What Will I Be ?

Many of you young men in G. H. S. will determine this year what your future business or profession will be, will plan your studies accordingly and will "follow-through" in college.

While you are making these decisions, consider the Insurance Profession, a vocation that provides a business life-time of pleasant and profitable work. Interesting and absorbing, Insurance places you at the head of your own business with opportunities limited only by your individual efforts.

We always want young men in our organization, and any of our officers will be glad to talk to you any time regarding the opportunities offered as a Pilot representative.

A KENTUCKIAN AT YALE

DEAR MOTHER:

I bin tu wun futball gaim sence I rote tu yu and I ain't never seen nuthin like it in awl mi life. I reckon they calls em futball gaims caus they tri tu tromp on each others feet. To begin with wun feller kicks the ball down whur sum uther dudes is loafin. Then wun of these hear loafin fellers grabs it, and tries tu run with it, but thet kinda seems tu rile the ginks whut kicked it and they tries tu noek the dad-burned stuffin outer him. Thair is wun think I ain't abel to figger out, if these hear kickin gules wants that thair ball whi in awl farnel nunsence does they kick it down thair fur? Well, after they fites over it a while they awl plays whut we uster call More Sacks and lays down on each uther in a pile. After thet they gits up and wun dude sez his multiplication tabel ceptin he don't git nun ur it rite, and they is supposed to be collidge fellers too. He oughter larn his figgers sum uther time. Out in thet thair feild ain'y no place tu do sich. Nuthur thing whut shore tickels me is thet these hear groan up men wares short britches and ear muffs when they plays. Course I understand they wares the short britches tu maik people think they is still kids and ain't too old fur sich carryins on as fitening over a old peece of lether. But them ear muffs puzzles me. The fellers ain't cold cause they awl swets like a mule haulin logs, but it seems like they just got tu hev them muffs.

Over the wun side ur the feeld two dudes keep a-running vack and 4th with a string tide on tu 2 sticks just like they thinks as how they air gonna hed off thet ball er trip sumbody up. Thay ain't got no better scents than thet. Wun other ole fule keeps jumpin around the feeld tooting a little whistle. Lood, thinks I as I sees awl this, these hear collidge fellers ain't got no scenes about this gaim, when a dude happens tu kick the ball over a little peece ur fense at wun end ur the feeld everybody yells like he dun sumthin grate. But they ain't nuthin cause thet fence ain't hi and I could kick thet dern littel ball over wun twict as hi as thet. Well rite tu yer baby boy sure.

HIGH LIFE EDITOR AND MGR.
SELECT STAFF FOR NEXT YEAR

upon. The associate editors seem particularly well qualified. In Georgia Stewart, we have a veteran of this year's staff who is very dependable and who is expected to greatly aid the newcomers. Margaret Ferguson is one of the very best and most original writers in G. H. S., and is looked upon as one of the greatest stars of the staff next year. Alfred Dickson's witty editorials and keen sense of humor were features of this year's HIGH LIFE, and are confidently expected to be even better next year. Great things are looked forward to from Betty Brown, Carlton Wilder, and Ellen Kelly, Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen associate editors, respectively.

"The athletic editors, all interesting writers, are Mary Tilly, one of the best girl athletes in school; Willard Watson, captain of next year's football team, who is thoroughly familiar with all branches of sports, and Paul Wimbish, who is depended upon to enliven the sports page with his live-wire write-ups.

"Marguerite Harrison is eminently suited to the work of alumni editor, while Elizabeth Rockwell will capably handle the exchanges. John Mebane and Kate Stewart are expected to display great ability as assignment editors. Great things are looked forward to from Graham Todd as scoop editor.

"The reporters—J. D. McNairy, tried veteran of two years' standing, Dick Zigar, Rannie Rockwell, James Clements, and Adelaide Hilton—are all exceptionally good writers. The all-important business and circulation department will be capably managed by P. B. Whittington, assisted by Clarence Phoenix, and Circulation Manager Ernest Williams, who has had considerable experience in circulation work. Cordia Durham, Pauline Medearis, Annie Younts and James Robinson will be the typists.

"While we all realize and appreciate the great work done by this year's staff, upon which they are to be highly complimented, we dare hope to equal and even surpass their achievements next year."
