

MANY SENIORS PLAN TO ENTER COLLEGE

Large Number of Graduates Announce Their Choice of Future Alma Maters.

STATE SCHOOLS POPULAR

An exceptionally large number of graduating seniors plan to attend college next fall. Most of the seniors prefer to further their education in North Carolina, but a few are leaving the state in search of knowledge.

A few seniors have not picked the college they wish to attend as yet, and of course there are a number that do not plan to attend college. Here, however, is a typical cross-section of college preference among the seniors.

Gulfport—Stanley Lewis, Richard Davis, Teddy Mills, Bobby Ward, Jack Clemmons, Bobby Truitt, and Cranford Bennett.

Greensboro Woman's College—Elsabeth Mitchell, Virginia Serock, Corinne Bennett, Mary Reese, Helen Craven, Anna Leo Nelson, and Frances Carter.

North Carolina Woman's College—Lena Shuping, Mary Shupard, Mary Helen Reed, Alice... Vincent Schneck, Phyllis Milloway, Virginia Wells, Mildred Younts, Doris Shuffler, Shirley Faucette, Margaret Allen, Kathryn Bain, Jesse Cogle, Evelyn Cox, Elizabeth Couch, Maurine Love, Marjorie Silbiger.

Carolina—Bill Singletary, Raymond Studien, Leroy Shuping, Charles Wilkins, Bill Murray.

State—Ralph Donnell, Bill Bartlett, James Pleasants, Jerry Grogan.

Meredith—Louise Oliver, Bobbie Lee Clegg.

Duke—Joy Gunn.

Beren—Carolyn Walker.

New York University—Lorraine Amurr.

Lenoir-Rhyne—Annie Lee Cable.

Hollins—Mary Spencer Walkins.

Wake Forest—Graham Bartlett.

V. M. I.—Stuart Rogers.

Davidson—Bill Witherspoon.

PASSING THE COLORS IS IMPRESSIVE SPECTACLE

Feature of Class Day Program is a Long-Cherished Tradition of Greensboro High.

PRESIDENT MARY LINDSAY TALKS

One of the most impressive parts of each Class Day program is the passing of the colors. This custom, that of the senior class presenting its colors to the incoming sophomores, is a long-cherished tradition of G. H. S.

At the Class Day program... Mary Lindsay, Walter Pamplin, and Eleanor Belols. Of the new Sophomores, Allen Darby stood for Lindley Junior High, Douglas Hunt for Central, and Irene Current for Gillespie. In giving the colors, Mary Lindsay, president of the Senior Class, made the following speech:

"When a knut of old went into a tournament, he wore on his sleeve a token from his lady love; to the spectator it was merely a bit of ribbon for the end of a scarf, but to him it symbolized the ideals of knighthood.

"So to us, the class of 1937, these knots of ribbon—gold and blue, purple and gold—symbolize the high ideals of Greensboro High School.

"While they stand often for discouragement, they stand also for hard work that leads to achievement; for unselfish devotion to duty; for love of wisdom; for friendships that endure from youth to age.

"They stand for something greater and finer than any of us—for the best that is in all of us.

"Take them, Class of 1940, and hold them high in loyalty and devotion."

ELFRIED PENNEKAMP IS CHOSEN CHIEF MARSHAL

Elfried Pennekamp, twice elected president of his semester, acted as chief marshal for the baccalaureate sermon, Sunday, May 30, and will serve in that capacity when the seniors graduate tonight. Those assisting him are: C. M. Allen, Lois Baldwin, Cy Beard, Nellie B... Laura Brown, Paul Carruthers, Carl Compton, Walter Corbise, Helen Cunningham, Jean Davis, Myrtle Davis, Bob Dillon, Rebecca Forsythe, Wade Fox, Sara Lou Gerringer, Mari-belle Ginn, John Harvey, Bill Hemphill, Bruce Hodges, Edith Lambert, Nosco Lewis, Margaret Little, Edgar Marks, Frank Masters, Claude O'Brien, Helen Porter, Stokes Rawlins, Sarah Reich, Carter Rossell, Rhea Sykes, John Truitt, Arthur Tucker, Jean Welborne, Marshall Wolfe, and Mildred Yost.

Life is like curls: When up, you are ok; but when down, you are miserable—Margaret Curtis.

SILLS IS THE WORD FOR SHOES IN GREENSBORO

Reading left to right, top row—Shirley Ingram, Jewell Ingram, June Ingram, Walter L. Johnson, Sarah W. Lee Kellam, Chas. Keese, Junius Clyde Kelly, Jr., Emily Kuhn. Second row—Alice Ruth Kemp, Paul N. King, Meyer Levine, Stanley V. Lewis, Ed Langston, Frances B. Little, Mary Lindsay, Maurine Love. Third row—Markham, Sarah Inez McCulloch, Burt C. MacKenzie, Sarah Little McAllister, William Gray Murray, Addison E. Milholland, Mildred M. Maness, Phyllis Milloway, Charles W. McDonald, Cleo McLean, John K. Myrick, Jack Nelson, Garland C. Nall, Shirley Oakes, Louis H. Owens, Louise Oliver, Eunice Ozment, Richard Osborne, J. Powell, James F. Parris, Virginia Dare Pearman, Herbert Park, Alice G. Porter, Jewell V. Preston, Herman Lee Phillips. Sixth row—Ernest M. Prichett, Edna Elizabeth Plummer, James Pleasants, Mary Jo Phillips, Mary James A. Rayle, Sarah G. Raulston, H. M. Reddick, Jr. Seventh row—Carter Reeves, Mary Helen Reed, Sue Reynolds, Marjorie C. Silbiger, Virginia L. Spencer, J. Ernest Starner, Barbara June Stone, Mary Snyder, Melvin W. Stadium, Edward Sullivan, Clarence L. Shuping, Randy Speight, Howard R. Stadium, William V. Singletary, Sampson, John M. Strunks, Doris J. Shaffer, Mae Sewell, Virginia Schrock, Edward Showfety, Frances Scott. Tenth row—Daphne Tolley, Bobbie Trodron, Marcella Zimmerman, Lillian E. Tedder, Virginia Lee Sharpe, Williams, Elizabeth Waldron, Nancy White, Mary S. Winkers, Erma Lee Warren, Carolyn Walker, Florence Young, Georgia M. Way, Henry S. Wooton, Jr., James D. Waynick, James E. Westmoreland, Erskine A. Wimbler, Mildred Deboe Younts.

Beloved Faculty Member Succumbs After Long Illness

Members of the faculty and student body at Greensboro Senior High School were greatly saddened by the death of Miss Mary McNairy, beloved member of the history department, who has served in this school for a number of years.

After an extended illness, Miss McNairy passed away early last Thursday morning at St. Leo's hospital.

Her death is a great loss to the entire school system.

LIBRARY GIVES REPORT OF YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

According to Mrs. Hall the library had a complete circulation of 24,108 books during the school year, 1936-1937. Of these books 11,136 were fiction and 12,972 non-fiction. 4,356 more biographies were circulated than any other division of non-fiction. 62,028 persons came from study halls to use the library, and a total of 418 new books were added to the library.

A roaming student gathers no credits.

SIDE LIGHTS GIVEN ON TRIP TO WASHINGTON

When the seniors visited Washington recently, they made several enjoyable trips which did not include the regular visits to points of historical interest. Their pleasure in a moonlight boat ride on the first night of their visit rivaled that which they experienced at historic Mount Vernon. Although the visitors marveled at the massiveness and splendor of the new Supreme Court building, they found the scintillating music of Hal Kemp's orchestra equally inviting.

The only possible thing in the world that really cheats some of our high school students out of the very last word is the echo from their own voices. —Radiograms, Wilson, N. C.

First person at party: "Very dull party, isn't it?" Second: "Yes, very." First: "Let's go home." Second: "I can't. I'm the host."

Compliments of S. H. Kress & Co.

Overheard at a night baseball game: "How did you get out tonight?" "I told my grandmother it was the boss's funeral."

Get in the SWIM

Visit ELLIS STONE'S BEACH SHOP for Smartest Beach Apparel—SECOND FLOOR—

Ellis Stone & Co. Greensboro's Best Store

Sears Have a Complete Line of Sporting Goods

Here Are Some of the Outstanding Values to Be Found at Our Store

- Tennis Rackets $2.98
- Baseball Gloves $2.98
- Tennis Balls "X-Perf" 3 For $1.00
- Baseballs "Buzzy" Dean A Real Value 79c

108-110 South Elm Street SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO. Phone 5143 Greensboro, N. C.

Congratulations Graduates!

—and may this be but the beginning of a series of successful attainments!

Incidentally, it is well worth remembering, that to be well-groomed is an asset that will help you greatly to arrive at success in any field you may choose... and you will find BROWNHILL'S well equipped to help you in that direction.

the NEW Brownhill's

Squire Green: "When I die, Mandy, I wish that you would marry Deacon Brown."
Mandy: "Why so, Hiram?"
Squire: "Well, the deacon trimmed me on a horse trade once."

Meyer's TWIXTEEN SHOP

FOURTH FLOOR
Headquarters for Young Americans at Play!

$1

Shorts

- Sanforized-shrunk!
- Twill shorts!
- Sport styles, pleated front, braided trim nautical styles!
- Adjustable lace inserts!
- In navy, white and brown; sizes 8 to 16!

$1

Slacks

Sanforized - shrunk, gob - style slacks with the wide, sailor legs. Guaranteed fast colors! In white, navy, brown; sizes 10 to 16.

Halters for both slacks and shorts... in a wide variety of designs and colors... 50c

TWIXTEEN SHOP Fourth Floor Meyer's