"Campus Queen," Senior Play, To Be Staged Tonight

Senior Play Cast Reading Lines Before Rehearsal

At 8:00 In the High School Auditorium a Cast Of Twelve Will Present "Campus Queen"

Tonight at eight o'clock in the Lexington High School auditorium, the Senior Class will present a rollicking comedy entitled "Campus Queen." The play is a college farce in three acts and revolves around the election of the Campus Queen at a typical co-ed college.

Eloise Jerris, the campus beauty who has all the young men at her feet, and who is campaigning for the honor of Campus Queen, is played by "Teeny" Redwine. Three of Eloise's more ardent admirers are Larry Mason, editor of the college yearbook, the "Campus Mirror," and chairman of the Spring Dance committee where the Campus Queen will be crowned; Bentley Craig, the "brain" of the crowd who always urges the crowd to do more studying and less socializing, and Steve Graham, captain of the football team, who is always looking for a good time or a way to cut class. Larry, Bentley, and Steve are played by Carlton Everhart, Johnny Dixon and Charles Hill, respectively.

Amelia Johnson, a plain girl who never has a date but has a Phi Beta Kappa key, is played by Amelia Brown. Amelia's friends are Pegger Thayer, a typical college girl except that boys do not interest her. Frieda Hayes, a freshman who greatly admires Amelia; and Jane Freeman, older and more sophisticated than the other girls, but well liked by everyone. "Kitty" Philpott, "Joanie" Greene, and Marian Rowe portray Peggy, Frieda, and Jane. Orville Gibbs, also a good friend of Amelia's, and an associate editor of the "Campus Mirror," is played by Joe Bafford.

L. H. S. Students Prove To Have Talent

The Three Bears
WINNING STUNT

On Thursday morning, March 15, the members of the high school classes gave a most interesting talent show with Webb Leonard as Master of Ceremonies. Teeny Redwine led the devotional, which was followed by a program of great variety.

To begin the program Miss Hill's homeroom gave a skit of the Three Little Bears with Henry Rogers Cootie White, Bob Koontz and Ann Meachum taking part. Following this, the "Lexiconvicts" sang several numbers. The talent show was lucky enough to have as their visitors Maryanna Sink, Peggy Cathell, Patty Sue Taylor, and Betty Brinkley from Grimes School, who presented their version of the "Charleston". Next Winnifred Andrew played a number on the flute followed by Jake Ayers singing "Be My Love" and "My Heart Cries For You". Helen Thomason gave a skit of "Wilbur," and ouise Beck sang "Make Believe." One of the more humorous skits was Sue Everhart's monologue of "It Only Happens When I Dance With You," followed by three of the local talent, the Bruton sisters, doing a song and dance. After that Suzanne Myers and Joan Kearns gave a radio impersonation, and Charles Hill gave his impersonation of the "Match Girl," taking the part of three characters. Everyone seemed to enjoy Carol McDade's singing "Blue Moon," as well as several others he sang. The students were also lucky enough to have on their program the band trio consisting of Joanne Williams, Margaret Rowe, and Jo Ann Becker, who won first prize in a contest at Lincolnton, to play a number. Following this Cloyd Philpott and Mackie Redwine gave a skit of "Two Old Friends Meet Again," and the program ended with several musical numbers presented by the Triple Threat made up of Nick Kearns, Tommy Hutchins, and Tony Solomon.

The entire program was excellent, and the student body is proud of its talent and is looking forward to hearing more from them in the near future.
