

Juniors Bid Farewell To Seniors at Annual Banquet

A GREAT SUCCESS

ONE OF OUR ASSETS

Robert Wilson, President of Juniors, Acts As Toastmaster.

OLD SANTA CLAUS ON SCENE

Christmas Color Scheme Carried Out in Christmas Program—"Scandal Extra" Distributed.

Last night in the Jefferson Standard club rooms the Jolly Juniors bade the Dignified Seniors farewell at the annual mid-year banquet. The spacious rooms, where the receiving line composed of the officers of both classes and members of the faculty, was formed, were beautiful in their Christmas decorations of holly, mistletoe and gay bells.

After everybody had had a chance to say "hello" to everybody else, the doors of the banquet hall were thrown open and the guests, led by Robert Wilson, president of the Junior Class, found their places at the large table formed like a cross. By means of tiny holly wreaths holding lighted candles the effect was made more evident as well as more beautiful.

The entire banquet hall was decorated in the Christmas color scheme of green and red which was carried out most effectively by the use of holly, red candles and Christmas bells.

(Continued on page four)

MR. L. M. JOHNSON LAUDS THE "SCRUBS"

Mr. J. D. Wilkins Presents the Football Certificates to Coaches, Manager, and Team.

Mr. Herbert Johnson introduced the speakers, Messrs. Stout, Mozard, L. M. Johnson, and J. D. Wilkins, to the Junior-Senior group in chapel Monday, Dec. 7. After Mr. Stout had briefly outlined the banking system which was put into operation Tuesday, the 8th, Mr. Mozard better known as "Bill Dollar," emphasized the importance of loyalty and urged the students to patronize their home town. "If you are going to send your money to another town, then buy a ticket and follow it because you are an undesirable citizen," declared the speaker. Mr. Mozard was very favorably impressed by Greensboro except for the large number of "teahounds" hanging out in front of the drug stores.

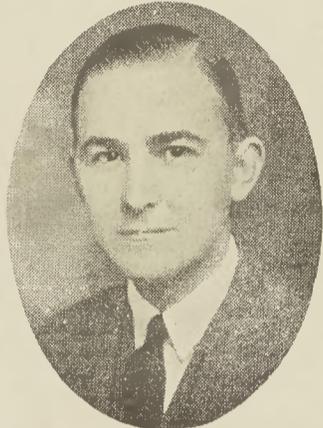

Mr. L. M. Johnson, who has followed the football contests of G. H. S. for many seasons, spoke a few words in commendation of sports in general and of this season's series in particular. Mr. J. D. Wilkins another confirmed fan addressed the varsity and presented to them, coaches Fordham and Coletrane, and Manager Guy Hill, football certificates.

FIRST BANK DAY PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Under the auspices of the American Exchange National Bank of Greensboro, "Bank Day," was started in Greensboro High School, Tuesday, Dec. 8, and every Tuesday thereafter will be "Bank Day."

Rooms 8 and B6 went 100 per cent. and received banners while three rooms did not make any deposits at all. There were 213 depositors and total receipts were $77.03.

Mr. Phillips was very well satisfied with the results. The large number of students who already had savings accounts was responsible for the comparatively small number of depositors. For example, in a session room of 31 students, 21 already had accounts.

W. R. WUNSCH

Member of the Modern Language and English Departments, Advisor for Homespun, Faculty Head of Dramatics, Coach of "Just Suppose."

CARRY OUT "SHIP" IDEA IN YEAR BOOK

Contains Pictures of Seniors, Student Council and Others.

The Senior Year Book, The Reflector, will be pressed Thursday, December 19. The "Ship" idea will be carried out in the headings of the various sections and in the art work. The book will be divided into several sections. The first will probably contain the Senior pictures, Class Poem, History, Prophecy, and Will. A section will be given to the full sports such as boys' football and basketball and girls' hockey and basketball. One section will possibly be used for pictures of the Torchlight Society, Student Council, and the Homespun staff; snapshots of the class officers and the semester officers.

The Reflector will have practically the same contents as the annual, with the exception of some of the sports and group pictures. The contents will be in a more condensed form.

DR. BETTS SPEAKS AT FATHER-SON BANQUET

Thursday, Dec. 10, at the Y. M. C. A., the Hi-Y Club held its annual Father-Son banquet. This was without a doubt the best affair of this kind ever held by the Hi-Y of this city.

The fathers were given an address of Welcome by Roy Smith in a very impressive speech. Following this the Hi-Y quartet composed of Paul Scurlock, Orden Goode, Marvin Isley and John Betts accompanied by A. T. Rowe on the piano rendered several numbers.

The main feature of the evening's program was an address by Dr. Betts. In a very inspiring speech he spoke of the early manhood of the fathers and of the deep feeling that thrilled the fathers' hearts, when first they gazed into the eyes of their sons. He spoke of the feeling of responsibility felt by the fathers for their sons. In conclusion he declared that the success or the failure of the boys rested largely on the care exercised by their parents.

Mr. Coletrane, Hi-Y leader, spoke of the aims of the Hi-Y, which are to develop leadership and Contagious Christian Character. By doing this he said they would be sons their parents would be proud of. He urged the fathers to be good models and to set good examples for their sons to follow.

ROOM 106 CONDUCTS CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Four Tableaux Given Representing Birth of Christ—Both Boy's and Girls Glee Clubs Sing.

The members of 106, Miss Grogan's session room gave a very impressive Christmas service Tuesday and Wednesday, December 15 and 16, representing the birth of Christ by four beautiful tableaux.

The school entered the chapel singing "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and while the last stanza pealed forth, the curtain parted and revealed a picture of the heralds, with lyre trumpets, and cymbals. The heralds were Elizabeth Umberger, Margaret Hood, Cecil Lindau, Gertrude Hobbs. "An Old, Old Christmas Carol" was sung by the Girl's Glee Club.

The first narrator, Orden Goode, read the Christmas story according to Matthew and while the Girl's Glee Club sang "Gloria" the picture of the shepherds was seen. The shepherds were Marshal Campbell, Edwin McNeilly, Raymond Bennett and James Tidwell.

The story was taken up in Luke by the second Narrator, Elizabeth Crews.

The tableau of the three Wise Men was presented while the Boy's Glee Club rendered "We Three Kings of Orient Are" James Peterson, Glenn Holder, and Joe Faulkner, played the parts of the Wise Men.

The Boys' Glee Club sang "Silent Night" and the concluding tableau of "Nativity" was given. The characters were: Mary, Dorothy Lea; Joseph, Paul Scurlock; angels, Helen Felder, Margaret Crews and Inez Murray.

The last feature on the program was a carol by Mr. Mill's Glee Club.

JANUARY 26-29 TO BE THE SENIOR WEEK

Plans Nearing Completion—Final Exercises Will Be Held Jan. 29—Probably At the Grand.

Plans for the commencement of the mid-term graduating class are nearing completion. The exercises will open Sunday night, January 24, with the baccalaureate sermon at the First Baptist Church. The speaker has not yet been secured.

The week of January 26-29 will be "Senior Week." Thursday, the 28 is Class Day and Friday, the 29, the final commencement exercises will be held, probably at the Grand Theatre.

This is the first year that the January graduating class has been large enough to warrant a "Senior Week" program similar to that which is carried out at the spring graduation.

Officers of the class are: President, Sammy Goode; Vice-President, Dorothy Lea; Secretary, Mary Lyon; Treasurer, Joe Faulkner.

GIRLS' COUNCIL HOLDS PROGRAM AT FORUM MEET

The Girls' Forum had its regular monthly meeting in Chapel Hill, Dec. 10. In a few words before the girls, Mary Jane Wharton, president of the Girls' Council told the purpose and aims of the council.

The representatives from the session rooms on the council were introduced to the girls. Several members of the Girls' Council made short talks: Jane Harris, A Real Girl's attitude toward her fellow students; Elizabeth Crews, A Real Girl's attitude toward her teachers; Ellen Kelly, A Real Girl's attitude towards her parents; Elizabeth Campbell, A Real Girl's attitude toward honesty; Sadie Sharp, A Real Girl's attitude toward her school work and outside activities.

In closing, Nell Applewhite sang "Out of the Dusk to You."

GRADUATION WEEK

January 24—Sermon, First Baptist Church.

January 20-25, Wednesday-Monday—Senior Examinations.

January 26-29—Senior Week.

January 28, Thursday—Class Night.

January 29—Graduation.

"JUST SUPPOSE" PLEASES CROWD

Phyllis Penn Stars As Southern Belle—Others Show Up Well for Their First Time.

The Dramatic Club presented "Just Suppose", a whimsical comedy by A. E. Thomas, at the N. C. C. W. auditorium Friday, December 4, at 8 o'clock. A large crowd witnessed the performance and expressed the opinion that it was an excellent production for amateur performers.

The play is based on a rumor that the Prince of Wales during his recent visit to America got away from the pomp of his position for a while and appeared somewhere in Virginia under an assumed name.

Probably the best acting was that of Phyllis Penn as Linda Lee Stafford, a southern belle. She lived her part throughout the play. "Pete" Wyrick as George Chester, the assumed name of the Prince, played his part well. He presented a truly royal appearance in the last act with a British Naval Uniform and sword.

Betty Brown as Mrs. Carter Stafford, the grandmother; Clarence Scott as the Marquis Karnaby; Marvin Isley, as Kingsley Stafford, a Virginia gentleman; John Gillespie as Montgomery Warren, a southerner; Vernon Patterson as the Honorable Sir Calverton Shipley, an Englishman; and Beverly Moore as Hannibal, a negro servant, all played their roles with genius and ability. The play was produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York while the British naval uniforms and wigs were from Tams Costume Emporium, N. Y.

(Continued on page four)

MISS GROGAN REPORTS NOVEMBER HONOR ROLL

Miss Grogan announces the Honor Roll for November, as follows:

Weldon Beacham, Ben Kendrick, P. B. Whittington, Elizabeth Campbell, Margaret Ferguson, Frances Johnson, Glenn Boyd MacLeod, Mary McCollum, Louise McCulloch, Marguerite Mason, Claudia Murdock, Hilda Smith, Helen Stockard, Margaret Glenn Stockton, Annie Yount, Alice Dillard, Louise Check, Ruth Simpson, Beverly Moore, Ruth Abbott, Bernice Apple, Betty Brown, Mary Lynn Carlson, Jane Harris, Mary Elizabeth King, Sarah Mendenhall, Phyllis Penn, Matilda Robinson, Nell Thurman, Cynthia Vaughn, Mary J. Wharton, Catherine Wharton, Haywood Gathings, Pauline Medearis, Edna Morgan, Evelyn Stewart, Elizabeth Bray, Nancy Hay, Alia Ross, Lewis Dicks, Harold Cone, Carl Jones, Elizabeth Boyst, Dixon Thacker, Charles Rives, Henry Welland, Cathryn Bennett, Marion Geogagan, Henry Biggs, Hilda Davidson, Harry Gumm, Margaret Hackney, Mary Lyon Leak, Ruth Lewis, J. D. McNairy, Helen Shuford, Francis Suik, Zaidee Smith, Carlton Wilder, William Byers, Margaret Blaylock, Dorothy Donnell, Sarah Ferguson, Ruth Ferree, Eugenia Isler, Sadie Sharp, Margaret Sockwell, Margaret

(Continued on page four)

PARENT-TEACHER BODY ADDRESSED BY DR. LIVERS

Says It Is Mistake for Parents to Make Things Easier for Children.

PRaises WORK OF BODY

Pleads for Cooperation of School and Parents in Efficient Home-Study Program.

Dr. Livers, of the extension department of the North Carolina College for Women, addressed the parent teachers association of the Central High School at their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the high school auditorium.

"The great job of Greensboro and the State of North Carolina now is to get her young people better equipped for later life," declared Dr. Livers. He showed his audience how the school boy and girl of this state is handicapped. "A large number of the schools have only a six months session, and only seven elementary grades."

The speaker believes that it is a mistake for parents to want to make life easier for their children, because the most remarkable lessons learned are those learned in the university of hard knocks. "In bringing up school children study is the real job of the home," the speaker said, "and the home should cooperate with the school in furthering this."

He found in his twenty years of school work that the real reasons for failure in work are either of three

(Continued on page four)

BOY SCOUTS OPERATE MEYER'S DEPT. STORE

Nearly Sixty Boys Report for Work With Paul Scurlock As President—Receive $133.14.

Saturday, December 5th, the Greensboro Boy Scouts took over and operated Meyer's Department Store. Approximately sixty scouts reported for work Saturday at 8:30 A. M. The following scouts were officials while the rest were department heads; Paul Scurlock, president; Harry Murray, Vice-President; Archie Joyner, Credit Mgr.; Edgar Kuykendall, Advertising Mgr. Sammy Goode, Superintendent, Robert Douglas, Supt. of Mail Orders, Harry Welland; Display Manager, C. F. Strickland.

As soon as all reported, work was begun immediately in all parts of the store. The business was carried on in the usual manner with the scouts in charge. They were allowed an hour for dinner, different groups at different times from 11:30 o'clock to 1:30 o'clock. All the scouts as well as employees of the concern enjoyed the day. The scout's day was over at 7:30 o'clock and then all reported for a court of honor meeting at eight o'clock. The scouts received one per cent. of the days income which amounted to $133.14.

MR. COLETRANE'S CLASS IN SOCIOLOGY VISITS COURT

On Wednesday, Dec. 9, Mr. Coletrane's fourth period Sociology class went to Guilford County Superior Court to get the facts about court procedure. The students left school the third period and came back at the beginning of the fifth period, although they became so interested in the trial that they didn't want to leave.

The next journey made by the class was to Federal Court on Friday, December 11. The trial of three mail robbers was going on and the students enjoyed this very much.