

INTERESTING BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY DURING FEBRUARY

B. Tarkington's Latest Book,
"The Plutocrat," Is Added
to School Library

LIBRARY GROWS LARGER

Mrs. Orr Will Be Glad to Help Any of the Students Find
These Books

We are glad to notice that our library is still growing, although we already have one to be justly proud of. Nearly every month there are added to its rather extensive list—for a school library—several valuable and interesting books.

Here are the books added during February:

A Collection of Required Poems For Reading and Memorizing is a book that will be truly appreciated by teachers and pupils alike, who are interested in poetry.

Chants de France is a book of old and new French songs compiled by Jameson and Heacox.

The Plutocrat will be hailed by all. It is Booth Tarkington's latest book, and is said to be his best. This is really "good reading."

Statesmen and Soldiers of the Civil War, by Major General Sir Frederick Maurice, is a book which will prove valuable, as well as entertaining, to those students who are studying United States history. General Maurice recounts the lives of the important soldiers and statesmen of the Civil War in a very attractive manner.

Mrs. Orr will be glad to help any of the students find these books. Look them over.

F. H. NICHOLSON SPEAKS TO STUDENTS OF G. H. S.

Stresses Safety of Money When it Is Entrusted to Care of a Bank

PHILLIPS URGES TEAM'S SUPPORT

The chapel program March 7th consisted of a speech by Mr. Nicholson, of the American Exchange National Bank. He gave some of the values of thrift. He spoke about the safety of money when it is entrusted to the care of the bank. He explained the use of Traveler's checks for the benefit of those students who will leave for New York Wednesday, March 9th.

Mr. Coletrane made an announcement concerning baseball practice.

Mr. Phillips urged everyone to support the girls in their third game of the championship to be played with Winston at Guilford College, Friday, March 11th.

EPWORTH LEAGUE OF WEST MARKET MEETS

On the evening of February 24, at the West Market Street Church at 6:15 o'clock, a group of about fifty young people met for their regular supper.

A program was rendered by some of those present. Miss Josephine Lyles gave two solos, "Roses of Picardy," and "Out of the Dusk to You." Misses Callahan and Smith from N. C. C. College, presented a Washington stunt, which proved to be a humorous story of Washington's life. Rev. J. Frank Armstrong, of Centenary Church gave a talk on "Being Courageous." The program was concluded by a reading by Margaret Neal and a few selections on the piano by Nancy Thompson.

The decorations carried out the idea of Washington's birthday.

It's all right to kiss the children goodnight if you can stay up long enough for them to come in.—The Tattler.

G. H. S. STRING QUARTET BROADCASTS AT WNRC

The string quartet of the Greensboro High School broadcasted from station WNRC Tuesday night, March 1. Two selections were given—Minuet, and Melody, by Hyre. Those playing in the quartet were: Arlando Cates and Virginia Wade, first violins; Evelyn Park and Kathryn Jenkins, second violins; J. C. Coe and Earl Slokum, violas; Kenneth Cates and Winona Orea, cellos.

STUDENT COUNCIL PLANS FOR FUTURE

Committee Begins Work on Year Book, Traffic Laws,
Chapel Programs

FEW SOCIAL PLANS MADE

The Student Council at G. H. S. has a full program for the future; they expect to continue the chapel programs, have a committee working on the year book, traffic under control, but nothing in the social line is planned for the spring.

The Student Council expects to have charge of as many chapel programs as possible in the future. By the programs already given by the group, nothing but praise has been given. Even better programs are being planned. It is the purpose of the Council to give interesting programs as well as beneficial ones.

An active committee is working on the senior year book which is expected to be completed by June. They are studying year books from different schools and colleges, trying to make the one this spring a perfection.

Traffic regulation, as every knows, has been in the hands of the Student Council. The rules in the new building, up the right steps and down the left, are to be continued until they prove unwise. All students are asked to co-operate with the council by obeying these regulations.

The Student Council has taken no definite steps in planning the social affairs for the spring, but it is believed that there will be but few. In addition to the banquet which is being planned by the Student Council at High Point, nothing further is expected.

MUSIC NOTES

Grady Miller has just secured permission from Mr. Frederick Archer for the G. H. S. band to go to the National Band Contest. The time and place have not been announced.

The State Music Contest is to be held here sometime in April. The band and the orchestra are practicing steadily on the music. The band will play the "Coronation March" and "El Capitan," and the orchestra will play "Light Cavalry."

The band has also ordered some new purple and gold sweaters. The sweaters have a monogram with a lyre on it and G. H. S. between the strings.

The Glee Club has been asked to give a program at the local broadcasting station sometime soon.

The Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and Orchestra, will present at an early date "The Pirates of Penzance," an opera in two acts. This is an entirely comic opera written by W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan.

Mr. Grady Miller, the director, has not selected any of the cast yet, but the music classes have started working on the chorus. The opera will probably be given the latter part of May, after the state music contest.

Judge Ben B. Lindsay, noted juvenile court judge of Denver, Colorado, will deliver a lecture in Greensboro Friday evening, April 22.

M'NAIRY PRESIDES AT WEEKLY MEETING OF DEBATING CLUB

Ruth Abbott Speaks About Her
Vocation—Wimbish Discusses Electricity

MEETING HELD MARCH 4

E. Wyche Tells of the Importance of Chemistry—L. Brooks Talks of Present Day Criminology

The Debating Club held its regular weekly meeting Friday, March 4, at chapel period. J. D. McNairy, the president of the club, presided. Ruth Abbott spoke on "My Vocation as I See It Now." She said that she was thinking of taking up commercial art because she was interested in the work and also that it would prove a good occupation.

Paul Wimbish spoke on "The Latest Developments in Electricity." He told of the importance of electricity to the world. He made some predictions as to future development and told something about radio.

Ernest Wyche spoke on the "Importance of Chemistry." He took up modern chemistry and discussed the latest developments in that line.

Louis Brooks spoke on "Present Day Criminology." He discussed juvenile court, the abolishing of lawyers and the establishing of court equity.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BROADCASTS PROGRAM

C. H. Rowland Talks of Evangelistic Campaign Being Staged by Churches in City

SONGS BY G. H. S. BOYS' QUARTET

The first Sunday radio program from WNRC was broadcasted Sunday, March 16, by the Chamber of Commerce. A large number of calls were received from those who heard it in Greensboro and in other cities.

The program began at 3:30 p. m. and closed at 4:45 p. m. It was divided into three parts, two musical groups and one eleven-minute talk. The first part was nine selections by the Greensboro boys' quartet.

The talk was made by Mr. C. H. Rowland, pastor of the First Christian Church. His subject was the evangelistic campaign, which is now being carried on in a number of the churches of the city.

The concluding feature of the afternoon was a group of songs sung by Mr. Gilman Alexander, head of the department of music of Greensboro College. He was accompanied by Miss Audrey Bruton.

QUESTIONS FOR JUNIOR INTELLIGENCE TEST

1. Why do gentlemen prefer blondes? Louise Thacker.
2. How deep is a ten-foot hole? Carlton Wilder.
3. Why are ring salesmen so attractive? Miss Wheeler.
4. Why do girls like football stars? Ed Davant.
5. What is work? Irene McFadyen.
6. Does "sp" on an English paper stand for splendid paragraph? Marguerite Tilley.
7. Did night get hurt when it fell? Dick Douglas.
8. Does rain straighten one's hair? Duella Walker.
9. Do girls prefer blondes, also? Clyde Andrews.
10. Does he really love me? Ruth Stinnet.
11. What is whiskey? Allan Brewer.

Mabel made an angel cake,
For her darling Harry's sake.
Harry ate it, every crumb,
Then he heard the angels hum,
Calling softly, "Harry, come."
(fade) Harry went.

—The Tattler.

Tri-City Banquet Held at Winston-Salem Hi School

TEACHERS THERE

Faculty Members and Student Representatives From Greensboro and High Point Present

"SPORTSMANSHIP" THEME

Talk, "The Price of Sportsmanship,"
Made by Ray Henderson of Greensboro High

The student council of Winston-Salem High School entertained the councils and special representative members of the High Point and Greensboro High Schools, February 26, in the Reynolds High School cafeteria.

Dwight Tinville, president of the Winston-Salem council, and toastmaster for the occasion, made an address of welcome. Aurelia Plumly, captain of the Winston High School basketball team, spoke on "What Is Sportsmanship?" She defined it in its highest terms. Ray Henderson, a member of the G. H. S. football team, talked on "The Price of Sportsmanship." He said that the price of sportsmanship is the willingness and ability to take the "if" out of Kipling's "If." To be a true sport we must make this poem a reality, he declared.

During the banquet several musical selections were given by pupils of Mr. William Breach, director of Winston High School Glee Club.

The meeting was continued in the gymnasium where a tablet was unveiled in memory of Leo Caldwell, who was killed in the Winston-Charlotte football game in 1923. The presentation of the tablet was made by Mr. Charles Norfleet. Mr. H. R. Dwire, chairman of the Winston-Salem board, accepted the tablet. The facts about Leo Caldwell Memorial fund were given by Richard Stockton, speaking for the Winston-Salem foundation.

(Continued on Page Six)

FIERCE SNOWBALL FIGHT WAGED DURING BLIZZARD

White Balls Hurlled From Both Sides of Enthusiastic Fighters—Luck
Was Against Passers-by

ONLY BELL COULD STOP BATTLE

On Thursday, March 3rd, at the sixth period, the more warlike of the boys divided forces and took stations at different points on the campus. A hail of white missiles filled the air during the whole period.

It was a battle fit to be classed with the greatest in the history of the world. First one side rallied to the attack, and then the others. The deadly spheres were made and thrown amid shouts of triumph and anguish. A keen eye and an active body were necessary to avoid the swiftly moving balls. There were many luckless enough to stop a projectile hurled with unerring aim by some relentless warrior.

If a stray girl or teacher happened to cross the battlefield both sides united to remind her of her mistake. The victims of such an attack would think twice before crossing that field again.

It was a wet, but happy, crowd of boys that went to class when the bell rang, putting an end to the battle.

WILLIAM BYERS NEW PRESIDENT KILTIE KLUB

William Byers was elected president of the Kiltie Klub at its weekly meeting held February 23 at the First Presbyterian Church. Other officers elected for the year 1927 are: Robert Douglas, vice-president; Graham Todd, secretary and treasurer; Saunders Ogburn, sergeant-at-arms, and John Brown, press reporter. Bill Byers made a short speech as the retiring president.

The meeting of March 2nd was called off on account of inclement weather.

NEW CAST FOR "GOOSE HANGS HIGH"

Eunice	Jane Harris
Julia	Elizabeth Boyst
Lois	Nel Applewhite
Daymar	Miriam Block
Granny	Ruth Abbott
Rhoda	Nannie Belle Clendenin
Bernard	Herbert Jones
Noel	Ernest Scarborough
Day	Charles McLees
Hugh	Charles McIver
Bradley	Macon Crocker
Kimberly	J. D. McNairy
Rox	John Brown

PLAY TO SHOW WHO BIGGEST GOOSE IS

Mysteries Concerning Characters to Be Revealed at Presentation of Play

"THE GOOSE HANGS HIGH"

Who's the goose in "The Goose Hangs High?"

The goose is hanging pretty low now, but watch for March 19.

Can Charles McIver make love? See the "Goose Hangs High."

Who is Miriam Block engaged to? It will be announced March 19.

Don't come to "The Goose Hangs High" unless you are shock-proof.

If you want to see our own Ruth Abbott play a grandmother, come to see "The Goose Hangs High."

You'd be surprised how high geese can hang!

Just guess who Nell Applewhite's twin is? Can't? Well, you'd better see "The Goose Hangs High," March 19.

Come and see Jane Harris cry without the aid of onions—March 19.

Has Herbert Jones lost his job? See "The Goose Hangs High."

What does Macon carry on his hip? See the "Goose Hangs High."

Is Ernest Scarborough a nurseryman? Find out March 19.

Have you ever seen Charles McLees make a blunder? See "The Goose Hangs High."

Imagine Nannie Bell Clendenin a cook. See "The Goose Hangs High."

Teacher: "These three buttons represent 'Life, Liberty and Happiness.' Bring them back tomorrow and tell me what they represent."

Tommy (returning buttons, next day): "Here's 'Life' and here's 'Liberty,' but me mudder sewed 'Happiness' on me pants."—Tattler.

HONOR ROLL

Helen Shuford, James Stewart, Elizabeth Sockwell, Frances Swift, Joe Thornbier, Kate Wilkins, Stanley Williams, Louise Hunter, Joseph Hendricks, Rebecca Heath, Elvie Hope, Eugenia Isler, Pearl Johnson, Carl Jones, Camela Jerome, Mary Elizabeth King, Margaret Kernodle, Katherine Lamles, Ruth Long, J. D. McNairy, Sarah Mendenhall, Ruth Mendenhall, Georgie Mecoka, Katherine Nowell, Elsie Miller, Marry Mitchell, Clyde Norcom, Ed Nuckeels, Mary Quill Omohundro, Evelyn Rives, Matilda Robinson, Alia Ross, Mary Henri Robinson, Esther Self, Ruth Simpson, Nellie Allred, Ruth Abbott, Bernice Apple, Clara Applewhite, Elizabeth Ayers, Miriam Block, Betty Brown, Emily Brown, Ella Mae Barber, Elizabeth Boyst, Mary Lynn Carlson, Ila Clark, Arlando Cates, Annie Cagle, Harold Cone, Sarah Clegg, Grace Curtis, Leila George Cram, Virginia Douglas, Irene Dorsett, Ruby Elliott, Jennie Edwards, Douglas Eastland, Annie Laurie Felder, Carlton Green.