FAME OF LATIN CLUB SPREADS TO KANSAS

Letter is Received from Beloit Asking for Information.

The Junior-Senior Latin club has received a letter this week from Miss Elizabeth Lutz, consul of the Latin club of Beloit High School, Beloit, Kansas, asking for information as to the formation and methods of our club. She has seen reports of its meetings in the exchanges and is much interested. A Latin club has just been organized in the Beloit High School, and its consul feels that she might gain many valuable points from an older club such as ours.

The president of the Junior-Senior Latin club was authorized to reply to the letter, giving the plan under which the Latin clubs are organized in Greensboro High School and some of their plans for the year.

The letter from Kansas is as follows: Beloit, Kansas, January 30, 1925.

Dear President: In reading the exchanges from your high school we are much interested in your Latin club. From the article I believe that you must have a well organized club. We have just started one this year and are much interested, and would appreciate any suggestions that the older organized and bigger clubs can give us. One thing we are wanting suggestions on is how to interest some of those who are somewhat slackers in the "deeper" subject in attending meetings. We have about 60 Latin pupils in B. H. S. The school's enrollment is around 400.

For our meeting next week as a program we have planned some synonym games. We'd like to have some suggestions from you if you care to trade this way.

We have organized a club of all the Latin classes for the first time this year. We hope to make it a permanent organization.

We have just the three classes of Latin—Elementary, Caesar, and Virgil. I am the only fourth year Latin student. This is because they alternate Cicero and Virgil every other year—the demand being not large enough to guarantee both. Yours truly, ELIZABETH LUTZ, Consul of Latin Club.

MR. FRANK B. AYCOCK, JR., TALKS TO ANNEX STUDENTS

On Tuesday, January 20, Miss Lillian Killingsworth opened the chapel program by reading from the scriptures. Since the week of January 19-26 was Thrift Week, thrift formed the keynote of the program. Miss Killingsworth introduced Mr. Frank B. Aycock, Jr., speaker of the morning.

Mr. Aycock spoke on thrift, using Benjamin Franklin as an example of a man whom thrift had made. He gave a short account of the life of Franklin, giving amusing anecdotes in illustration.

FRESHMEN ATTEND CHAPEL

At a recent chapel session Mr. Edwards opened the program by reading the 21st chapter of Proverbs, followed by a prayer. He gave a short talk on the necessity of starting this semester right, and not waiting until the last month to begin work. Mr. Miller sang several songs which caused an outburst of applause. Mr. Gildersleeve had the rest of the period in singing.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB TO GIVE PROGRAM AT G. H. S.

On February 19 the University of North Carolina Glee Club will present a free concert to the students of Greensboro High School. Miss Killingsworth has planned to have all eighth period classes meet the third period so that all pupils will be able to attend the concert.

Moulton Avery, a G. H. S. alumnus, is a member of the glee club. All students are eagerly waiting to see him give his imitation of the "golden setting sun." We hope the floor won't be so hard here, Moulton. But don't worry—there aren't any rich people here on whom to make an impression.
