sional was played.

At 8:00 o'clock on Sunday night the Reverend Lee F. Tuttle, of the Main Street Methodist Church in Thomasville, N. C., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. The Reverend John Hoyle, Jr., will introduce the speaker; Reverend Odell Leonard and Reverend H. A. King will also take part in the exercises. The High School Glee Club will render the musical selections.

On Monday night, May 31, at 8:00 o'clock, the commencement will be held in the high school auditorium. Several seniors will render musical selections. Ann White will present the class gift to the school and the traditional commencement exercises will follow. Mr. Cloyd Philpott will give the diplomas to the 132 graduates of the class of 1943.

Credit Where Credit Is Due

Upon completion of her four years there, she wants to enter a conservatory, preferably Julliard School of Music in New York.

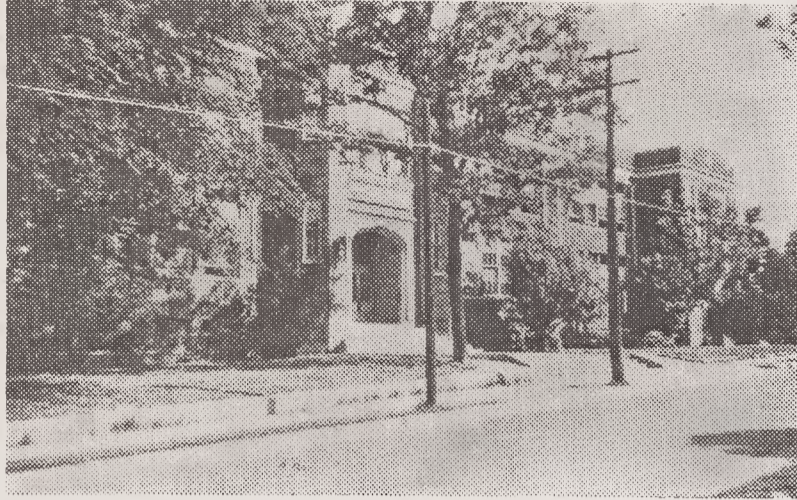

Charlie Williams, the efficient business manager, claims no less brilliant a high school record than does Jeanne. He began his work on the LEXHIPEP in his junior year as assistant business manager and was later promoted to business manager. He has done an excellent job and deserves much credit and praise for his hard work and ingenuity.

In addition to his work on the LEXHIPEP, Charlie has taken part in all extra-curricular activities. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, Beta Club and President of the Hi-Y Club. He has also been very active in athletics, this year being a member of the tennis team, and had it not been for a physical injury, he would have been a valuable member of the football and basketball squads.

Charlie plans to attend Wake Forest next year in the hope of preparing for his chosen profession, that of being a lawyer and some day becoming a Supreme Court Judge.

The LEXHIPEP staff wishes its "bosses" the very best that college life has to offer, and most of all that they both attain the goals they have set for themselves.

Junior-Senior Banquet Proves Brilliant And Enjoyable Affair

DANCE FOLLOWS BANQUET

On Friday night, May 14, the climax of L. H. S.'s social year came. The juniors royally entertained the seniors at a delightful banquet. The Country Club was beautifully decorated with arrays of spring flowers. The juniors welcomed their guests to the tune of "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle" with original words. In response to the toast to the seniors by Bill Hunt, Ann White expressed how happy the seniors were to be there. Caroline Young gave a very original toast to Mrs. Cuthrell, who responded with her usual poise and grace. At this time Louise Price sang, "Let's Get Lost." Immediately afterwards Lloyd Tysinger paid tribute to Mr. Andrews who responded with a word of appreciation and hope for our happiness and success. A group of five girls rendered a song and Mr. Kelly gave a response to Charlie Williams' toast to the faculty. Jeanne Williamson then made a lovely tribute to Mrs. Hedrick who responded with an original poem. Several members of the junior class then presented two witty and delightful skits. To close the program, both the juniors and seniors stood and sang the farewell song.

Throughout the evening a delicious cold course was served. The menu consisted of potato salad, ham rolls, sandwiches, deviled eggs, rolls, apple glaze, pickles, fruit sherbet, cookies and tea.

As soon as the floor was cleared, the dance began. Music was furnished by the nickelodeum. A special late-show was booked for the occasion and many attended this showing at 11:00.

Afterwards, as one last fling, several groups of juniors and seniors had parties celebrating the gala occasion. Although some folks didn't get in until 6 and 7 A. M., (We'll mention no names) most of the celebrating was over by 2 or 3 A. M. and the juniors and seniors returned home, after a most successful banquet, "tired—but very happy." (Trite, but so are we).

1943 Graduates

THOMPSON, SARA LOUISE

"Her eyes are stars of twilight fair,
Like twilight, too, her pretty hair."

TOUCHSTONE, MATTIE RUTH

"Her ways are of pleasantness,
Her paths of peace."

TRITT, WILLIAM NELSON

"I am never merry when I hear sweet music."

TROUTMAN, MARY CATHERINE

"Her quietness does not make her less important."

TUSSEY, HELEN LOUISE

"There broke a sudden beaming tenderness of manners and of nature."

TUTTLE, MARGARET FRANCES

"Quiet and shy, she's very clever,
Makes show and earnest endeavor."

TYSINGER, LLOYD

"A silent smile; a friendly air."

WALL, CALVIN MONROE

"The birds can fly
An' why can't I?"

WEAVER, FRANCES RUTH

"For her the skies will never be gray, She'll never know a blue, dull day."

WHITE, ANN SPENCER

"A clever girl, a wiley girl, a girl so full of fun, a studious girl, a carefree girl, a thousand girls in one."

WILLIAMS, CHARLES ELLIS, Jr.

"He has thrown gus soats away,
He is wearing spurs today,
And the world will please take notice what Charlie will do!"

WILLIAMSON, JEANNE GRAY

"Thine, thy beauty, mind, and versatility."

Editor's Note:

Would like to insert here a note from Cadow Yeomans, a former classmate who now lives in Charleston, S. C.: "I miss every single person in L. H. S. and especially every senior. I'd give almost anything to be graduating with my class from a school like Lexington High."

Backward Glances Of Seniors Of '43

1939-40

Cadow Yeoman and "Gooney" Wall can't make up their minds whether they want to go together or not. Anyway, he waits on the corner of Third and Hargrave for her every morning.

What — "Another redskin hits the dust." Betty Driver and that dashing Jack Madsen. Watch it, bud!

Walter Foil—Ahem— I hear that you always stand around thinking about Jackie T. Nice subject!!

Margaret Dougan has a new feller. I wonder who it is? I know, it's E. R. Weaver.

1940-41

Austin Frye is stuck on Barbara Lewis. Say, Bud, you sho can pick 'em. Hope you can keep her.

Whom does Ann White really like? She seems to be doing O. K. with Steve Thomas.

Could Mary Bernice have a crush on Bob McGinn?

It seems that Lorraine M and Virginia M. have switched fellers for a while. Wonder how Jack and Marvin like it.

1941-42

Can you imagine—

"Dirty" wearing "Jukas" pants?
Jimmy E. in love with just one girl?
Doris and Buster being separated?

Jane Grimes says it's wonderful to be in love. What about it. Ossie?

Lyndol "Hedy Lamarr" Leonard has turned her glamour on Bob Arnold.

Grady McCoy sees qualities of an ideal mate in Mary Beck.

1942-43

I've been wondering about Polly and Fred. Will they make up? Possibly "Brinkley" could be the trouble.

Mary Catherine Troutman's love is Odell Bradshaw.

Jean G. still loves Percy.

Patti S. thinks Lincolnton is mighty fine town. Could it be Jim Broome?

Edna Owens likes the fullback on Tech (Charlotte) Hi's football team.

Jessie Gordon, a new girl, certainly is cute.

Maxine and Keyhole still hit it off O. K.
