

Dick Walker

THE LEXHIPEP

Published by the Students of Lexington High School

VOL. III.

LEXINGTON, N. C., OCTOBER 16, 1924

No. 1

COLLEGE STUDENTS OF THE CLASS OF 1924

A large percentage of the class of 1924 entered college and business colleges at the first of the 1924-1925 term. The members of the class and the respective schools which they are attending are as follows:

Newman Arlin Michael, Carson; John Oliver Hicks, Converse; Louis Setzer and Maurice Wilson, Greensboro Commercial School; Roscoe Peters, Guilford; Edith Freeman, High Point Business College; Curry Lopp, Lenior; Elizabeth Myers, Meredith; Mildred Lindsay, Vic Link, Inez Michael, Ruth Owen and Bessie Redwine, Anna Williamson, Ruth Zimmelman, N. C. C. W. Martha Burkhead, Peace Institute; Tom Eanes, and Elmo Leonard, Trinity; Chalmers Hutchins, U. N. C.; William Lancaster, Van Miller and Dwight Pickard, Wake Forrest.

THE DIARY OF A FRESHMAN

Sept. 15—Today I came up to the Hi Skool and went upstairs. There was a big boy standing by a door and I asked him what I must do. I think he must have been a teacher. Everybody called him Ham. He told me to go down stairs and stand in the hall and holler as loud as I could for a man named Mr. Allen. I guess he must be the janitor. Ennyhow, I did this and somebody came out and told me to hush and go upstairs again. Which I did. I saw another boy and he said that if I wanted a good desk I must give him 50c. Which I did but he didn't seem to get me a very good one. I didn't know what he had to do with the desks but they called him wood, so maybe that's why.

Sept. 16—This is a very expensive skool. A girl told me today that I must pay her a dime to get a locker to put my hat in. Today I got a hole lot of books.

Sept. 22—A boy told me that I must carry all his books for him. He said it was a rool of the skool. I think it is a very funny rool and the books were awful heavy.

"Hello, old top, new car."
"No old car, new top."

THE OPEN FORUM

The Open Forum is a new feature of the LEXHIPEP. In the next issue and throughout the year, the editors will reserve a column for the students and townspeople to voice any sentiment or constructive criticism that they might wish, but this privilege must be taken seriously.

The Open Forum column will be reserved and it is hoped that it will be put to use. This column is the appropriate way for the students to give publicity to their thoughts, and if there is any thinking being done about the high school, surely some of it deserves a place in the high school paper. The purpose of the Open Forum space is to allow any sentiments, whether they be critical or otherwise, to be openly expressed.

If there are boys or girls about the high school who wish to comment upon something that is going on, or should go on, THE LEXHIPEP will be glad to publish their views, even if such an article smacks with constructive criticism, the paper itself for it is from outside sources that the de-

(Continued on Page 8)

MR. STOKES' WEDDING

One of the greatest events of the summer season took place when Mr. T. D. Stokes was married to Miss Helen Earnhardt. The wedding took place at 8:00 P. M. August 6, 1924, at the home of the bride on South Main Street. The house was attractively decorated in green and white. The bride was dressed in a blue coatsuit with accessories to match. Rev. W. L. Hutchins officiated.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Stokes left for a visit to a number of places of interest. The many guests were then served with a salad course and ice cream.

Mr. Stokes has long been a member of the faculty of Lexington High School, and Mrs. Stokes is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Earnhardt. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

ORGANIZATION OF A HI-Y CLUB IN L. H. S.

Lest Wednesday night, Mr. J. P. Fesperman, representative of the state Y. M. C. A., Extension Department, met with a select number of boys from Lexington High School for the purpose of organizing a HI-Y-CLUB.

Active interest in the organization of this club was shown by Messrs. J. H. Cowles, J. A. Allen, and George Hackney, Mr. Robert F. Estes, our able Science teacher, was chosen leader and director of the club. The following officers were elected: President, Dwight Johnson; Vice-President Clifton Conrad; Secretary, Weldon Shoaf, and Treasurer, Kenneth Galimore.

Lexington is very fortunate in get-

(Continued on Page 8)

SCHOOL SPIRIT

School spirit, how often have you heard those words, you have heard of some boy having lots of school spirit and you wonder what it is.

School spirit is your attitude toward work and play in school. If a person hates school and everything connected with it, he will not have much school spirit. On the other hand, one who doesn't just hate school none of us are too fond of it, tries to get everything out of it, and is willing to put something in it will be just the opposite.

You must be loyal to the school, teachers and pupils. Tell the nice things about them instead of the bad. School spirit in the class-room is just as fine as on the foot-ball field.

If you go to the foot-ball games and yell, practice basket-ball, subscribe for THE LEXHIPEP, and get up your lessons, feeling that Lexington High School is the very best school you know, her teachers are the best, and the students the finest, you have the kind of school spirit every member of the High School should have. Good school spirit is one of the main essentials in high school life and without it, you will never realize the pleasure of a High School Education.