

WINSTON TRUNCES G. H. S. DESPITE HARD TUSSELE BY LOCAL GRIDS

Williams Kicks Field Goal

After displaying a rush that literally swept W. H. S. off its feet in the first half the Greensboro line weakened in the second half and Winston had scored three touchdowns before the local line could hold them.

G. H. S. kicked off to start the game; Winston was held for downs and were forced to punt. Then—it was that G. H. S. began a series line plunges, end runs, and off-tackle plays that carried them to the 5 yard line. There, on the fourth down, Williams was called back to drop kick. He sent the ball straight through the goal post for three points that put G. H. S. ahead in the score column with the score 3 to 2, Winston making 2 points on a safety just a few minutes before Williams' drop-kick. Winston then kicked off and Greensboro was forcing its way down the field with a powerful attack that the experienced Winston line could not stop, but here G. H. S. fumbled and Winston recovered. With the aid of two forward passes and one or two line plunges, Winston carried the ball over for a touchdown. Hampton kicked goal for the extra point. The first half ended with the score of 9 to 3.

In the second half G. H. S. did not show the fight and attack that she had in the first part of the game. Winston, through end runs and forward passes, scored three touchdowns, ending the game 29 to 3.

Swimming Meet Held in Y. W. C. A. Pool Contestants Win Points

About twelve girls participated in the second swimming meet, which was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A.

There were four principals and three optionals offered. They were: standing straight dive, running dive, and side and back dives. The optionals could be taken from such as: the swan, butterfly, salute, hand stand, cannon ball, jack knife or Charlie Chaplin. The four principal dives will count five points each, but the athletic council has not yet decided upon the value of the optionals.

The judges at this meet were: Miss Myrick and Miss Nash of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Plowden and Mrs. Parks of the faculty.

Everyone who entered the meet got something out of it and had a good time besides. If, however, you were left out, see Miss Mary Morrow, who will see that you get a chance to come before the cruel (?) judges.

MR. ARCHER INSPIRES FRESH- MEN BOYS AND GIRLS

Speaks in Chapel Exercises

On Thursday, October 26th, the Freshmen were glad to welcome Mr. Archer to conduct their chapel exercises. He chose as his Scripture selection the story of the young rich man who went to Christ with the question, "Master, what good thing must I do to be saved?" and in his talk Mr. Archer compared the problem of the young man with the problem of the boy today.

He said that he felt sure that the young man was a counterpart of a High School student who was a leader among his fellow students—one with initiative, since he was willing to do something a little different from those things which all the rest were doing; one who was interested in doing the right thing, since he took the trouble to come to Jesus with his question; one who was law-abiding, since he had kept the commandments from his youth up; and one who was attractive in personality, since Jesus, looking upon him, loved him.

This young fellow's question was the most momentous question which any young man can ask of Christ—"What can I do to be like Jesus?" and the answer is still, as it was given to him hundreds of years ago, that there is no short cut, but that the ten commandments must be kept.

In speaking of Christ's instruction to the young man to give his all to feed the poor, Mr. Archer brought out the idea of unselfish-service, with the thought of others first in mind.

In conclusion, he said that the thing which sent the young man away sorrowful was the same thing which so often kept us from following our best inclinations—the fear of not standing in with the crowd. And he urged us to stand fearlessly up for the thing which we know to be right, and against which we know to be wrong.

LINCOLNTON BESTED BY G. H. S.

"Dude" Sellars Plays Well

The purple whirlwind turned loose again last Saturday and licked the hefty Lincolnton bunch of pigskin chasers 13 to 6. The game was a scene of many fumbles for both sides. "Dude" Sellars was the unchallenged champion of the day, playing at left half for Greensboro, and although he made some fumbles he played pretty football. He was especially good at breaking up passes. Kistler did the stellar stunt for Lincolnton, picking up a fumble and running 60 yards for a touchdown in the first three minutes of play.

In the first quarter G. H. S. made steady gains through the line. Most of these gains were over left tackle with Green and Burroughs opening holes. Lincolnton soon got on to this and reinforced that point.

The sensation of the day came on the second quarter. "Ike" Wrenn left guard, broke up a punt and "Willie" Green recovered and ran

N. W. WALKER BRINGS A PARENT'S MESSAGE

To Faculty and Parents

On Friday, October 27, "Fathers' night" was observed at G. H. S. Mr. W. C. Jackson from N. C. C. W. presided at the meeting.

The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. N. W. Walker, dean of education at the state university. Mr. Jackson in a most gracious manner presented Mr. Walker to the large audience which was composed of the patrons of the school. Dr. Walker in his speech stressed the importance of leadership of small groups in the High School and urged the fathers and mothers to know beyond question the character of the leader of the groups of which his or her child was a member.

The hearty applause which greeted our principal, when Mr. Jackson mentioned him as the next speaker proved how glad the fathers and mothers were to have him on the program. Mr. Phillips spoke briefly on the aims and ambitions of G. H. S. He emphasized the fact that the happy boy or girl in G. H. S. is the boy or the girl who is doing honest work.

Mr. Jackson closed the speeches by urging the fathers to do as the mothers had done by becoming members of the High School Parent-Teacher Association.

A social hour then followed. Everyone everywhere was confronted with a waiter of candy and apples, prepared by the social committee. The waiters were most attractive with the red apples decorated with large sticks of candy.

"Fathers' night" was a decided success, and all are looking forward to the next one.

MISS M. C. COLEMAN DISCUSSES NEAR EAST CONDITIONS

On Monday, Oct. 30, the High School enjoyed an unusual treat when Miss Mary Channing Coleman, of N. C. C. W., related some of her experiences in Germany and the Near East.

Miss Coleman, who has recently returned from an extended tour of Europe, proved a very interesting and able speaker. In her talk she laid special emphasis upon the economic conditions in the countries mentioned, giving her very candid opinion of the peoples.

First she introduced to us Czechoslovakia, a most progressive young republic, in which thrift and hard work seem the dominant characteristics. Of Germany she spoke feelingly as a nation in which hard times are an exaggeration, and courtesy to strangers an almost negligible quantity. But of special interest, at present, were her comments on the Near East. Constantinople, with its countless refugees, its inadequate food supply, its dire need, came as a revelation to many.

We hope that very soon we may again have the pleasure of hearing more of Miss Coleman's travels.

NAUGHTY FACULTY BEAT UP TIMID LITTLE SCRUBS

Phillips Brothers Heroes

Thursday, Oct. 26, a battle royal took place between the handsome faculty and the good old scrubs of G. H. S. Such a battle has never before been seen in the annals of Greensboro High. The faculty has never won before, but be that as it may, they did this time with time with a large majority.

When every one reached the field, the scrubs were warming up but not one of the faculty was to be seen. In a few minutes, though, they pranced on the field and proceeded to warm up; especially their feet, which some of the students imagined had become chilled due to the cold.

After a few minutes of fumbling and scrimmaging, the game was called.

Mr. McFadden, former football star, kicked off and the game began. During the first quarter two touchdowns were made by the faculty, one by Mr. G. B. and the other by Mr. Charles Phillips. We thought the Phillips' were going to make the gaining of touchdowns a family affair until Mr. McFadden galloped through the line of noble defence and brought back another slab of bacon.

This was the last time the faculty scored and the third time the scrubs didn't score. As far as that goes, the scrubs kept on not scoring during the game.

Much excitement was caused by Mr. McFadden getting hurt, but he didn't have to be taken out. Much amusement was caused by Mr. Charles Phillips wrinkling his nose so much. The general opinion was that he was making savage faces to scare unto death the poor little scrubs. However, they all survived, the faculty the victory, and the scrubs the defeat, and all the students are laying two to one odds in favor of the scrubs next year.

The only other event this year in which the pupils get a chance to retaliate is the baseball game between the girls and teachers.

AN APPRECIATION

Just as a matter of appreciation, thus far in the football season, in behalf of the players, we wish to thank the people who have been kind enough to furnish their cars whenever called for, for trips to various places. At all times when the boys and men connected with G. H. S. and the town have learned of a need of the team have responded promptly. Recently, when it was planned for all the squad to take a trip to Oak Ridge to witness a game, enough cars were on hand at the right time to take every squad member to the game. Similar trips have been made possible by the willingness of these people to come forward and give their time and the use of their cars. The team and coaches thank you, car owners.

J. M. McFadden.
C. W. Phillips.

Mr. Wells: Define space.
Penn McIntosh: I just can't express it but it's something I have in my head.
