

GREENSBORO SQUAD IS ELIMINATED BY MONROE IN CLOSE BATTLE

ENDS G. H. S.' SEASON

Charlotte, Nov. 25—A swirling dashing purple hurican from Greensboro scooped down upon Wearfield Saturday afternoon and so chilled and numbed the football eleven from Monroe, that the Union county aggregation had the greatest difficulty in nosing out a 7-6 decision.

Greensboro scored at the beginning of the fourth quarter but failed to add the extra point that would have meant a tie. Monroe followed in a few minutes with a touchdown, and W. Fairley made it seven with a neat drop-kick that split the goal post.

Greensboro kicked off, held Monroe and started a steady march down the field that nothing could stop except the whistle. The quarter ended with Monroe backs knocking, but the whistle turned a deaf ear and denied it.

Monroe, entering the game after a deadening grinding series with Shelby, met a team that, although to lose by no longer margin than it did, was fresh and eager for the clash and it was a long time before the Union lads seemed able to find themselves. The first, second and third quarters were clearly Greensboro's but the last period would be hard to figure.

Monroe then took the ball and after a steady march toward the opponent's goal took it over and Bill Fairley added the point.

From that time on Greensboro out-played Monroe and was about seven yards from the goal and going like a house afire when the whistle ended the game and Greensboro's ambition for 1922.

Greensboro	left end	Monroe
Burroughs	left tackle	McRae
Green	left guard	Lemmond
Wrenn	center	Beasley
Turner	right guard	Phifer
Hodgin	right tackle	Baskerville
Jackson	right end	Austin
Williams	quarterback	W. Fairley
Swift	left half back	Coble
Sellers	right half back	Laney
Wilkins	fullback	W. Fairley
McIntosh		R. Williams

AN APPRECIATION

The observance of "Better Speech Week" in our school was very successful. All the credit for this achievement is due to the teachers who planned the activities and to the students who co-operated cheerfully and enthusiastically in rendering the several programs. It is impossible to express in person and to each individual my sincere appreciation of the good work done. Please let this statement serve as a substitute. Our next task is to conserve the good influence of "Better Speech Week." I am sure that the school can depend on each one to accomplish this end.

This statement was written for the last issue of High Life, but it was unavoidably omitted.

Sincerely,

W. A. Barton, Jr., chairman.

THIRTEEN MONOGRAMS GIVEN MEMBERS OF TEAM

PLAYERS HIGHLY PRAISED

Friday was a red letter day on the calendar of G. H. S. The football boys were presented with monograms by Mr. R. C. Glenn. The boys thus honored were Willie Green (capt.), Norman Cooper (Mgr.), Fred Burroughs, Buster Swift, Oscar Wrenn, Norman Block, Penn McIntosh, Fred Turner, Earl Sellars, Bobby Wilkins, Clinton Jackson, Kenneth Williams and Ulton Hodgkin. Four players given honorable mention were Jack Dorsett, Charlie Harrison, John Ford and Meade Connally.

At the conclusion of the presentation of the monograms Norman Cooper, in behalf of the football squad, presented coach McFadden with a handsome traveling bag.

The program was then turned over to room 103 in charge of Clinton Jackson. After the scripture reading by John Sykes, the newly discovered Caruso of 103, Robert Irvin, favored us by "Smilin' Thou." Elizabeth Simpson enumerated a few of the things for which a G. H. S. student should be thankful. And Catherine Cox read some selected Thanksgiving poems.

One of the most enjoyable numbers of the program was the two songs, "The Waters of Minconka" and "The Cuckoo," which Mrs. Henry Ware sang in her usual charming manner.

SCENES FROM MERCHANT OF VENICE PRESENTED BY SOPHOMORES

ACTORS COACHED BY MISS MARIE CLEGG

Like a rare morsel to an epicurean was the program presented in chapel last week. Trained and coached by Miss Marie Clegg, her Freshman English class presented two scenes from Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. They made the court and the home coming scene especially life-like. For actors so inexperienced they portrayed their characters exceedingly well. By the interpretation of his part Gratiano succeeded in charming his audience. The cast was as follows:

Cast in Court Scene
Bassanio	Bill Hill
Antonio	Daniel Swift
Gratiano	Eugene Cox
Portia	Margaret Hood
Nerisso	Cecile Lindon
Duke	Marshall Campbell
Clerk	May Ziglar
Iaterio	Orden Goode
Cast in Homecoming Scene
Portia	Martha Broadhurst
Nerissa	Dorothy Lea
Lorenzo	Orden Goode
Jessica	Dorothy Mayes
Stepheno	Marshall Campbell
Lanceolet	Roy Ziglar
Other characters same as in first scene.

"Before consenting to your marriage to my daughter, I want to warn you that I have been accustomed to giving her everything she asked for."

"That's all right, sir. I wouldn't have you change your habits for the world."

OUR APOLOGY

In the last issue of High Life a rather serious mistake was made. We stated that Miss Isabel Coleman spoke to the girls' Athletic Association, but we wish to correct our error and say that it was Miss Mary Clanning Coleman of N. C. C. W. who gave the interesting talk on "European Sports."

STUDENTS IN FAVOR OF COOPERATIVE COUNCIL

SENIORS FOSTER PLAN

The idea of the students' having a share in the management of their school is not a new one in the Greensboro High School. For four years the question has been discussed from various points of view and with varying enthusiasm and interest. At one time there was a strong sentiment for a council whose functions should be chiefly judicial; at another time there was a campaign for a students' government association modelled on systems existing in colleges. Many reasons could be assigned for the failure of these plans to materialize; but the chief reasons were these: The faculty were not wholly in sympathy with the movement; the students were not united in supporting the movement; and the systems proposed did not seem to meet with the approval of those who favored the idea.

Recently there has come another suggestion for a student council which shall co-operate with the faculty in the management of the high school. The immediate functions of this council shall be four:

- (1) To elevate the standards of honor and scholarship in our school.
- (2) To foster a better type (if that be possible) of school loyalty.
- (3) To handle cases of discipline referred to them by the principal.
- (4) To act as a medium of expression for the student body in all matters connected with their school.

It will be seen that this is not
(Continued on page 3)

SENIORS LEAD AGAIN

Student Cooperative Plan Adopted at Class Meeting.

Boys and Girls,—Attention! The die is cast. We have crossed the Rubicon. The students are to have a co-operative council.

After much heated discussion, pro and con, the senior class has finally decided in favor of a student co-operative council. This council is to work in close co-operation with the faculty in any matter which may involve, in any way, the student body at large. The seniors feel that this council will aid greatly in the best development of the school, and practically every member of the class is whole-heartedly in favor of it. A great many students have the idea that this co-operative council is for the express and only purpose of stopping all dishonesty in the school, but this is not the one aim and ambition of the pre-mentioned organization. There are many general questions of school interest which call for a settlement in which the students may have a part. This is the purpose of the student co-operative council, and long may it live to reign and rule in our beloved school.

Marjorie Blair, Room 106.

FRANCIS THOMAS HEADS "LE CIRCLE FRANCAIS"

FRENCH STUDENTS ORGANIZE

Monday afternoon, after school, senesters three, four, and five, of French, met in room 106 to organize a French Circle. Miss Inabelle Coleman presided over the first part of the meeting and explained to those present how much credit was to be given. For each pupil who attends ninety-five percent of the meetings, five points will be added to his grade; five points will also be given each time a member participates in a program. After the explaining of a few other points, the rest of the meeting was devoted to the electing of officers. Those elected were: president, Francis Thomas; vice-president, Harvey Lying; Sec. adn Treas., Evelyn Trogden; High Life Reporter, Jennie Adams.

The object of the club is to create a friendlier spirit between all those interested in French, and to stand for the higher ideals for which we all strive. The club is not only to be a great pleasure to all who attend, but will also be very instructive. For example of this, when the roll is called each person is to answer to his name by a French proverb, in French. All plays, songs and poems given in the program are to be in French.

At the next meeting, which will be held Dec. 4th, at 3:45 p. m. Miss Adams' classes of French III will have charge of the program. They will present a play and many other interesting and worthwhile features to which the club is looking forward.

GLEE CLUB MAKES BOW TO SCHOOL IN CHAPEL PROGRAM

The G. H. S. Glee Club made its debut in chapel on Wednesday, Nov. 23, with the songs: "Rio Nights" and "Give Me All of You". It will not be long before the club will appear again. The Glee Club has been working since the beginning of the year.

Under the direction of Miss Maude Harris, incidently it has grown in wisdom, size and, favor in the whole school. The following are its members: Catherine Cox, Georgia Coggins, Louise Daniel, Francis Lambuth, Rebekah Monroe, Ethel Morgan, Elizabeth Moore, Maurine McMasters, Hermia Dale Simpson, Frances Thomas, Louise Wysong, Ruth Hobbs, Elizabeth Walters, Hope Johnson, Margaret Sweney, Ruth James, Virginia Denny Annie Milton, Harmon, Ruth Harding, Roberta Porter, Roulton Avery, Robert Irvin, Alex Stanford, Julian Johnston, William Hodgkin, William Sprinkle, Phillip Jeffries.

THANK YOU!

As chairman of the committee on arrangement for the dinner given to the new members of the Greensboro School System, I wish to thank each person for the loyalty and co-operation which made this dinner a success. Such a spirit is something the Greensboro school system should be proud of.

Edna J. Tyre.

P. T. A. GIVE OYSTES ROAST FOR TEACHERS AT Y. W. HUT

The social committee of the High School Parents Teacher Association delightfully entertained the high school faculty and their young men friends at the Y. W. C. A. hut, Saturday evening, Nov. 18, at a combination dinner and oyster roast.

The hut was decorated effectively with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, the large fire-place adding much to the charm of the room, in that it was a source of heat as well as of beauty.

Dinner was served in a very unique manner. Forming a line, each couple passed the table and was given a plate with sandwiches, which tasted like more, salad, oysters, and the essentials of a first-class meal.

After being served, a large semi-circle was formed in front of the open fire-place where laughter wit and fun accompanied the food.

During the evening, games were engaged in by all present, lead by Mr. Parks and Miss Edna Tyre. Among the games were the aeroplane race won by Miss Gressitt and the Marshmallows contest was won by Miss Dorsett.

Doctor Williams and Miss Morrow brought the games to a close by the cleverest stunt of the evening, in which Doctor Williams proved successful in the Baby Food Contest.

The evening was a happy one enjoyed thoroughly by the high school teachers and their friends. We shall always be indebted to our High School Association for furnishing us such an entertainment.

DEBATING CLUB MEETS

On Tuesday night, November 7th, at 7:30 P. M., the Debating Club met in the library of the high school.

The meeting was called to order by the president; Charles Lipscomb. The program for the meeting was a debate on the query; Resolved: that there should be compulsory arbitration of railway disputes. Wm. Neal and Eliz. Thornton of the negative were victorious over Robert Irvin and Kathryn Mann who upheld the affirmative. Those acting as judges were: Thomas Shaw, Philip Jeffries, and Elizabeth Simpson.

The election of a critic, Dorothy Albright was another feature of the evening. Mr. Lefler then gave a few points on debating and the manner in which it should be carried on. Mr. Reaves suggested that each member prepare a brief on the subject of debate for the next meeting and have an extemporaneous debate, the debaters being chosen by chance.

Several new members were present and were voted into the club unanimously. They were: Dorothy Albright, Corinne Cook, Virginia Jackson and Elizabeth Mann.

Mr. MacFadden: "Tell me five of the most important races of mankind."

Josephine Abernethy: "The hundred yards, the two hundred, the quarter, the mile, and the half mile."