

BUSINESS MEN ENTERTAIN THE FOOTBALL SQUAD

Swell Supper Given in Cafeteria.

The G. H. S. football squad and several of the business men of the city enjoyed a supper for the squad Monday night in the High School Cafeteria. There were about 40 present. Hewitt served as toastmaster.

The following talks were made:

Plans of the High School, Mr. Archer; Confidence But Not Over-Confidence, J. D. Wilkins; Experiences of an ex-Football Player, Max Hendrix; Bull-Dog Fight from Beginning to End, Lacy McAlister; The Spirit of the Team, James Hendrix (Capt.); The Policy of Coaching, Wm. York (coach); Support of Athletics by Business Men, Clem Wright; Work of the Manager, Hoyt Boone (Mgr.); Chances of G. H. S. to Win, Bob Glenn; What We Mean by Fight in Football, C. W. Todd; Sportsmanship in the School and on the team, H. S. Richardson.

This supper was given by the business men of the town, but only a few were present. These were: C. W. Gold, H. S. Richardson, Hill Hunter, C. D. Wilkins, C. C. Taylor, Fred. Archer, Clem T. Wright, Max Hendrix, Lacy McAlister, Bob Glenn, W. A. Hewitt.

would probably have sent the bullet amongst our men instead of over their heads and into the enemy's ranks as intended.

The history classes discussed the Armistice and its terms, the Peace Treaty, and the League of Nations. In some of the classes suitable programs were carried out.

Armistice Day exercises were held in all the English classes. Those taking part entered into the spirit of the occasion and really made the celebration a success. This program carried by Miss Killingsworth's third period Juniors is typical of those held thruout the English department:

November 11, 1918, in Greensboro — Ethel Stockton.

The Causes of the War—Lucile Pettit. The Marsallaise and various war songs. In Flanders Fields—Nida Swain.

The Answer to In Flanders Fields — Emil Cline.

War Heroes—Gladys Holland. Recitation—Pauline Fitzgerald.

D. M. I ELEVEN ADMINISTERS GREENSBORO'S SECOND DEFEAT

Greensboro High School met its second defeat of the season Nov. 11, when D. M. I. by an arrial attack made the score 13-0. The game was one of the best seen at Cone Park this season and certainly the cleanest. Both sides fought hard but G. H. S., unable to break up D. M. I.'s many forward passes, had to be content with loosing.

Greensboro kicked off and D. M. I. brought the ball to the 35-yard line. After holding the cadets for three downs, G. H. S. received the ball as a result of a fumble only to be held for downs. The cadets then carried the ball to the 50-yard line. By the runs the ball was carried 10 yards, the quarter ending with the ball in the visitors' possession on the 40-yard line.

The cadets came back strong in the second quarter and by a series of forward passes carried the ball over for the first touchdown and kicked goal. G. H. S. also showed an abundance of fight in this quarter, but were unable to make any gains through the Virginia line.

The third quarter was the hardest fought period of the battle, both teams showing exceptional strength. G. H. S. made repeated gains around the ends and by line plunges, but lost the ball on forward passing. On this quarter G. H. S. linesmen held the cadets and the quarter ended with the ball in midfield.

At the last quarter the cadets, by a fine pass over the line of scrimmage, scored their second touchdown, failing to kick goal.

G. H. S. line-up was as follows: Left end, Maus; left tackle, Transou; left guard, Lewis; center, Daniels; right guard, Forsythe; right tackle, Taylor; right end, Brown; quarter back, P. Transou; left half, Hendrix (Capt.); right half, Ballard, full back, Fordham.

STAND BY THE TEAM

Here's to State
Who wins the games;
Your team is great
And full of fame.

You have a chance
To show your pep;
Your college to advance
And increase your rep.

So tighten the fetters,
Keep up your pace;
For strong competitors
You've yet to face.

Back your team,
Stick man to man;
May you be seen
Lending a helping hand.

Our goal is near,
Don't let it slip;
Fight without fear,
Win the championship!

An Original Poem—Myrtle Ellen LaBarr.

Various and sundry war poems were read by members of the class.

Two chapel periods of one hour each, the first for the Freshmen and the second for the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores, concluded the day. Features of each were addresses, music and recitations.
