Purple Whirlwind Defeats Siler City in Slow Game

EASY VICTORY

Greensboro High Scores In Every Quarter.

HEADEN FEATURES FOR LOSERS

G. H. S. Whole Team Shows Up Well; Backfield is Particularly Good.

Friday, October 30th—at Siler City G. H. S. purple whirlwind seemed to turn into a regular cyclone when they defeated Siler City High 59 to 0.

Captain Watson was taken out of the game in the early minutes of the first quarter due to an injury to his shoulder, which he had hurt several weeks previous.

Maus and Shelton, Greensboro backs, made the longest run of the afternoon, the former with a 65 yard run for a touchdown, and the latter with a 35 yard run for a touchdown.

The game was played in cold weather, and during the latter part of the game it started drizzling. A number of fans from Greensboro motored to Siler City to witness the game.

Side Lights

Finley must have been asleep along about the time Pete Ogborn went into the game. Mr. Phillips had to arouse him.

What happened to that mute yell for Oak Ridge.

The Cadet band won the band contest on account of forfeiture. The G. H. S. music maulers were conspicuous because of their absence.

Some say the Greensboro harmonizers were absent because of cold feet—quite likely.

Wimbish certainly warmed things up with that long run. Good work, Bunny!

Say, did you hear Mr. Phillips yellin for Oak Ridge?

Mr. Edwards must have come down from the mountains to warm up a bit. If he did, he surely landed in the wrong camp. Should have gone to Florida.

Asheville seems to have dealt gently with Mr. Edwards. Did you notice how fat and happy he was?

Page the human adding machine who kept up with the score. The gentleman deserves honorable mention.

That Oak Ridge snake-dance sure looked like a tragic congestion.

G. H. S. LOSES TO TWIN CITY TEAM

Final Score 20 to 0—G. H. S. Outplays Opponents in First and Last Quarter.

Saturday, October 24, at Hanes field, Winston-Salem, the W.-S. H. S. Golden Tornado defeated the G. H. S. Purple Whirlwind 20 to 0. The game was played on a wet and soggy field. In the first and last quarters Greensboro completely outplayed their Twin City rivals.

A large number of fans from Greensboro attended the game, and witnessed what seemed to be more like a swimming meet than a football game. Excellent spirit was evident in the cheering of both sides.

FOOTBALL WEATHER

Maybe it's the tingle and the zip that's in the air— Maybe it's the plunk! of boot on leather. It might be just the thrill you get when 'leven fellows tear

Along the white streaked grid—and all together!

Doesn't make much difference—you can call it this or that;

You can have your golf or tennis, and your "Casey at the Bat";

But you just can't get around it—you've got to tip your hat

To the game they're playin' now, in Football Weather.

There's a whistle—that's the kick-off, and a cheer—they've got him down!

There's a punt that spirals, archin'—there! he caught it!

Then there's line-up in a second, and a flash of legs of brown—

He's off! What's that! He dropped it? Then who's got it?

Boy! there's rippin' and there's smashin', and there's streakin' down the line,

And there's passin' from their quarter to their end—that Number Nine—

And it looks as if they'd cross our goal—hold 'em! hold 'em! Fine!

Look! they held 'em! Did you see the way they fought it?

Then you shiver and cheer a bit, and out they come again—

And they dig their cleats in deep determination!

Then the battle's on. No touchdown yet—how many minutes? Ten?

Get in there, gang! Let's shatter that formation!

Then whish! go brown legs! Man, he's loose! He'll make it—watch him go!

It's over! Cheer, you rooters! Its a touchdown! Let him know

That you saw those brown legs do it! Kick the goal? Well, I guess so!

It was kickin' that he got his reputation! You can have your crew and baseball, your basketball and golf,

You can talk of bein' thrilled to see an ice boat zooming off,

But when Football Weather comes, and there's that tingle in the air,

You can just let me have football, and we'll call it fair and square!

ONE-SIDED AFFAIR

G. H. S. Does Very Good Passing and Punting

BOTH TEAMS PLAY RESERVES

Large Number of Fans Witness Games Oak Ridge Band Present.

Saturday October 31 at Cone Park, Oak Ridge defeated Greensboro in all phases of the game with the exception of completing passes and with possible exception of punting. Oak Ridge showed that the best interference that has been seen at Cone Park this season and the Oak Ridge back netted gains almost every time they carried the ball.

Coach Fordham ran his reserves throughout the game with exception of the last quarter when he ran in his first team. This was done with the possible idea of saving his first string men for the coming championship.

Captain Watson retired from the game after making the initial kick off.

A large number of fans witnessed the game in spite of the cold weather. Previous to the game Oak Ridge Cadets held a parade on Elm Street. Oak Ridge Cadets attended the game in a body and had with them their crack band. Between halves Cadets held a snake dance in the middle of the gridiron.

GRADE 8A SURPASSES OTHERS IN ATTENDANCE

In an interview Oct. 28, with Miss Fannie Starr Mitchell, dean of the High School, she stated that class 8A in Barn B had a better attendance record for the past month than any other class in school.

"All excuses for absences are due the first day the pupil returns and if he fails to bring it he is marked unexcused and five points will be taken from each subject," is what she wishes all the students to bear in mind. However, if there is a very good reason why the excuse was not brought, she says that the time will be extended to 8:45 the second morning.
