

NOVEL SYSTEM ADOPTED FOR CAFETERIA SERVICE

The new plan of dividing the school day into eight forty-five minute periods, and using three of these, the fourth, fifth and sixth, for lunch periods seems to be working with all the ease and satisfaction anticipated.

Under the old plan the groups of four or five hundred each, were served in two thirty-minute periods. Because of the number and length of time, there was more or less hurry or confusion, resulting in dissatisfaction on the part of both pupils and faculty.

The new system allows a more selective grouping of pupils. Work is going on in the buildings during all the periods for some groups, while others are being served at the cafeteria.

Already the plan is an improvement over the old and it is believed that time will add to the general satisfaction.

WINSTON-SALEM HAS TWO HI-Y MOVEMENTS

Winston-Salem has two Hi-Y Clubs, a junior and senior club, which are separate organizations but work together in many ways and have a common purpose, namely, "the creation, maintenance and extension throughout the school and community of high standards of Christian character.

Every year these clubs have a minstrel, the proceeds going to some charity institution. Last year five hundred dollars was earned and given to the Young Men's Christian Association and the Children's Home. At the end of every school year they have a closing banquet to which every boy asks a girl. A supper is served and a jolly good time had afterward.

Greensboro has one club, composed of a group of live fellows from the High School. This club has been started but a few weeks and it is already destined to be one of the best and most useful in the State.

Arthur N. Cotton, the founder of the Hi-Y movement says that is but a small part of the real purpose, that any element that starts a movement toward better language, clean sports, more spirit and good citizenship is a Hi-Y movement; that whether you are a member of a club or not, whether a Freshman or a Senior, you are a member of a Hi-Y movement so long as you hold up the standards of a clean sportsman and gentleman.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR OCTOBER

The scholarship shields were awarded this month to the rooms making the greatest improvement in reducing the percentage of failures. Room 103 in the Main Building carried off the honors, having raised its standard 10 per cent. Room 203 led all the rooms in school in the low percentage of failures, their's being only 4 1-6 per cent. This is the second time that room has made a good showing and the students are to be congratulated.

In the annexes Miss Hall's room leads with 9 1-11 per cent. failures and 12 per cent. improvement. This is the second month they have won the shield, and they look as though they intend to keep it.

The Honor Roll for both buildings is as follows:

- 3B Margaret Lambe, Lucile Sharpe.
- 1B Carolyn Thompson.

GREENSBORO SOCIAL COMMITTEE IS FORMED TO CONTROL SCHOOL SOCIALS

Miss Killingsworth, faculty head of the High School Social Committee, called a meeting of that body Tuesday, October 25. The committee is composed of a faculty representative from each grade, a student representative from each grade, and a member from each organized society or team of G. H. S.

In this meeting were discussed the various forms of socials for the High School, whether to have session room parties and picnics or class affairs; whether to let the faculty plan the entertainment of the various visiting teams of football, etc., or to let different grades do this, and which teams to entertain, whether all the teams or some of them. Also, what socials would be considered High School affairs.

After much discussion the committee came to the following conclusions: That the three upper grades were to have one whole grade party and that, as there were so many Freshmen, they could have session room parties. Each session room could have picnics, if the session room teacher was willing to be responsible for the crowd; the faculty committee would help in all the High School entertainments of the visiting teams, and they would only plan a social for the team, when a representative from our team had been to the head of the committee and stated that they would like to entertain this special team. Also, that the different grades could be allowed to be responsible for the entertainment of some of the teams; and if a party was given in a home for a room or class, the High School would be free of any responsibility of the affair, although they would be present.

The Y. W. C. A. Hut has been turned over to the High School for any entertainments they may wish to have there on Saturday night. We may now have some entertainments we could not otherwise have, if we did not have the hut.

MISS MORLOCK LEADS GLEE CLUB FOR YEAR

The Girls' Glee Club, composed of 25 members, has begun its program for the ensuing year under the competent leadership of Miss Morlock, director of school music. Regular weekly practices are held every Thursday afternoon. Special work for the development of a large chorus of mixed voices is being carried out by the club. Every girl interested in this phase of school activities is invited to become a member of the club. It is planned to render several musical programs during the scholastic year.
