I, Susan Anderson, being of questionable sanity, leave: to Margot and Priscilla, many stale bagels, to Margot, lots of chemistry problems, to Brian, a slack senior year, to Dan, lots of briar patches to run through, to Josh, a good razor for the next swim meet, to Timothy, sunny workdates, to Arthur, a big hug, to Meg, frozen thin mints, to Ash, she's out there, to Andy, well..., to Dom, the memories of the good times, to Julie, the memories of seeing each other live, to Kathy, climbing trees. Good luck, I will miss you all.
