NEWS BRIEFS

Several of L.S.H.S.'s teachers are now attending school to further their education. They are the following: Mr. Rhodes, Mrs. Sharpe, Miss Hildreth, Miss Ross, Mrs. Hussey, Mr. Pittman, Mr. Reep, and Mrs. Ragen. Mr. Rhodes attended Appalachian State Teachers College in order to obtain his Masters, to keep him up to date, and to receive more pay. Mrs. Sharpe is attending Appalachian State Teachers College to study the teaching of reading and testing of measurement in order to renew her teacher's certificate. Miss Hildreth is taking courses in English and education from W. C. so that she may teach in college. Miss Ross is taking a graduate course in Home Ec. from W. C. Mrs. Hussey is obtaining her Masters from N. C. S. to aid her in guidance. Mr. Pittman is working on his Masters at U.N.C. Mr. Reep is working on his Masters at Appalachian State Teachers College. Mrs. Ragen is studying courses from U.N.C. in D.E. in order to renew her Masters.

French Play Postponed Until May 10

The 1963 French Play, 'Les Precieuses Ridicules,' has been postponed until May 10. It is hoped that this new date will be more convenient for all concerned. The LEXHIPEP will carry more about this event in a later issue.

N. C. State Symphonic Band Entertains At LSHS

The North Carolina State College Symphonic Band, under the direction of Mr. Donald B. Adcock, performed here on March 12. Among the selections played were "The Tsar's Bride" by Rimsky-Korsakov, "Polka and Fugue from 'Schwanda' by Weinberger, "Two Grecian Scenes" by Parnell, selections from "West Side Story" by Bernstein, and "Concerto No. 1 for French Horn" by R. Strauss, the last number featuring Steve Seawright in an impressive French horn solo. Greg Leonard, a former LSHS band member who is now a freshman at State College, displayed his talents in a cornet trio accompanied by the band. The band concluded the program with the peppy "Caisson Song" and finally the State College "Alma Mater."

Bands Present Assembly Program

The Lexington Senior High School and Junior Varsity Bands presented an assembly program on Thursday, March 21. The Junior Varsity Band opened the program; among the numbers were "Ceremony for Winds", "If Thou Be Near", "Calypso Man," and "Mountain Majesty." The Varsity Band concluded the program with several impressive songs — "Overture for Winds", "Prelude", and a medley from "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

Alan Gibson Wins Optomist Award

Alan Gibson, a freshman at LSHS, won the Optomist Club's Oratorical Contest on March 7 at the Lexington YMCA. His speech was centered around Youth's Approach Toward World Forces. He emphasized the fact that youths are an important force in the modern world, and have shown their ability to work together in order to fulfill the hopes and dreams of today's great men. Youth is in the process of building and improving our civilization.

Alan will next proceed to the Zone Contest in Greensboro on March 29.

Jimmy Snyder Accepts Morehead Scholarship

Jimmy Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Eugene Snyder, has accepted the Morehead Scholarship awarded him on March 5. Many LSHS students and Snyder fans watched Jimmy receive his award on television that night. Jimmy, who has recently been a sought-after basketball prospect of several colleges, announced March 20 that he will attend the University of North Carolina and plans to play basketball there. Jimmy plans to study law at the university.

The Morehead Scholarships are given each year by John Motley Morehead of New York, who has made many large donations to UNC. This year fifty-three young men, from North Carolina and also out of state, received Morehead Scholarships; this is the highest number ever awarded.

Jimmy is the first Morehead winner to come from Lexington. All of Lexington Senior High School is extremely proud of his well-deserved honor.

ELAINE YATES IS NEW LEXHIPEP EDITOR

After careful consideration of the LEXHIPEP staff members who will be seniors next year, Elaine Yates has been chosen as the new editor. Serving as Elaine's assistant editor will be Susan Moore, with the following senior staff members remaining: Business Manager, Cordy Easter; Sports Editor, Doug Pritchard; Literary Editor, Larrie Young; Exchange Editor, Jane Leonard; and Typists, Carolyn Beck and David Siceloff. The last three names are new to the LEXHIPEP staff. These juniors will complete the 1963-1964 staff: Assistant Business Manager, Jimmy Philpott, Sports Writers, Donnie Knepper and Jack Carter; Gossip Columnist, Sherry Wilson; Mr. and Miss L.S.H.S. Columnist, Evelyn Hackney; Humor Columnist, Jack Palmer; Club Editor, John McWhorter; Assembly Editor, Anne Bingham; Reporters, Linda Kirkman and Cheryl Craver; and Photographer, Joe Hankins. The new staff members have been chosen on the basis of their records at Lexington Senior High School and their capability to fill the various positions. Some staff positions have been dropped and some have been added in order to make a more efficient combination. Some of these announced positions are only tentative and are subject to change.

Carousel Presented by Tri-M

On March 28, the Tri-M Club (Modern Music Masters) presented selections from the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical "Carousel". The program, on which the club has worked for over two months, was enjoyed by everyone.

Taking part in the production were: Linda Nannie, Emily Hedrick, Carol Honeycutt, Jim Thomason, Paul Peninger, and Ruth Davis. The entire club took part in the chorus parts.

This musical, published in 1947, contains a wealth of good music. Some of the more popular selections are "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," "This Was A Real Nice Clambake," "Carousel Waltz", "If I Loved You," and the beautiful "You'll Never Walk Alone."
