No. 3

BRIEFS

Miss Margaret Miller, former teacher of math in L. H. S., returned to visit the Girl Reserves in their regular meeting on Monday, December 6. She gave an interesting and helpful talk on "A Girl and Her Relations to Her Family". Betsy Moffitt and Louise Kirby were co-hostesses.

The annual sale of T. B. Christmas seals was begun the first of this week in Lexington High. All home rooms were responsible for at least $2.00. All rooms sold this amount.

Bobby Hill, now in Lenoir High School, seems to be carrying on the work he started in L. H. S. Bobby attended Lexington High through his sophomore year, and then moved to Lenoir. There he is president of Lenoir's state-acclaimed band, literary chairman on "The Mountaineer" staff, secretary of senior class and member of Beta Gamma Club.

One of the leading football players on last year's team was Fred Welch. He is keeping this good name by playing on the Wake Forest freshman team, which won the state championship this past season. The coaches say Fred is one of the best players, although he is light in weight. Fred made several good runs for touchdowns during the season.

Odessa Snow, Joan Sink, and Hubert Philpott represented the L. H. S. Student Council at the annual Social Standards Conference held in Boyden High School in Salisbury, December 3. Students and interested speakers led classes on journalism, photography, stamps, music and other such subjects.

Five students with Mr. Andrews visited High Point High School last week to observe the organization of the school. These students, Virginia Beck, Virginia Holmes Brinkley, Dick Rabb, Charles McDade and Luck Ruff, visited the cafeteria, the auditorium and other phases of the school life. A report of the visit was given by the students in chapel on December 9. Mr. Andrews plans to take other students to different schools to help improve ours.

Holidays for Christmas begin today, with two weeks and an extra week end between now and January 3, 1938, when school will be resumed. Have a Merry Christmas and make some good New Year's resolutions.

The annual banquet by the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs honoring L. H. S. football team was given Wednesday night at the Methodist Hut. "Doc" Newton, head coach at N. C. State, was guest speaker. He gave an interesting talk in which he stressed the need of a nine months school term for those who are planning to go to college. Movies were shown from the State vs. Duke game, and the State vs. Boston game.

Mr. Philpott then presented Mr. Young with a purse from the "men about town" for the splendid work he has done this season.

MISS APPLE TO BE WED DEC. 21

HAS BEEN AT L. H. S. FIVE AND HALF YEARS

Another great loss to the faculty of L. H. S. is Miss Apple, who will be married on December 21 to Rev. Gilmer Cross of Scarboro, West Virginia, where he is pastor of the Baptist church. During her five and a half years as Latin teacher here, she has become a favorite among the students. She will be missed terribly, but the students wish the couple happiness.

Miss Lillian Pugh, of Hamilton, N. C. has been elected to fill Miss Apple's place when school begins again on January 3. Miss Pugh was graduated from Woman's College in Greensboro last year and for the past few months has been taking post graduate work at Columbia University, New York.

Students Attend State Congress

ANNUAL CONGRESS HELD IN WASHINGTON, N. C.

On November 17th and 18th four representatives from the Student Council of L. H. S. attended the State Council Congress in Washington, N. C. These were Odessa Snow, David Williams, and Ralph Morris with Mr. Leonard as faculty advisor.

The delegates left Thursday morning and arrived in Washington in time for the first session that afternoon in John Small School. The topic for discussion was The Financing of Student Organizations. Lexington's representatives took an active part in the discussion. That night a banquet was held and a dance given afterward in the Armory.

Friday morning session was taken up mostly with business. The three student delegates from L. H. S. served on the resolutions committee. Officers for the coming year which were elected president Roger Taylor from High Point; vice president, Jimmy Hampton from Roanoke Rapids; and secretary and treasurer, Edith Rankin from Concord.

BETA CLUB MEETS

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, the newly formed Bet Club met in its first regular meeting. The following officers were elected: Betsy Moffitt, president, Douglas Horner, vice-president, Sara Dickerson, secretary, and Kenneth Rhodes, treasurer. The president appointed two committees; the program committee with Maxine Leonard as chairman, and the social committee with Ruth Sink as chairman. The club plans to meet Friday night when Mr. Andrews will be the speaker.

The Glee Club from L. H. S. took part in the annual Candlelight Service at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening. The club sang "Break Forth, O Beauteous Light" by Bach, "Ledgen" by Sschaikowsky, and "An Old English Carol."

LIBRARY HAS 30 NEW BOOKS

BOOK TO PLEASE EVERYBODY

Our library has recently received a shipment of new books, both fiction and non-fiction from which anyone can choose a book to his literary taste.

These, the girls will enjoy reading: Boylston—Sue Barton—Student Nurse; Medary—College in Crinoline; Martin—Emmy Lou; Hess—Shanty Brook Lodge; Curtis—Little Maid of Valley Forge; Bugbee—Perry Covers Washington; Fox—Lona of Hollybush Creek; Bacon—House by the Road; Pennoyer—Polly Tucker, Merchant; and Montgomery—Jane of Lantern Hill. As seen by the titles these will range in interest from vocations and history to the clean stories of well-known girl's authors like Bacon and Montgomery of Green Gables fame.

Boys books are: O'Brien, Jack Silver Chief; Fulton—Powder Dock Mystery; Bell—Ice Patrol; Sherman—Midflight; Miller and DuPont—Bob Wakefield, Naval Aviator; Barbour—Watch That Pass, Remade—Heart of a Dog, Barbour—Halfback; Dean—Bob Gordon; Cub Reporter; and Van Gelder—Front Page Story.

Non-fiction books of interest to nearly everyone are: Halliburton's—Book of Maruels; O'Brien's Best Short Stories of 1937; Hamilton's Tin Can Craft; McFarland—Good Taste in Dress; Lewis Parliamentary Rules, Simplified, and Scott's How to be a Successful Secretary (attention, commercial students) and others.

Call by the library and place your reserve or reserves on the books you want to read.

SEVEN ATTEND HI-Y MEETING

BOYS VISIT CHARLESTON, S. C.
FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Seven representatives of the L. H. S. Hi-Y club attended the annual conference sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. in Charleston, S. C. the week end of December 3, 4 and 5.

While there, the delegates were taken into private homes. Many well known leaders in Y. M. C. A. work spoke during the programs. One which the boys especially enjoyed was Dr. Samuel W. Graffith, a native of New York who spoke on the Hi-Y theme—"Facing Life Squarely". Saturday the boys were treated to a boat ride to the historical Fort Moultrie. This is one of the best equipped artillery posts in the United States. Also on Saturday was a luncheon at the local Y. M. C. A., and a banquet that night. The boys from L. H. S. enjoying this conference were Carl Parks, president of the Hi-Y, Fred Harris, secretary of the Hi-Y, Ed Gaines, Lewis Farmer, Harry Michael, Charles Phelps and Douglas Horner.

SCHEDULE FOR CLUBS PLANNED

REGULAR CLASS MEETING TO BE HELD

For a better use of activity period, Mr. Bullock has worked out a schedule for meetings and programs, which went into effect last week. There will be no home room period on Monday, getting out at 3:00. Tuesday is called Clubb day, Wednesday—Home Room day, and Thursday—Assembly day, with no activity period on Friday.

With only one day, Tuesday, for clubs, most organizations have to meet outside of school. The first Tuesday in each month the Forum Club meets, on the second Tuesday the Beta Club, third Tuesday the FForum Club, and fourth Tuesday the Dramatic Club. The Student Council meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays. All other clubs have to meet outside of school hours.

Wednesdays are divided between class meetings and home rooms. Seniors hold a meeting the first Wednesday, juniors the second Wednesday, sophomores the third, and freshmen the fourth. When there is no class meeting, home rooms have either a program or teacher guidance. Each home room is required to have at least two programs every month. Suggestions for programs in either class meetings or home rooms have been placed with the teachers.

Mr. Bullock urges the students to participate in this schedule, which can certainly help the organization of the school.

FORUM CLUB ORGANIZED

All students interested in debating and speaking met in Chapel Tuesday, December 7 and organized the Forum Club. Officers elected were: President, Roland Beck; vice president, David Williams; clerk, Joan Sink. Mr. Bullock is advisor. A committee was appointed to write a constitution and by-laws. Plans have been made for members to enter the triangle debates. Try-outs for these were held Thursday.
