

Dorothy Taylor and Lt. Curtis Jernigan Married in Formal Military Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Lee Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Taylor, of New Bern, and First Lt. Curtis Doyle Jernigan, USMC, of Cherry Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Curtis Jernigan, of Roanoke Rapids, were married in New Bern at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in a formal military wedding at Centenary Methodist Church. The Rev. Robert L. Jerome, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Catharine Latta sang and Mrs. J. A. McKinnon played two violin solos. The organ accompaniments were by Mrs. George W. Stratton, church organist.

Mrs. William Tuttle of New Bern was matron of honor, and Miss Helen Bowman, also of New Bern, was maid of honor. Their dresses were of pink faille taffeta, with flowing skirts, and their headresses and mitts matched their gowns. They carried arm bouquets of mixed spring flowers, as did the other two bride attendants.

Miss Gloria West of New Bern and Mrs. Clem Brown of Roanoke Rapids, sister of the bride-room, were bridesmaids. They wore blue faille taffeta dresses similar to those of the other two attendants and headresses of sheer net, made halo effect, and their mitts matched their gowns.

The bride was escorted by her father, who gave her in matrimony. She was dressed in a gown of candlelight satin which featured an off-shoulder capelet collar, trimmed with Chantilly lace and caught with orange blossoms. Her full skirt was also caught up at the hemline with orange blossoms to display a lace-trimmed underskirt. The Cathedral-type train was etched in lace and her fingertip-length veil of imported English illusion was caught to a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid. Following the marriage ritual, the couple left the church under an arch of crossed sabers held by the groomsmen.

Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception at their residence. About 300 guests were invited.

The couple left afterwards for a wedding trip to unannounced points. The bride for traveling changed to a gray gabardine suit, with print blouse and black accessories, and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return, they will reside in New Bern.

A native Newbernian, Mrs. Jernigan attended Woman's College at Greensboro. Recently she has been a teller at the First-Citizens Bank and Trust Company in New Bern.

Lieutenant Jernigan has been in Marine Aviation for almost six years. He is a pilot of a fighter plane. For a year during World War II he served in the Pacific theater.

Weather experts advise farmers to be careful of contracts made with rainmakers. Most rains are free.

In 1870, there were four persons for every cow in the U. S. Now we have nearly six persons per cow, but our people are getting about as much milk as they ever did.
