

THE LEXHIPEP

Vol. XXXIX

Lexington Senior High School, Lexington, N. C., May 29, 1962

No. 8

MILDRED GEE SELECTED AS CITIZEN OF THE MONTH

—DORIS MORGAN

Mildred Gee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gee, has been voted by the House of Representatives as May's Citizen of the Month.

Mildred is active in many school activities. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Spanish Club, Science Club, and Tri-Hi-Y, of which she's secretary. She was a member of the cast of the senior play. She is also a member of the LEXHIPEP staff, serving last year as Exchange Editor, and this year as Literary Editor.

She is a member of the First Presbyterian Church and is an active member of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship.

Heartly congratulations go to Mildred who is highly deserving of this fine honor.

SENIOR DINNER HELD MAY 24TH

— Tony Wike

The final highlight for the social events during the senior year, the annual Senior Dinner, was held May 24, at seven o'clock at the Lexington Municipal Club.

Since 1948, when the idea of giving a dinner was first started by the parents of the President of the Senior Class, Bob Hendricks, it has become one of the most eagerly anticipated social events of the senior year. The first Senior Dinner was so successful that it has become an annual affair.

This year the mothers of the senior class officers — Kenny Swing, Johnny Fritts, Charles Bullaboy, and Noel Morphis — will serve as a central committee. They are Mrs. A. G. Swing, Mrs. John Fritts, Mrs. L. A. Bullaboy, and Mrs. J. W. Morphis, Jr. Assisting these four will be many other mothers of seniors.

The president of the Senior Class, Kenny Swing, will preside at the dinner. Committee chairmen are as follows: decorations, Suzanne Everhart; invitations, Sue Hilton; entertainment, Mary Louise Baney; dance, Mildred Gee.

Besides a delicious dinner, there will be entertainment provided by talented members of the senior class. Special guests for the occasion will be senior homeroom teachers, school officials, and the senior class sponsors—Mrs. Ottis Hedrick, Miss Charlotte Matthews, Mr. Carroll Bowen, and Mr. David Holcombe. After the dinner, a dance will be held for the seniors and their guests.

MESSERS. AND MISSES L.S.H.S.

First Row—Anna Sorensen, Tony Ratia, Pat Hankins, Charles Crouse; Mary Miller, Kenny Swing. Second Row—Winks McCurdy, Lamar Clark; Mary Baney, Marlet Goodrum; Simmy DeLapp (stand in for Guy Smith and Carol Myers); Mary Conrad and Johnny Fritts; Hun Philpott, Noel Morphis.

SENIORS HOLD FINAL ASSEMBLY TODAY

—MILDRED GEE
AND DORIS MORGAN

It was a dignified and inspiring moment as the 1962 graduating class marched into the auditorium for Senior Assembly today. Kenny Swing, class president, led the procession, followed by Johnny Fritts, vice president, Charles Bullaboy, secretary, and Noel Morphis treasurer. The devotions were presented by Rusty Ward. Then Mr. L. E. Andrews delivered the invocation.

Kenny Swing, Senior Class president was the master of ceremonies for the delightfully varied program. Senior talent was displayed as Carol Myers and "Hun" Philpott played an organ and piano duet "Because". Martha Michael also a senior entertained by playing an organ solo "Ave Maria". The band, under the capable direction of Mr. Darrell Pittman, played the traditional "Processional" and "Recessional", and also two special numbers. The 1962 class electives — Doris Morgan, poet; Charles Bernhart, Historian; Rusty Ward, Prophet; and Gary Ball, Testator — were then introduced. Doris Morgan read the class poem "A Parable of Success." Next came the much anticipated presentation of awards and scholarships to deserving seniors. They were as follows: UDC, BPW, O. Henry Short Story, National Honor Society Medal, Lexington Music Study Club, Civitan Scholarship and citizenship award, Rotary Club Scholarship, Credit Woman's Breakfast Club Scholarship, Richard Walser Book Club Awards, Spanish Club Awards, and the Tri-Hi-Y Scholarship.

The dedication of the LEXHIPEP, an important feature of the assembly was made by the editor, Pat Hankins. The sixteen page edition was dedicated to Mrs. Ottis Hedrick, esteemed teacher, friend, and LEXHIPEP sponsor.

Coach Callicutt for tennis were Charles Crouse, David Myers, Jimmy Snyder, Louie Cox, Jimmy Philpott, Dan Spears, and Tony Hedrick.

The golf boys getting letters from Coach Price were Bill Hall, Guy Smith, Joe Hornbuckle, Claude Reynolds, David Sechrist, and Danny Parker.

Coach Frank King awarded the track letters to Noel Morphis, Tony Ratia, Mickey Deese, Sammy Prevette, Teddy Royster, Harry Goforth, Maxey Sanderson, Ricky Rhodes, Larry Beck, Johnny Clark, and freshman Donnie Knepper.

The managers also received a letter. They were Mike Daniel and Dobin Callahan. Members of the Junior Varsity Basketball team were recognized for their fine effort. They were Pat McGinn, Hugh Bingham, Jimmy McCutcheon, Larry Evans, Johnny Clark, Charles Murdock, Jimmy Saunders, Alan Palisoul, Durante Griffith, Stephen Everhart, and Ronnie Tesh.

The coaches' sportsmanship trophy was awarded to Sherrill Bumgarner for his excellent sportsmanship throughout his year at LSHS.

CIVITAN CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED

—PAT HANKINS

This year Lexington Senior High School is privileged to have two winners in the annual Civitan Essay Contest. The topic this year was "Democracy vs. Communism As a Way of Life", and Linda Sue Swicegood's paper on this topic won first place, and Charles Bernhart's won third place in the county division. These students and their teachers were guests of honor at the Civitan meeting held May 22, and at this time they read their winning essays. They were also presented with prizes of $25 and $10 respectively, and it was announced that the winner would be entered into further competition.

Other Civitan awards were made this afternoon in assembly to Judy Cameron, who received a $100 scholarship, and to Dick Bagby, the outstanding citizen of our school.

Congratulations to these fine and deserving students, and best of luck both now and in the future.

MONOGRAM CLUB HOLDS AWARDS ASSEMBLY

—PAT MCGINN

On May 16 the Monogram Club held its final athletic awards assembly. Two members of the club, Maxey Sanderson and Charles Crouse, gave the devotions, after which the program was turned over to Lamar Clark, the club president.

Next came the presentation of the letters and stars to the men lettering in a sport. The coaches of their respective sports presented these.

The following boys received letters from Coach Bob Callicutt. Basketball: Jimmy Snyder, Charles Crouse, Joe Hornbuckle, Doug Pritchard, Johnny Bumgarner, Tommy Grayson, Nolan Leonard, Richard Johnson, Nicky Dry, Spencer Crowell, Charles Bernhart, Benny Parker, and Danny Parker.

For Wrestling, coaches Price and Johnny Rhodes gave the following letters: Delate Atkins, Jimmy Oakley, Gerald Lineberger, Jimmy Cox, Charles Call, Mitchie Harb, Danny Wood, Ronnie Leonard, Ronnie Hedrick, Chip Craver, Thompson Miller, Johnny Shoaf, Foster Owen, Jake Billings, Harvey Fullbright, and Steve Everhart.

For Baseball, Coach Carroll

STUDENTS ELECTED TO "WHO'S WHO"

— Doris Morgan

Again this year LSHS is proud to number nine of its most outstanding students in the annual Who's Who among the High Schools of America. The persons honored this year are Seniors Charles Bernhart, Noel Morphis, John Leonard, Lauren Kugel, Kenny Swing, Pat Hankins, "Putt" Conrad, Marie Moorefield and Junior, Jimmy Snyder. The "Who's Who" serves to bring recognition and honor to outstanding high school students who have shown qualities of leadership throughout their school careers.

A copy of the volume will be sent to the library at LSHS and to any student who wishes to purchase one.

Congratulations are extended to these deserving students on their achievement!

Bowen gave letters to Nicky Dry, Lamar Clark, Nolan Leonard, Tommy Grayson, Johnny Fritts, Jimmy Call, Richard Johnson, Johnny Bumgarner, Pat McGinn, Harvey Fullbright, Tommy Gobble, Mike Davis, Barry Lee, Marlett Goodrum, Jack Yarbrough, Sherill Bumgarner, Ken Conrad, Charles Bullaboy, and Greg Leonard. Boys receiving letters from

DEDICATION

A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warm, to comfort and command.

—Wordsworth

MRS. OTTIS M. HEDRICK

For your years of service and help, we, the LEXHIPEP Staff of 1962 do gratefully dedicate this, our senior edition to—