THRU THE KEYHOLE

(By Snip & Snop)

Seems that Wilma A. has an affair with a certain "Mock" from Reeds. Clyde, you're losing out!

What two girls did Clyde C. ask to the F. banquet—but, in the end went stag?

Why is "Bob White" a certain small brunette's favorite song?

What's this I hear about the Southern Gas Utility Co. avec Joe H. & Rob C.—officials—T. Young had his finger in the pie.

Wonder if "Gooney" Allen still likes Buddy W.—????

We hope E. Osborne is satisfied—. Mildred Williams seems to be slightly jealous over I. Tate. Wonder why?

Marg. Broadway is getting sorta foolish about C. B. W. He don't know it, tho.

All that's been heard for two months now—is the football banquet—Well, its over—Wonder what next to interest we idle children?

Seaford Crouse is really stuck on a preacher's daughter from High Point. Wonder what Joan Sink has to say—concerning this subject?

While we're on the out-of-town romances what about C. Miller and F. Peeler & Salisbury. Nobody was smiling when Rob T.—played that dirty trick on them Sunday nite, tho!

Charles Phelps and seemingly Ed and Fred have gone nuts over the cute trick from Charleston (Vicky by name although Charles has the picture. Whatta trip!

Seems that the Bill Brown's and E. H. Easter's were chaperoned by a private chauffeur at the Banquet—What didn't go on wasn't worth mentioning.

Bet Moffitt got the lucky break after all—Cliff's choice, therefore, mistress at the banquet.

Can't prove it but I think Harvey Lax has left Betsy for a certain little Audrey (Simmerson). Anyway they exchange hats!

New case—Skinny Corn and Jane Moore. Really they do change around something awful!

Just heard that Mary G. Burkhart & Henry Styers are slowly coming to the end of their long romance.

We think: that Mr. Tucker's sarcasm was uncanny at the banquet—when he made the crack about some of the toasts—Far enough, Frere.

That's be all for this time—See ya—sonn tho!

MISS HORRIBLE FIX

Dear Miss Horrible Fix:

I have been dating a certain boy for about six months. We drifted apart all at once just as two boats on the ocean. I frankly admire this boy very much, but he goes to see other girls now. I think he cares for me and I have hopes of winning him back sometimes. What seems to worry me is that one of these lovely brunettes will pull the wool over his eyes before I have a chance.

Yours truly,
JENNY LIND

Dear Jenny Lind:

I think you are wrong in trying to hold this boy because now is the time for boys and girls to have a good time. They should not go with just one girl. If he really cares for you he will not give you up so easily in the future. Have patience, my girl and enjoy yourself.

Yours truly,
MISS FIX

Dear Miss Horrible Fix:

The boy friend has thrown me down. I stood faithfully by him at every football game and when his leg got all wrong it hurt me as much as it did him. How—Oh how can I bring him back? My heart is breaking!

Wailingly, FAITH

UNFROSTED PERSIMMONS

1. "Hold that line," here comes one of the most versatile girls on the campus. Her petite form may be seen wandering around almost any time. Her favorite words, "gimme a bite," and her pleasant disposition have won for her many friends. She is..... Her pet pastime is borrowing.

2. "Aw shucks, teacher," here comes a boy known for his big mouth and friendly attitude. When he isn't riding around in his wreck, you'll find him loafing at Chester's Eat-a-Bite or working at the garage. His brilliant portrayal as Huckleberry Finn has made him a "star." He is.....

3. "The ball is over and L. H. S. wins." Here's a football player who has this years played outstanding in several games. His ear to ear grin and his sunny disposition (along with his football playing) have endeared him to many, (ah, shall I say "fems") and boys too. He's none other than.....

4. "I can't live without my Black Draught and her chewing gum." Here she comes folks, a girl known everywhere for her diffy-daffy manner and her heart for a certain "Shoe" Carlton and also a special love for her studies, she's a grand girl to know. Know her? She is.....

5. Ladies and gentlemen, here he comes, followed by a string of sophomore girls with Nancy Ward leading. His teasing, flirtin gand donations of gums have given him a place in the hearts of many. He also likes Greensboro for what reason I do not know. And folks, you who do not know him will be crazy to meet him. He is.....

6. "He's here!" with a grin spread across his face, a perfect gentleman and a favorite. They call him "Honey" because, well, he is a honey. Do you remember what the Jeep said about him in the election two years ago. That still goes. He's for L. H. S. body and soul and he's everybody's friend. He is.....

7. If you hear a deep contralto voice behind you or see a blonde head bent over a Latin book you'll know its..... She's full of pep and ready for fun but she also takes her lessons seriously. She adores knitted suits and loves to read and talk and she's one of the very best members of the freshman class.

Girls, generally speaking, are—generally speaking.—Radiogram.

"My poor uncle gets dizzy spells from cigarettes."

"Is that what inhaling them does to him?"

"No, that's what bending down and picking them off the sidewalk does to him."

An absent-minded burglar went to Hollywood to rob a bank and broke into the movies.

"I'm to act in some shorts."

"Well, listen here, young lady, you'd better wear more than that."

When a fellow starts horsing around you know he's racing after some girl.

"Now, then," asked the lawyer, "have you legal grounds for wanting to annul your marriage?" The youth stammered, "Yes, yes, sir. I was shot out of season."

"That fellow in the front row hasn't enough meat on his ribs."

"Why, dearie! How do you know?"

"He's my butcher."

Dear Faith:

You are attractive I will admit and you certainly got what it takes. You know the shortest route to a man's heart is thru his stomach. Try this! Buy him good things to eat.

L. H. S. DAY BY DAY

(By O. O. McMiller)

Zamie—These Hi-Y boys are back—& joy comes back—Yippee—it seems as if Charleston must have some nifty hags—fer instance, Vickies & Peggies, not to mention its cafeterias (Raleys)—Farmer's tin lizzie was as good as gold, almost—

Picturesque views in the busy classes—Most picturesque of all is Bryon Myers' hair—gently he combs it & pats it in place—Then carries his head gracefully all day to avoid mussing it—Visiting in Mrs. Moffitt's 5th period & noted a surprising couple—Annie Hill & Paul Cope—serious?—Not to mention C. B. Williams & Jewel B.—C. B. really picks the good lookers—and if you've seen a tall darkie (that's just short for the traditional tall, dark etc.) & a little short blondie, a buzzing together in 6th library—don't think its Jean Harlow come back to talk with Robt. Taylor—its only Stan & Margie—Ah Hege!! But 2nd Dramatics takes my vote for the room for heart & woo club—it contains Mary Jo & Ervin, Sara & Willis, Carl & Betty—love is in the air & it ain't Spring!—However, I had almost forgotten the "boy & girl" room (so named by Mr. Bullock)—the Lexhipp room—here gathered (when so allowed)—the cream ?? of all L. H. S. journalistic (?) minds—but they're about thinned all the 6th period reporters down to just Marguerite & me.

Little highlights on the love in life—Poor Lewis nearly had hysterics when he discovered his picture of his S. C. flame gone—a comic one in its place—ah—there is a mystery—we never done it Farmer—nope! I wonder if we could add up any romance between Hog Jaw & Marguerite—but if we add correctly it makes three—bringing in a Revelle—it must be Marg's curls.

Bill Brown (a good friend of Mrs. Cuthrell) began his serious part of life by sending his heart girl a copy of the "Ten Commandments of Love"—Sis—you order appreciate those—for one hour did it take him to copy them love, love—a certain blond boy had better watch his tall brunette, I spect—cause Wilma has caught the eye of a certain Reeds boy—wish I had long black curly hair—ah me—& hey! Rita should order watch her football honey—often have I seen him being vastly entertained by Team—& there's a problem on hand once she gets her paws extended—& here's a brand new love note—Clifton H. & Vestal Hege—I noticed them conversing & just put it down as romance—if I'm wrong well whatcha gonna do about it? Things we have to have—Fred C's sweater—its so colorful—Leonard King's favorite word "Foo"—J. D.'s scratchy yawn—Cac Stroud's writing 75 times. "I must not pay any attention to Fred C."—cruel! Ivey Grimes—to fix the clocks of course—these hair plaits—such as Broadway, Sechrest & Kirby—really cute tho—the leaving of Miss Apple—& now what will we do!

Things we can do without. Skinny Corn (Goody I told you Skinny) now do something about it!

Guess that's all—

Confucius said: "Tis better to have halitosis than no breath at all."

Then there was the deaf and dumb man who had a nightmare and broke all his knuckles on the bedpost screaming.

Mountain Guide: "Be careful not to fall here. It's dangerous. But if you do, look to the left. You get a wonderful view on that side."

"Do you believe in Buddha?"

"Why, of course, but I think oleo-margarine is just as good."

Another man who insists that two heads are better than one is a hat manufacturer.

SOCIETY

Some of the "boys about town" gave a dance the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. It was one of the best and most enjoyable of the season. Music was furnished by Francis Holmes' orchestra. There was a great number of out-of-town couples there. The hosts were Pete Miller, Tom Craver, Coley Rhodes, Russell Revelle and Cliff DeLapp.

The E. G. O. club gave one of their well known parties last Friday evening at the home of clubmember Jean Bruton. Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Jean, "Gordie," and "Bill" Gordon, "Peeny," "Easer" Hinkle, Va. H. Brinkley, Sis White, A. L. Disher, Chip Clarke, Kenneth Rhodes, Bob Crowell, Bill Bingham, "Lukie" Hartzog, Fred Myers, Spud Michael, E. H. Easter, Dick Rabb, Bill Brown, Bill DeLapp, "Luck" Ruff.

PERSONALS AND PERSONS

"Sissy" Hinkle spent the Thanksgiving holidays with our old friend and classmate, Mary Kinney, of Bassett, Va. It seems "Sissy" had a grand time.

"Easer" Hinkle spent the holidays with Sara Pritchard of Charlotte. Some fun.

Va. H. Brinkley spent the holidays as the guest of Bettie Baxter of Charlotte. Got her picture in the paper too!

Martha Yonce, of Virginia, was Betty W.'s guest over the holidays. She took in the dance, etc.

Marguerite, Cam and Fanny spent the major part of the day in Winston-Salem Monday—Christmas shopping it seems.

The greater part of the Lexington High alumni was back in the home town for the holidays. They are too numerous to name.

Joan, Odessa and Hubert represented us at Boyden High, in Salisbury, last Friday. They report an enjoyable time.

The Hi-Y boys are back from Charleston with moss on. They say they painted the town pink. Now why not red? Thought that was customary. What have you to say for yourselves?

The many friends of Charles Elkin will be pleased to note that he is out of the hospital and feeling fine.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF LOVE

1. Thou shalt place no other boys before me, because I am of a jealous nature.

2. Thou shalt remember me and forget all others.

3. Thou shalt not talk to other boys in my presence, but should devote thy attention to me.

4. Thou shalt break no dates with me.

5. Thou shalt not flirt with other boys.

6. Thou shalt not kiss other lips than mine.

7. Thou shalt treat me with courtesy for I am tender hearted and can't stand rough treatment.

8. Thou shalt permit me to butt into all private conversations.

9. Thou shalt love me with all thy heart, with all thy soul, in old age, and until death do us part.

10. When ready to part, "Kiss me good-bye."
