

Eighth Grade Intramural Games

Once again Henderson Institute is sponsoring another intramural basketball season for the 8th time in the decade of the sixties.

The only undefeated teams so far are the homerooms of Mr. Cushenberry, Mr. Cash, and Mrs. Reid. Mr. Cash's N.Y.P.D.'s will probably remain so. The most exciting game of the season will be battle of the N.Y.P.D.'s and Mrs. B. Reid's class.

These intramural basketball seasons have been widely approved by the student body at Henderson Institute, and are popular for revealing unknown basketball talents.

Student Attending Advanced School

During the beginning of the 1967-1968 school year a test was taken to give some of the 8th grade students at Henderson Institute a chance to attend an advancement school. Only those who had gone to a preceding 7th grade elevated class and a few others had a chance to do so. Four highranking pupils were chosen but only one took advantage of the opportunity.

He was Wayne Lewis, a member of Mr. E. J. Cash's homeroom and a student from Eaton-Johnson 7th grade elevated class. While now present at school in Winston-Salem, he approves its modern classes and convenient studying facilities. He was assigned to his new school on the first week of January and is allowed to return home on various week ends.
