.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tilghman wore forest green with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore grey crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given the bridal couple in the church's reception hall by the church choir which the bride has directed since last spring.

Mrs. Pemberton attended Greensboro College and graduated from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J. last June.

Mr. Pemberton is a senior at Princeton University where the couple will make their home.

Out of town guests in addition to the bride's family were Mr. and Mrs. David Dickens, Walker Campbell, Misses Sarah West and Betty Davis, Miss Mary Frances Buck, all of Weldon and numerous relatives and friends from New York City and Princeton, N. J.
