

SUCCESS SECRETS

(Southern Masonic Journal)

"What is the secret of success?" asked the Sphinx.
 "Push," said the Button.
 "Never be led," said the pencil.
 "Take pains," said the Window.
 "Always keep cool," said the ice.
 "Be up-to-date," said the Calendar.
 "Never lose your head" said the match.
 "Make light of your troubles", said the fire.
 "Do a driving business," said the hammer.
 "Don't be merely one of the hands," said the clock.
 "Aspire to greater things", said the Nutmeg.
 "Be sharp in all your dealings," said the Knife.
 "Find a good thing and stick to it," said the stamp.
 "Do the work you are suited for", said the chimney.

MANY INTERESTING FEATURES IN CHAPEL

This year the school has been exceedingly fortunate in securing the speakers and entertainers for our chapel exercises. From Dr. Turner's excellent talk on the "T's", Thinking, Trying and Trusting; to Sunshine Hawk's entertaining reading and rollicking jokes; they have been a source of amusement and instruction. The school was twice carried to Europe by both Dr. Lindeman and Dr. Barnhardt. Miss Lulsdorf and others were greatly enjoyed. The school heads make special efforts to get good people for our chapel exercises and the pupils ought to appreciate them.

BASEBALL IN ANCIENT DAYS

The devil was the first coacher: he coached Eve when she stole first; Adam stole second.
 When Isaac met Rebecca at the well she was walking with a pitcher.
 Sampson struck out when he beat the Philistines.
 Moses shut out the Egyptians at the Red Sea.
 Cain made a base hit when he killed Abel.
 Abraham made a sacrifice.
 The prodigal son made a home run.
 David was a long distance thrower.

MRS. HOYOS TEACHING FOR MRS. LAUGHLIN

Owing to the sickness of Mrs. Helen M. Laughlin, the Spanish teacher, Mrs. Hoyos is substituting. Mrs. Hoyos has recently returned from Cuba where she lived about nine years and also taught English while there.
 The Spanish pupils find her to be very interesting and enjoy having her with them. She is expecting to be with us about a month and a half. All the Spanish pupils welcome Mrs. Hoyos, and will give her their hearty co-operation.

EPISTLES OF HIRAM

Dear Ma:
 Up against th' sides of this here buildin' at Greensberry High School is grate big iron staresteps, but th' steps ain't jined together like th' ones at home. Well, yestiddy Jim and me was a settin' in th' big pepp meetin' room when all t' onct a bell rings, "br-r-r-i-i-ing! as loud as it can. Everybuddy in th' room gits up and makes a chase for these here stares. "Com'on," Jim squawls and grabs a holt a' me. I sez to myself, "It must be a fire," and so I lights out after Jim. We runs down these her esteps and gits down on th' ground after I done fell between 'em two times. We keeps on a' runnin' and gits to a big white buildin' what looks sorta like our barn 'ceptin' its got winders in it. 'N'en we all runs in and lines up against th' wall, like as if we's gonna march. "Gimme that water," yells some body. "Quitteha pushin'," bawls somebody else. I don't see no cents to it, ma, but its the dinin' room, where they eats. It sure is funny, havin' t' march t' dinner. Purty soon a real fuzzy-headed girl comes a' shoving' by an' gits in line ahead a' everybuddy else. An yu don't have t' wate, ma, yu jist go an' git what yu want, its all a' settin' on a long table. Another gurl, in a few minits, comes a' pushin' by an' goes up t' another gurl. "Get my lunch for me," she sez, "I wants rowls an' butter, soop, an'—I gess I'll hafta git beans; I'm so tireda beans—but git me some anyway." We hafta go down a little track an' come out by a 'hole bunch a' ladsy who yu pay t' git out—ain't that queer. I ain't never heard of payin' t' git out befor.' 'N'en yu sits down to th' table an' pitches in. I set at th' side nex t' the winder an' everybuddy was a tryin' to step on my back but I ain't hurt none. Everybuddy yells, an' talks loud, an' rattles dishes, an' makes most as much fuss as a pepp meetin'. Jim sez yu havta run to git there afore th' beans gives out. So it wa'n't no fire after all. It's awright, but, ma, I guss it don't touch what eatin' is, down on th' farm.

Neal Jones: Did you hear of that terrible explosion at the O. Henry last night. A bum rolled out of bed.

"Sunshine" Hawks: Is that so? I didn't know that you slept there last night.
