Surprisingly the White Rabbit was not late to conduct the royal ceremony of the annual Tri-Hi-Y Coronation Ball held on November 17, 1961.

The decor of the Coronation was that of the queen's croquet garden from Alice in Wonderland. A golden apple tree, a card tree, and three large cards set the stage for the entrance of the King and Queen of Hearts and their court of Tri-Hi-Y members. Presented in honor of the occasion were the following: Prince Marlett Simmons Goodrum and Princess Mary Louise Baney; Count Robert Ernest Honeycutt and Countess Mildred McKinney Gee; Lord John Edmond Bumgardner and Lady Lynn Yvonne Grandolfi; Duke Glenn Edward Holmes and Duchess Cleo Hill Everhart; Duke Sherill Wayne Bumgardner and Duchess Suzanne Everhart; The Jack of Diamonds, John Richard Leonard III and Lady Brenda, Louise Hedrick; The Jack of Spades, Jeffrey Jennings Marley and Lady Bonita, Sue Hilton; The Jack of Clubs, Charles Richard Johnson and Lady Patricia Louise Melton; Nobleman, Lauren Craig Kugel and Mistress, Barbara Huffman Haris; Prince of Spades, David Barry Myers and Princess of Spades, Mary Elizabeth

At last the royal rulers, King of Hearts, Carey Noel Morphis and Queen of Hearts, Mary Marinda Conrad, were announced and crowned by the White Rabbit, Carol McWhorter. "Putt" is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave F. Conrad, Jr. Noel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morphis, Jr. The girls of the court paid special tribute to the king and queen by performing a figure.

For the entertainment of the court a skit of the Mad Tea Party was re-enacted by the Junior members of the Tri-Hi-Y. Alice was played by Arlene Bickel; the Mad Hatter, Martha Hardee; the Dormouse, Jackie Myers; the March Hare, Regi Williams; Tweedle Dum, Sandra Craver; and Tweedle Dee, Libby Ferguson.

The curtain closed with an honor dance led by the king and queen, later joined in by the members of their court.

Lamar Clark Voted Outstanding Citizen

—JIMMY SNYDER

The House of Representatives has unanimously chosen Lamar Clark as this issue's "Citizen of the Month." Lamar, known primarily for his athletic ability and leadership, is also one of the friendliest and best liked members of the Senior Class.

His varied outside interests are shown by his membership in the Latin, Pep, and Mongram Clubs. He has twice been a member of the House of Representatives, and has been an active member of the First Baptist Church in both the morning and evening services. Football is his best liked sport, and here too he has been given responsibility. His teammates selected him as one of the tri-captains for the 1961 season. Basketball and baseball are his other two sports, having lettered in both. With this
