

THE LEXHIPEP

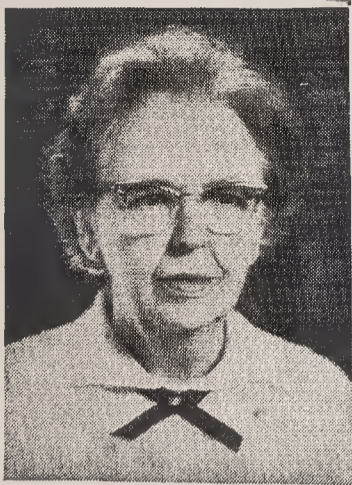

Vol. XXXVIII

LEXINGTON SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, LEXINGTON, N. C., MAY 25, 1961

No. 8

DEDICATION

"And gladly would she learn, and gladly teach."

—Chaucer

For her deep devotion to learning and teaching, for her great love of her students, and for her many years of sincere loyalty to Lexington Senior High School, we, the LEXHIPEP staff of 1960-61 do lovingly dedicate this senior edition of the LEXHIPEP to our dear friend and teacher —

Miss Lillian Jones

MONIKA KOLAR

This year, Pat Hankins will go abroad as an exchange-student of the American-Field - Service-summer - program. She will leave Montreal, June 9th, on the "Seven Seas," arrive in Rotterdam ten days later, and go by train to Carlsberg Pfalz, Germany, where she will be welcomed by her foster family. Being an exchange student myself I know what exciting months are behind Pat and what a wonderful time is still ahead.

Before Pat's return, Lexington is expecting two more exchange students, who will spend the year with Dr. Darrell McWhorter, and Mr. J. B. Hornbuckle.

PERRY GRIMES CHOSEN "CITIZEN OF THE MONTH"

—BETTY McMILLAN

The Citizenship Committee of the House of Representatives has chosen Perry Grimes as the "Citizen of the Month" for May. Perry, a popular sophomore at Lexington High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Grimes of Linwood Road.

Although Perry has been at Lexington High School only two years, she has proved that friendliness and a helping hand make a girl very dear in the hearts of the students. Her beautiful smile and cheerful greeting, which she has displayed for many, many years, have become so much a part of Perry that the students would hardly recognize her without these characteristics.

She has held many elective offices during the last two years. Some of these are Freshman Class President, Junior-Senior Waitress, Freshman Class Representative to the Student Council, un-official store helper, varsity cheerleader, and Secretary of the Student Council.

In student government work, Perry has served on the all-important Elections and Resolutions Committee, the Career Day Planning Committee, and the College Day Planning Committee, thus proving her fine leadership and organization abilities.

Her varied list of activities not only consists of student government participation, but it also includes many clubs. Perry is in the Latin Club, the Future Homemakers of America, the Junior Classical League, and the Science Club.

The House of Representatives takes this opportunity to wish Perry the best of luck and great success throughout her school years and her future endeavors.

The letters will be presented by Coaches Carroll Bowen, Frank King, V. G. Price, Jr., Bob Callcutt, and Johnny Rhodes. Congratulations to these boys on their fine achievement.

SENIORS HOLD FINAL ASSEMBLY TODAY

— LOUIS BOWLES

It was a dignified moment as the 1961 graduating class marched into the auditorium for Senior Assembly at 1:30 today. Leading the procession were the class officers, Johnny Williams, president; Louis Bowles, vice president; Dan Smith, secretary; and Donnie Leonard, treasurer. After the seniors had taken their places, devotions were given by Johnny Williams and Von McCaskill. Then Mr. L. E. Andrews delivered the invocation.

Johnny Williams, Senior Class President, was the master of ceremonies for the delightfully varied program. Marcus Hamilton, clever as always, did impersonations of various people in show business; Jerry Lopp sang a solo; and Judy Lea and Jackie Pickett played numbers on the organ. The band, under the capable direction of Mr. Darrell Pittman, played the traditional "Processional" and "Recessional," and also a feature number. The 1961 electives — Ann Rogers, Historian; Judy Grayson, Poet; Phil Palisoul, Testator; and Barry Williams, Prophet — were then introduced. Judy Grayson, class poet, read the class poem she composed in the form of an English sonnet. Next came the much anticipated presentation of awards and scholarships to deserving seniors. They are as follows: UDC, BPW, O. Henry Short Story, National Honor Society Medal, Lexington Music Study Club, Civitan Scholarship and Citizenship award, Rotary Club Cup, Credit Woman's Breakfast Club Scholarship, and the Richard Walser Book Club Poetry Awards. Recognition was also made of other college scholarships and awards.

The dedication of the LEXHIPEP, an important feature of the assembly, was made by Editor, Ann Rogers. The sixteen page edition was dedicated to Miss Lillian Jones, esteemed teacher and friend.

The Class Song, "The Father Does It All," with words and music composed by class valedictorian Mary Ann Sowers, was beautifully sung by Charlye McDade, with accompaniment by the composer. The last number of the program was the Lexington Senior High "Alma Mater," after which the seniors led the recessional from the auditorium.

SEVEN L.S.H.S. STUDENTS LISTED IN WHO'S WHO

Seven outstanding student leaders of Lexington Senior High School have been chosen to be included in the national publication WHO'S WHO AMONG THE STUDENT LEADERS IN HIGH SCHOOL OF AMERICA.

These students were selected for their leadership and cooperation, their scholastic and extracurricular activities, their Service to the school and their citizenship and promise of future usefulness.

Lexington Senior High congratulates these fine students for the fine honor and know that these students are most deserving of this achievement.

SENIORS TO DINE AND DANCE AT CLUB

—TINA HILL

Tomorrow night at seven o'clock, the seniors and the senior teachers will celebrate their last social event before graduation. A dinner will be held honoring the seniors at the Lexington Municipal Club.

As traditionary, the class officers and their mothers will put forth much effort to make this a successful occasion. President Johnny Williams will preside over the dinner, and the other officers along with their mothers will head various committees. The mothers that will help are as follows: Mrs. Ted Williams, chairman; Mrs. Christine Bowles, Mrs. Bruce Smith, and Mrs. Roby Leonard.

The entertainment will come from the talented seniors of the class. Immediately following the banquet a dance will be held for the honored seniors and their dates. All the seniors are eagerly awaiting this glorious occasion which is always enjoyed by each graduating class.
