

STATE P. T. A. MEETS IN GREENSBORO, N. C., TO EXCHANGE IDEAS

Luncheon Is Given by the Members of the City's Parent-Teacher Council

TWENTY - FOUR PRESENT

Mrs. W. H. Swift Is President and C. W. Phillips Is Corresponding Secretary of the State P. T. Association

On Tuesday, April 5, at 10 o'clock, the delegates to the State Parent Teachers Association, from different cities in North Carolina met at the Y. W. C. A.

After this there was a luncheon given by the members of the city's Parent-Teachers' council.

In the afternoon there was another meeting which had a number of various reports, and the delegates planned the outline for the fall meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Swift is present and Mr. C. W. Phillips is corresponding secretary of the State P. T. A. Other members come from all over the state. There were about 24 present.

CAMPFIRE SUPPER HELD BY GIRL RESERVES APR. 1

Semesters 1 and 2 Cook Supper—Play Games and Sing Songs on Hike

CANDLE CEREMONY PERFORMED

The Girl Reserves of semesters one and two went on a hike Friday, April 1st. A large campfire was built and supper was cooked after the hike. A candle ceremony was performed supervised by Misses Sarah Booth and Mary Harrell. After playing games and singing campfire songs, the meeting was adjourned and the girls returned to their homes.

JUNIORS!

Juniors, juniors, juniors, how they cheered as Mr. Bob Douglas stepped out on the platform dressed in short knee pants, boyish shoes, a big red tie, and clasping a stick of candy in his hand. "Now, us juniors," he began, "think we ought to be seniors and maybe should be sophomores, so we'll let the audience be the judge."

Presto! Out came the girls and faculty, as nice a lot of out-of-date flappers and teahounds as you please. Big, showy ribbons were in the girls' hair and each wore rompers. The women of the faculty came out in jerseys and black bloomers while the men wore white shirts and white ducks. The game was somewhat one-sided, the faculty having the high score.

In came Mr. Douglas just then with a bundle of packages. Miss Wheeler, seizing the hint, stuck in her oar and pulled out some pies, too, five to be exact. So unlike Little Lack Horner said delightedly: "Let's have an eating contest, of course, excluding the audience." "Fine," and the three juniors, Hilda Davidson, and John Brown, stepped from without back-stage, and began eating with all haste. The pies disappeared fast and probably someone of the trio saw their great-granny a few hours later.

The last feature of the evening was a basketball game between the girls and the boys. Leroy Tackett seemed to be the center of attraction on the boys' side in his high silk hat and funny spectacles. While Marion Curtis stood foremost among the girls, jumping center with tall Ray Lewis. This game proved to be another mix-up game, the girls called themselves the winners but were aided by the boys. As the final whistle blew, "Professor" elegantly tossed his hat into the basket where it stuck.

Y.M.C.A. PEPTOMISTS GIVE FASHION SHOW

Money Will Pay Expenses of Delegate to Be Sent to Blue Ridge

SPRING, SUMMER STYLES

The fashion show that is staged annually at the Greensboro Y. M. C. A. by the Peptomist Club was given Thursday night, March 31, before an audience of one hundred and twenty-five persons. The show was given for the purpose of raising money to send a delegate to the Y. M. C. A. conference at Blue Ridge.

The program included many Greensboro young men, women and children dressed in attractive costumes.

The music was furnished by Mr. Fred Phipps and Miss Daniels.

Forty garments were modeled in all, giving the spectators an idea of the new styles for spring and summer.

of State College, where a supper was given. Dean Brown from State College welcomed the visitors.

Miss Ida Clark Lewis, from a Raleigh newspaper, gave a talk on news-writing. The dean of education, State College, spoke on the influence of the newspaper. He said that the newspaper was more powerful than either church or government in establishing public opinion.

The journalistic class from Hugh Morson High School then gave two one-act plays. Booth Tarkington's "Ghost Story" was given.

The boys were entertained Friday night at a fraternity house at State College while the girls went with Mrs. Covington.

Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, the delegates again met at the Hugh Morson High School. Mr. Stuart Robertson gave a talk on how the newspaper reflects the world as it is today.

Many delegates left early Saturday afternoon. Others stayed to go through the plants of the Raleigh News and Observer and Raleigh Times and the publication room of the high school.

One thing worse than a quitter is the fellow afraid to begin.—The Climber, Pleasant Garden, N. C.

Charleston Was Among the Dances and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" Closed a Group of Spirituals

Miss Nellie K. Dry's session room was in charge of the chapel program March 30. The old school negroes were shown during a period of leisure. The first number was a song, "Down by the Riverside." Some stories were told and more songs were sung. A jig was played and an old negro danced and another did the Charleston. The program was closed with the song, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." A few of the characters were: Mable Bernard, Ellen De-Butts, Edna Seawell, Dorothy Russell, Dick Douglas, and Lily Stapleton.

Edward gave the declamation which he gave at Wake Forest April 1.

YESTERDAY

No human hand can bring it back,
The yesterday into today.
No evil deed done then
Can be erased away.

For when the hand of God
Has writ the deeds of the past,
The coming day cannot be made
Just like the last.

No human tear can blot one word,
No efforts erase a letter.
'Tis as though the day just passed
Were bound with an iron fetter.

Yea, the hand of Fate we cannot rule;
We cannot turn it back,
For today will yet follow yesterday
Along time's well worn track.

One hundred years ago, March 26, a great composer died. He was Ludwig Beethoven. All the lovers of his music paid tribute to his memory. Many symphony orchestras put on special Beethoven programs. He was born in 1778.
