THE SCHOOL BAND LEADS

Aycock Wins First Prize—Ford Makes
Unique Showing Displaying Sign
"Build Us a New High School."

Friday, May 7, over 2,600 students of Greensboro paraded through the city in a body. The purpose of the parade was two-fold. The first was to observe Loyalty Day of Boys' Week; and second, to stimulate interest in the school election to be held May 25.

The march began at Commerce Place, passed up Belmeade to Elm, down Elm to Edwards Place, then to Greene, up Greene to Gaston, and back to Commerce Place.

The parade was led by the High School Band. This is the first time that the High School Band has ever participated in a public demonstration for marching. G. H. S. students wore bands of purple and gold, advertising the coming election, and urging the people of Greensboro to vote for this measure.

The streets were cleared of traffic by police ordinance. The prize offered by Superintendent Archer for the most novel poster advertising the school election was won by the Aycock Grammar School. The prize for the best individual advertisement was awarded to Marion Mason, of the Spring Street School.

Another novel plan of advertising was a Ford touring car containing a number of High School boys and carrying the poster, "We want a new high school."

WINSTON TYPISTS WIN
STATE WIDE CONTEST

Two Twin-City Girls Earn Trip to New

Takes Second Honors.

Saturday morning, May 8, the State Typing Contest was held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at Charlotte, N. C. Winston-Salem High School's second year team won with a team average of 56 words per minute.

The first year team of Winston-Salem also won. The individual high scorer was from Winston-Salem, making 61 words a minute. Alumni prize was won by Charlotte. Charlotte was also awarded a prize for the most accurate individual typist. This year a cup was awarded to the team with the most accurate record. Winston-Salem was given this cup to hold until next year when it will be given to the team that wins then. Although the team from Greensboro did not receive a prize, it made the third highest average.

There were about 90 representatives from 15 schools. They were entertained at a banquet by the Chamber of Commerce in the Johnston Building Friday night. Saturday morning after the contest they were given a tour over the city.

NO TARDIES

A record was made in Greensboro High School Monday, May 10. For the first time this year there were no tardies.

Too bad we couldn't have four presidents. A lot of campaigning gone to waste!

CHOSEN NOMINEE

Interesting Discussion of Candidates in Mass Meeting—
Finley Atkisson Put Up.

Henry Biggs was elected over Finley Atkisson as the nominee from the floor for student government president at a meeting of the student body in chapel Monday, May 10. The other two candidates are Willard Watson and Beverly Moore.

A very lengthy discussion of the two candidates were Willard Watson and Beverly Moore.

Carlton Wilder applied the fourteen qualifications set forth in the "Extra" that was issued Monday morning prior to the election of Henry Biggs and found him lacking in no capacity.

Glenn Holder, editor-in-chief of HIGH LIFE, cautioned the voters to think seriously before making their decision, and to vote for the man who could best uphold the ideals of G. H. S. He emphasized the fact that because G. H. S. had meant so much to the senior class they were particularly interested in helping to elect the man for this position who could "carry on" and uphold the high ideals of the school.

Another strong point was brought out by Phil Shelton when he upheld Henry Biggs for his efforts to develop athletic ability, while others who already had the ability in that line were too lazy to use it.

Acting on the suggestion of J. D. McNairy, the student body gave P. B. Whittington a rising vote of thanks for his splendid work this year as president of the student body.

FIRST "EXTRA" OF HIGH
LIFE COMES TO G. H. S.

This year's campaign for student body president, one of the hardest-fought since the beginning of student government in G. H. S., brought forth among its other interesting results the first "Extra" ever issued by HIGH LIFE. On May 10 the loud cries of the "newsies" about the buildings and campus brought to the attention of the student body the fact that the intensity of election feeling had reached an unprecedented pitch.

The "Extra" consisted of one mimeographed sheet divided into three columns and bearing in capitals across the top of the page the headline "Hot Campaign Waged by Young Politicians." The center column was devoted entirely to a list of the qualifications essential for a student council president. The other two columns contained articles offering the accomplishments of the various candidates and also current news items.

MAY 15TH IS LAST DAY TO REGISTER
BEFORE ELECTION

New High School and Nine Months Term to Be Decided.

TO BE HELD MAY 25TH

Will Insure a New High School Building
That Will Compete With Any
High School in N. C.

Saturday, May 15, will be the last day for registration for the school election to be held on May 25. If the 900 students of Greensboro High School, representing 600 families, which makes a total of nearly 1,200 people who should register and vote, influence these 1,200 people so that they do register and vote, the election will carry.

If this election does carry, it will mean for Greensboro one step more on the road to progress. It will insure a new high school building that will compare with an high school in the South, possibly within 18 months; it will also insure the ninth month which has been but is not now provided for, and the additional advantages now enjoyed.

The registering done by the parents for the election held a few weeks ago does not hold good for this election. It is necessary that each parent see to it that he register again on Saturday, May 15. In order that the places of registration be as attractive as possible, several changes have been made. Some of the new places are: Phil Carlton's office instead of Jennings' Garage; J. J. Stone's office instead of the Blacksmith Shop, and Pomona High School instead of Fields' Store.

The necessity for a new high school is generally admitted. As far back as 1917 a group of citizens saw the need for such a building; and since that, Greensboro has doubled in population and importance. Statistics show that behind each pupil in value of buildings and school equipment there is only $280 in comparison to $21,690 of wealth in all varieties of property behind each child in Greensboro.

MR. J. J. STONE DONATES ARM BANDS TO STUDENTS

The thousand yellow arm bands with the slogan, "Vote for Schools," in purple letters worn in the parade Friday afternoon, May 7, by the girls and boys of Greensboro, were contributed by Mr. Joseph J. Stone. White dresses were worn by all the girls. The boys wore dark suits. The effect was striking.

EDITOR'S NOTE

This extra is being issued in addition to the sixteen regular issues of HIGH LIFE this year, and, in line with the progressive policy of the paper, is put out so that its readers may get the official results of yesterday's election for student government president. All of the front page articles are new, while most of the inside page articles appeared in Friday's issue. This was necessary on account of the short time in which the extra had to be prepared and because the old articles were already set up in type. The extra is costing five cents to cover the extra cost of printing it.

GREENSBORO BOYS GO TO CAMP GRAYSTONE

Claude Humphries in Charge of Program for Day—Two Hundred Boys and Twenty-five Parents Attend.

Concluding the events of boys' week, an "afternoon out of doors" was spent at Camp Graystone Saturday, May 8. All of the boys from Greensboro were invited and cars were provided to take them from the courthouse to the camp. The boys left Greensboro at 2 o'clock, several of them accompanied by their parents.

A swimming contest was held and a large number of boys went swimming as soon as they arrived. "Sammy" Goode distinguished himself as an archer and as a swimmer in the archery and swimming contests. A tug of war was fought and each member of the winning team was presented with a lollipop.

The boys were divided into younger and the older groups and each group had a race around the lake. The winner among the younger boys was Vincent Reece from Aycock School. Banks Simpson was the winner of the older group.

Each boy took his own supper. The boys began travelling for home about 6:30. About 200 boys attended the "out-of-doors" affair and a few older men. The program of the day was in charge of Mr. Claude Humphries.

SUMMER SCHOOL TO BE HELD AS USUAL THIS YEAR

Summer school will be held as usual this year, commencing about the middle of June and continuing for a period of forty days.

Only subjects which have been failed may be taken and only two of those. Any subject will be given if a reasonable number ask for it. The hours will be from 8:30 to 12:30 a. m., but a student taking one course will be required to stay only two hours—one for study and one for recitation. Announcement of details about registering, etc., will be made in chapel in the near future.

A BIG MAJORITY

Biggs Takes Second Place—
Moore is Eliminated.

VOTED BY SECRET BALLOT

Final Election Made Necessary When Henry Biggs Lacks Fifteen Votes of Majority in First Vote.

Willard Watson carried the final vote for president of the student body yesterday in the closest and most hotly contested election ever held in Greensboro High School. Watson polled 345 votes to 286 for Henry Biggs, the other candidate in the finals.

In the first election Biggs received 295 votes, Watson 177, and Beverly Moore 148. The first count gave Biggs a majority, but a re-check showed that he lacked fifteen votes of the necessary number and it was necessary to hold a final election, from which the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes, Moore, was eliminated.

The election was a big upset. Moore was favored to win Monday, but sentiment evidently changed overnight. In the final election the Moore forces swung over to Watson, giving him the election. Biggs lost nine votes in the final poll.

Beginning at 8:50 yesterday morning, the votes were cast in the session rooms during a special ten minute period for the first election. The students were called back to their session rooms at 3:00 o'clock and the final vote taken. Voting was done by secret and signed ballot. Members of the Student Council conducted the voting under the supervision of Miss Grogan and Miss Summerell.

The new president of the student body is a first semester Senior, and will graduate at mid-term next year. He was captain of the football team last fall, a star on the basketball team, and is president of the Boys' Athletic Association. He is rated as one of the most outstanding members of the student body.

This is the fourth year that the student government plan has been in operation in Greensboro High School. The intense interest in yesterday's election is looked upon as indicative of the success of the plan. Norman Block was elected president the first year, Arthur Davant the second and P. B. Whittington the third.

SENIORS GIVE TEA
IN HONOR OF PARENTS

Cafeteria Decorated in Class Colors,
Green and Gold, Punch Served At Booths.

On Thursday evening, May 6, at 8 o'clock, the Senior class of the High School honored their parents with a delightful tea in the school cafeteria. Marguerite Harrison and Phil Shelton greeted the guests at the entrance and introduced them to Glenn Boyd MacLeod, who headed the receiving line, composed of the presidents of all the classes, president of the student council, and those who are to take part in the class day exercises.

Punch was served throughout the evening at three booths. The cafeteria was decorated in the class colors, green and gold, and quantities of dogwood were used on the punch tables.
