G. H. S. GIRLS DEFEAT POMONA

On Thursday, April 29, the G. H. S. girls defeated the Pomona baseball team in a peppy game, by a 19 to 6 score; the game was played in 30 minutes. This was the first defeat for the Pomona team and the ninth victory for G. H. S.

The entire G. H. S. team played splendid ball, both in field work and at the bat. Noble Hutchinson and Ruth Watson played an exceptionally good game for the winning team.

TEACHERS AND STUDENTS TO ATTEND EXPOSITION

One high school boy and one high school girl between the ages of 13 and 18 and one high school teacher will be selected from each state in the Union to be guests of the sequi-centennial exposition which will be held in Philadelphia this summer.

The students will be chosen on the basis of heroism, sacrifice, leadership and patriotism. They will be selected by the youth of the state, a committee of award being appointed by the Governor of each state for the administration of the award to both youths and teachers.

Included in the award will be a place of honor during the Fourth of July observances in Philadelphia when President Coolidge will deliver his oration; a commemorative medal and certificate; a tour of Washington, D. C., and Valley Forge, and a free trip to Philadelphia with all expenses paid.

Anyone wishing information on the contest should write to the Sequi-Centennial Headquarters, Philadelphia, Pa., where full details and entry forms may be secured.

ANNUAL JUNIOR- SENIOR BANQUET HELD AT O. HENRY

Gillespie and McLeod, Class
Presidents, Lead Way for Banqueters.

KENNETT BLAIR JESTER

Interesting Program and Delightful
Menu Feature Evening—Quartette
Sings—Miller's Music Pleases.

On Friday, April 23, at the O. Henry hotel, at 8 o'clock, the Juniors entertained the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The receiving line was composed of the presidents of the two classes, Miss Jane Summerell, Mr. Frederick Archer, Miss Laura Tillet, Mr. C. W. Phillips, and Miss Fannie Starr Mitchell. Other members of the faculty received at the entrance to the banquet hall.

John Gillespie, president of the Junior class, and Glenn Boyd McLeod, president of the Senior class, led the way to the banquet table where the guests found their places by means of gay little hand-printed serving maids. Mr. Phillips said the blessing, after which John Gillespie welcomed the guests to the "Mermaid Tavern" where he was king of the feast, in an original toast, "Are we all met?" The response to this welcome was made by the quartet consisting of Baxter Bason, Floyd Mills, Paul Scurlock and LeGrande Johnson who sang the "Stein Song."

John Gillespie drank the health of the Seniors in a toast, "We shall not look upon their like again." Glenn Boyd McLeod, as queen of the feast, responded. Kennett Blair, the jester, amused the banqueters by his gay sallies, some of which were made at the expense of guests present.

The remainder of the program follows:

As We Like It—Mary Jane Wharton.
Response—Glenn Holder.
A Winter's Tale—Nell Thurman.
Response—Bobbie Wilson.
Love's Labor Lost—Jack Coble and Beverly Moore.
Dear Old Pal of Mine—H. Grady Miller.

MRS. GEORGE DIBBLE ADDRESSES G.H.S. GIRLS

Members of Stephen's Revival Party
Gives Very Helpful Address
To Girls April 20.

Thursday, April 29, at the Girls' Forum, Mrs. George Dibble, of the Stevens party, gave the girls a very helpful talk.

First a selection was read from the Bible. In this Mary, Martha and Lazarus are looking forward to the coming of Christ. And Jesus appeared and healed the sick. Jesus had a personality that always drew a crowd. Mary surrendered her life to Christ the first time she saw him, and afterwards centered all of her time about him.

"Christ changes the life of every girl. When they are weak and need His help, He is there to help them." Mrs. Dibble

CIVITANS AWARD BROADHURST CUP

Cup Presented Every Year to Citizen Rendering Most Unselfish
Service to City.

E. D. Broadhurst, chairman of the Greensboro board of education, received the Civitan trophy cup presented every year to the citizen who has rendered the most conspicuous and unselfish service to the city, at the meeting of the club held Friday, April 23, at the Country Club. The award was made through the inter-club council, of which John W. Simpson is president.

In making the presentation, Mr. Simpson characterized Mr. Broadhurst as a "lawyer, speaker, teacher, leader, patriotic and unselfish citizen, who has seen the inestimable riches locked up in our young people, and reckless of self, without thought of personal or pecuniary advantage."

PAPERS SUBMITTED FOR ANNUAL HISTORY PRIZE

Eleven papers, each on a different subject, were submitted for the annual history contest which closed April 15. This contest, which is open only to seniors, is conducted each year to determine the winner of the Morehead loving cup.

Of the papers submitted three were from the class which graduated last January, the mid-term graduates not being permitted to compete for the cup during the fall semester, since that would mean that each person would possess the cup only a half-year, which is not in accord with the wishes of the donor. Those persons from the mid-year class who contributed papers were Mary Lyon, Ruth Curtis, and Cecile Lindau. The following from this spring's graduating class submitted papers: Frances Johnson, Sarah Pearson, Charlotte Van Noppen, Glenn Boyd McLeod, Edward Mendenhall, Margaret Ferguson, and Henry Goodwin.

According to the rules of the contest, the subject, length of the paper, and other details are left open to the choice of the contestant, except that the subject must pertain to N. C. colonial history. Representative of the subjects submitted were the following: Social and Industrial Life in Colonial North Carolina, Race Elements in the White Population of North Carolina During the Colonial Days, North Carolina the Forerunner of Independence, The Battle of Guilford Courthouse, The Part of North Carolina Women in the Revolution.

Elizabeth Darling was home from Converse Easter. She was sporting a new Chrysler. She spent a day or two in Charlotte also.

BOYS WEEK IS OBSERVED BY ENTIRE NATION

Many Events During Week
Stimulate Interest In Youth of City.

LOYALTY PARADE TODAY

Prize to be Awarded Room and Individual Having Best Banner Illustrating Need of Schools.

This week is being observed as International Boys' Week throughout the various nations of the world. The week, thus far, under the supervision of C. W. Phillips, has been filled with many events which have greatly stimulated the interest in the modern youth of Greensboro.

Saturday, May 1, was Athletic Day. In the morning the grammar grades held a competitive track meet and in the afternoon an inter-class meet. Sunday, May 2, was Church Day. The sermons in many of the churches were especially for the boys of that church. A boys' program was carried out in the chapel programs of the city schools, Monday. It was the purpose of these programs to set forth more clearly the position of the boy in the home. Wednesday was Citizenship Day. On May 6, many of the boys visited the different industries in the city.

The most colorful program of the week is to be carried out today. All the schools in the city will assemble at Commerce Square at 2:45 when H. W. Park will assume charge of the program. Here they will form in divisions according to schools. The line of march is down

Bellemeade street to the O. Henry hotel, down Elm street to the station, down Depot street to Greene, and up Greene to Sternberger street, to Commerce Square. The high school division will lead the parade. Every division will be organized according to size, boys leading, six abreast. Each boy will be given a gas balloon to which he will attach his name. At a signal all balloons will be turned loose, to float upwards seeking the clouds. A prize will be given to the owner of the balloon which travels the greatest distance and is returned. The parade will be colored with gaily trimmed floats and scattering clowns,
