Baxter Stapleton and Charlie Weill, leading members of "Our Heritage," senior pageant, here rehearse for the final presentation on Thursday, June 5.

Debaters Given Medals By Local Speech Club

As a personal reward for their outstanding record made in forensic activities during the year, the debating club has recently awarded to each member of the school team a recognition medal.

"Though they have been awarded certificates of honor from Wake Forest college, we believe that the team deserves the school's personal congratulation. The club through presenting the medals hopes to convey its feeling for the honor and attention given the school and the local speech department," Miss Moezelle Causey, debate coach, declared today.

Greensboro Captures French Alliance Cup

For the second consecutive year, the Senior high school French team, composed of Rachael Baxter, Aurelia Dunstan, Dianne Page, Bill Brinkley, and Douglass Hunt won the annual French contest sponsored by the Alliance Française of Greensboro.

The organization, a group of local people interested in the French language, presented the cup to the team, which, under the direction of Miss Estelle Mitchell, triumphed over all other contestants in the final eliminations last month. The cup, now on display in Miss Mitchell's room, will become the permanent property of Greensboro high school if next year's team is as successful as this year's entrants.

Moore Names Juniors On General Honor Roll

By maintaining a scholastic average of 90%, a total of 28 juniors placed on the general scholastic honor roll for the past six weeks, reported Miss Ida Belle Moore, keeper of the system, last week.

Juniors on List

Avery's Home Room Holds End of School Celebration

With Barbara Bond, Kyle Benbow, and Beverly Branson in charge of preparations, members of Mrs. Emma Sharp Avery's junior home room had a weiner roast and informal "get-together" Friday afternoon at Greensboro Country park.

The party was a final "end-of-school" celebration for the group.

Torchlight, Playmasters Elect New Club Leaders

Though minor now-vacant offices will be filled in September by incoming juniors and rising seniors, Torchlight, national honor society, and Playmasters, school dramatics group, elected executives for next semester at the last meeting of the year, disclosed Miss Sara Mims and Miss Lottie Wall, advisers for the clubs.

Holleyman Heads Torchlight

As president of Torchlight, Joan Holleyman stepped into the vacancy left by Tom Carpenter, retiring head; Charles Vache succeeded Louise Morton; and Jewel Hyatt and Lacy Sellars took over the respective positions of Beverly Heitman, secretary, and Ella Mae Norman, treasurer.

Sellars in Playmasters

While Eleanor Dare Taylor, president, and Eleanor Molen, secretary, turned over their offices to Lacy Sellars and Shannon Schumann, the places left by Frances (Panky) Winslow, vice president, and Elaine Miller, treasurer, will be filled next year by incoming juniors.

Other clubs, such as Quill and Scroll, Debating, Latin, Art, Photography, and the 35 assembly, will delay elections until fall.

E. Lewis Uses Character From Chaucer As Model

As one of her English 8 projects, Elsie Lewis, student of Mrs. Mary Madlin's English class, has designed and dressed a doll, using a character from Chaucer as her original model, and displayed it in the library. The doll itself is a prize which was awarded to Elsie for a "baby garment" contest sponsored by Meyer's Department store.

Also on display in the library is the recent work of Miss Henri Etta Lee's art classes. Included in this exhibit is a set of ice tea glasses by Martie McLennan.

Alumni Notations

In becoming a Guilford college senior in the fall, Charles Lewis will take over duties as president of the Guilford college Y. M. C. A., president of the choir, president of Student Affairs board, and vice president of the Dramatic council. He will also be a member of the social committee, representative to the Student Legislative assembly, and will preside over the Scholastic society.
