Cherry-Myers Marriage Performed In Rich Square

Rich Square — The marriage of Miss Margaret Myers, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Charles Emory Myers of Rich Square, to Gordon Pugh Cherry, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Neil Cooper of Rich Square, was performed Saturday night at 7 o'clock. The wedding took place at the Rich Square Baptist Church, with the Rev. Mr. Cooper performing the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Margaret Ann Harris of Elizabeth City, pianist, Mrs. J. A. Fleetwood of Conway, violinist, Mrs. Donald Vann and Joe Parker of Rich Square presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk net with a sheer yoke and an embroidered berth. The basque bodice buttoned up the back with self covered buttons. Long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The full skirt, which fell from beneath hip pleat, ended in a train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a Mary, Queen of Scots headpiece. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white roses, center ed with a purple throated white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Douglas Sessions, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink marquisette and a matching sweetheart bonnet of net trimmed with ribbons bows and matching mitts. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers tied with blue ribbon.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Cherry of Rich Square, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Mildred Everett of Raleigh, Miss Hazel Womack of Rich Square and Mrs. W. F. Pritchard of Elizabeth City were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor in colors of blue and yellow and matching halo bonnets trimmed with ribbon bows and mitts. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers with rain bow ribbons.

Mrs. Kendal Younger and Miss Janice Myers of Raleigh, Mrs. John Saunders of Rocky Mount and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Goldsboro. They wore dresses of pastel colors and carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

The train bearer was Michael Sewell Cooke. Patsy Taylor and Gail Howell were flower girls. They wore dresses identical to those of the bridesmaids with matching hats and mitts.

Mrs. N. L. Turner of Rich Square was mistress of ceremony.

Best man was William Hooper Wilson of Clinton. Ushers were Charles Myers Jr., brother of the bride, John Hardaway of Greenville, Nez Lynch of Salisbury and Harry Shelton of Fuquay Springs.

The bride's mother wore a gown of mist pink and a matching hat trimmed with sweet peas. Her corsage was of white roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore an ice blue crepe dress with white gloves and a hat of pale pink and corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Cherry is a graduate of Greensboro College and for the past year has taught home economics in Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Cherry is a graduate of Wake Forest College. He served with the Criminal Investigation Department for one year after his discharge. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Alpha Psi Omega fraternities. For the past year he has done graduate work at Wake Forest.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride. About

KAISER

FRAZER

Service wherever you go

IN just two years we've built and sold more fine cars than any other new manufacturer in automobile history.

Why? Because America fell in love with the KAISER and the FRAZER on sight. Folks are streaming into Kaiser-Frazer showrooms and learning from present owners how dependable these two great cars are. They're learning — from people who drive them — how soundly they are built... how economical they are... how much enjoyment there is in owning one.

THESE ARE THE MOST-COPIED CARS IN AMERICA, road-proved by 250,000 owners in two billion miles of driving.

Because plenty of Americans insist on comfort, convenience, style and value, traditional leaders had to "move over" — as Kaiser-Frazer became the fourth largest manufacturer of motor cars in the world in two short years.

Why wait? Enjoy your new car this summer. You'll get fair treatment and highest trade-in allowance.

Favorite Recipes

One of the favorite pastimes around this vicinity is entertaining friends and neighbors at Brunswick stews during the summer. One favorite recipe is the following:

Brunswick Stew
 1 chicken, 4 pounds
 1 dozen ears fresh corn or canned corn, if preferred
 2 dozen tomatoes
 1 quart shelled butter beans
 4 large, diced potatoes

2 tablespoons sugar
 Red pepper and salt to your taste.

Dress chicken, boil in iron pot until meat comes off the bone. Put vegetables in chicken stock and boil until tender. Put chicken back into the mixture. Add seasoning. Slowly simmer for 6 hours. This makes 6 servings or more.
