

WHERE IS THE OLD PEP

COME ON OUT

MEMBERS OF FOOTBALL TEAM RECEIVE MONOGRAMS AND SILVER FOOTBALLS

Mr. Edwards Praises Men in Speech and Awards Certificates. HAYWORTH GIVES FOOTBALLS Coach Johnson, Captains Burroughs and Watson and Other Players Speak.

Monday morning, December 19, in the auditorium, the members of the G. H. S. football squad made their final appearance as a unit in 1924, and were awarded the school monograms and silver footballs, given by Mr. Francis Hayworth, a merchant of this city.

Fred Burroughs, captain of the team, presided. Arthur Davant conducted the devotional by giving the scripture lesson found in the ninth chapter of Corinthians.

The captain then expressed the sentiments of the team in a few crisp words: "The group you see on the stage is banded together, perhaps, for the last time. We would like to thank the student body for their loyal support. The spirit which you have shown has made victories possible and defeat glorious. There will undoubtedly be a parting of paths, but not of the spirit of G. H. S."

Willard Watson, captain of the next year's squad, was introduced. Captain Watson expressed his appreciation to the squad and to the student body. "I hope that the alumni with the spirit of '21 will come back to lend that same wholehearted support."

"This is the day of all the year," began Mr. Edwards, "to which everybody looks forward—the day when official notice is given to organized athletics." He then praised the sermon on sportsmanship and fair play given by Mr. R. Murphy Williams on last Sunday. "An Englishman's code of sportsmanship," he continued, "is similar to the American in its basic principles." Mr. Edwards then briefly outlined these principles as follows: A sport (1) plays the game for the sake of the game; (2) plays for his side and not himself; (3) is a good winner and a good loser, is modest in victory and generous in defeat; (4) is unselfish and always ready to teach others; (5) when a spectator cheers good plays or both sides but never interferes with the referee or players. Mr. Edwards gave splendid examples of each rule.

"The first of the three groups which go to make up a football squad is the men who have made their letters for the first time," said Mr. Edwards. "It gives me great pleasure to present to these boys their school monograms." The boys receiving letters for the first time were Roy Smith, Lacy Wyrick, Pete Ogburn, Willard Watson, Phil Shelton, James Williams, Jack Willman, Norman Stone, manager, James Caudle, Giles Horney, Charles West, Lattis Johnson, Willis Hargrove, Maurice Turner and Arthur Davant.

The scrubs then came in for their share of glory. Mr. Edwards had only praise for the grit and determination shown by the boys who go out each day and then watch the other fellow turn the trick. Those boys who received honorable mention were James Maus, James Watson, Bill Horney, Ray Faulkner, Adam Clement, Joe Faulkner, Ches. Strader, Edgar Young, Charles Burgess and Penn Hunter.

"Then there is that group of veterans—the men who have striven for even more than a year, are receiving their second award." Those who received stars were John Ford, Frank Goodwin, Mead Connelly, Bill Koenig, Vernell Hackney and Fred Burroughs. Fred was placed on the all-state team.

BASKETBALL SEASON STARTS WITH FLOURISH

New Squad Downs Madison and Summerfield by Decisive Scores in Early Games.

G. H. S. recently defeated Summerfield by the score of 51-12. The game was a good exhibition of teamwork and smooth passing. Both teams were strong on the passing attack but the Summerfield lads tried too many fancy shots and threw themselves in all sorts of uncanny positions before taking aim at the goal. At first the local team was bewildered by the unexpected demonstration, but finally the Greensboro swift passing began and the forwards began feeding the ball to Goodwin, who roamed in and under the basket and tipped in the field goals.

The stars for Greensboro were Goodwin and Bill Scott.

Line-up: Greensboro (51) Summerfield (12) Solomon Dixon W. Watson Ayers Goodwin Friddle Burrroughs Rayle Blair Price Guards

Saturday night, December 6, G. H. S. overwhelmed Madison by a 32-13 score. The game was well played by both sides, although G. H. S. received the larger score. Goodwin for the locals kept his teammates out of danger by his excellent shooting. The game throughout was a good exhibition of teamwork and passing. Summary: G. H. S. M. H. S. B. Scott (10) Teague Stone (2) Hopper (6) Goodwin (17) Sharpe (2) C. Scott Van Noppen Blair (3) Bass (2) Guards

Who wouldn't like to see Battling Babe charging up and down the floor or Swift Elzie caging one of the pretty balls, or old steady Viola playing the best guard game possible, or Flax, steady and grim at center ready for the tip-off, or Captain Webster calm and sure of her team, and Manager Patty ready for any assistance she can give to any teammate? Who wouldn't like to see this squad in action again, three of whom made all-state team?

MISS DRY AWARDS STATE AND HIGH SCHOOL INSIGNIA

State Monogram Is High Honor—Only Few Girls Earn It, 400 Points Being Necessary.

Athletic awards were made by Miss Dry in chapel, December 1, as follows: State Monogram—Helen Forbis, Elizabeth Darling. Stars—Marion Walters, Dorothy Lea and Mabel LaBarr. Letters—Elizabeth Umberger, Mary The G.N.C. is the state monogram and it is considered a distinct honor to receive one. This is only awarded to a member of the association after she has earned a total of 400 points. She must have a certain number for good citizenship, good swimming, and keeping in training for at least three months; the rest of the points may be won by various other sports. There are only five girls in High School wearing the state insignia.

A girl must earn 300 points under the system to be awarded a star, and she must have secured a total of 200 points before she is permitted to wear the High School letter G.

Thursday, December 4, was Pledge day for the fraternities at Carolina. The following G. H. S. boys were among those pledged: Charles Causey—Delta Kappa Epsilon. Charles Lipscomb—Sigma Chi. Bobby Wilkins—Pi Kappa Alpha. Albert Uzzell—Beta Theta Pi. Rufus Little—Alpha Tau Omega.

WEARING THE "G"

By Coach Johnston

Letter men of Greensboro High School wearing their sweaters with the big "G" gracing it seems to be a thing of the past. There are not many boys of G. H. S., and there are quite a few letter men of the various sports in the school not wearing their sweaters. It is an honor to be a wearer of the "G." To be a letter man means he has gone through the fire of hard work, given his best, tested his determination, sticking ability, and will power, and last but not least, given satisfactory evidence of scholastic standing.

Letter men should be factors in the school who stand for more than athletics. The wearers of the "G" should carry to the students enthusiasm and inspiration for clean sports and scholarship, and to the best held in the after-school life,—the business world.

Wear your sweater graced with the "G." Let the students and your friends know you are a "G" man. Captains of the various sports should urge the men who have served under their guidance to wear their sweaters.

Let the wearers of the "G" lead the spirit of Greensboro Hi to the position that is won by hard and determined effort.

PARKS HAS BIG SQUAD FOR COMING SEASON

Veterans Goodwin, Scott, Burroughs, and Stone Back; Watson and Blair New.

H. B. Parks is coach for our boys this year. There are four squads and each have a different schedule.

J. Norman Stone is captain of the first squad—the members are as follows: Fred Burroughs, Bill Scott, Robert Blair, Willard Watson, Frank Goodwin.

J. Norman is going to make us a great basketball captain this year. We are expecting great things of him. Freddie made a wonderful captain last year and he is going to make just as many honors this season as forward. Frank jumps high as center for old G. H. S. Where would we be without Frank? Bill in his calm and unconcerned way gets his ball and never misses the basket. Bobby is the stuff! He jumps around the floor, takes the ball, and the next thing you know G. H. S. has scored again. Willard is a new basketball man with us this year and we know he is going to be our coming basketball star.

Arthur Davant, C. Scott, J. Watson, Vernell Hackney, Joe Faulkner, Maddy Soloman, Wyatt Taylor and others are showing up well.

A SKETCH

It was a beautiful moonlight night. The young gentleman that had just come upon the porch was clearly troubled. Where was she? Could he find her? His face lit up with animation as he perceived her, the object of his visit leaning against an old gate post. But other fears assailed him. Was she looking for him? Yet she gave no sign of it. He took it upon himself to surprise her. She turned and with a very indignant look at this disturber of her privacy slowly walked off. He followed and caught up with her. He seized her around the neck. Neither spoke. She stood without any attempt to throw off his arms.

A voice was heard from the door: "Hiram, have you got that damn cow?" "Yes, bring a halter at the gate."

SENIOR GIRLS LEADING IN CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

Juniors Close Second, Freshmen Third, While Sophomores Make Weak Fourth.

The Senior girls are keeping their record clean from defeats. At the Y. W. C. A. on November 27 they defeated the Freshman team by 24 points, the score being 46-22. The game was fast, although it lacked excitement, as the score might indicate. The Freshmen played hard and they played well, but of course they couldn't defeat the Seniors!

There weren't many people on the sidelines; folks, where were you?

Junior-Sophomore Game

The Junior girls' basketball team won from the Sophomores by a score of 25 to 8 in the second game of the season on November 25 at the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium.

On the Junior team are: Forwards—Mary Tilley, Hazel Brown, Mary Lentz; Center—Annie Deaver; Guards—Thelma Sherrill, Lula Carson.

The Sophomores have as forwards, Mary Ella Clendenin, Phyllis Penn and Sara Mendenhall; center, Narcissus McLean; guards, Dorothy Matlock, Talluda Matheny.

The timekeeper was Miss Clara Dally; referee, Miss Elizabeth Morris.

Sophomore-Freshman Game

On December 3 at the Y. W. C. A. the Sophomore-Freshman girls met for the first game this year in the class basketball series. While both teams showed improvement in their passing and team work, the Freshmen proved to be the stronger. At the end of the first half the Freshmen had made 13 points while the Sophomores had only 7 to their credit. However, in the second half the Sophomores put up a harder fight, causing the Freshmen no little worry. At the end of the second half the score was 26-18 in favor of the Freshmen.

Senior-Sophomore Game

The Seniors romped all over the Sophs in a battle staged at the Y. M. C. A. Friday afternoon. The work of the Senior guards was very good, holding their opponents to the small end of a 32-0 score. The winning of the game puts the Senior team in the finals to be played with the Juniors at an early date.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Well, now, Oscar, since the championship argument has been settled, we can devote more time to our cross-word puzzles.

We take our hats off to Ware-headed Watson (beg pardon, we were bare-headed), the captain of next year's football team. Willard is all there when it comes to playing the game, and we all agree he is the pre-war stuff as a football man.

Pay your athletic association dues and make your friends think you are rich. Fool 'em!

Also we are glad that the Rockingham lads won the state championship in the little scrap that they had. It shows that it doesn't pay to let grandpapas play. Shelby please note.

Now that the basketball season is on (No, Archy it's not a hunting season—shut up!) let's all turn out to the games. It's lots better than staying home and taking care of the Prince of Wales.

Well, the Watsons will be back next season and that's almost enough for a winning team.

Now we will slip the cheer leaders a rising vote of thanks (that's enough—sit down) for their galant work.
