EDITORIAL

There is some talk of a committee being appointed to examine the books of all organizations twice during the year. We think this would be a very good plan. All large organizations have this done and it is nothing but right to the respective organizations.

Can the students of the school refrain from going to the store during short recess, or will the faculty have to make some rule providing such? We hope that there will be no such rule made, and by the support of the school we feel it will not be necessary.

Everyone is able to see and appreciate the marked improvement of the conduct in the Cafeteria. This has not been as good in the past as it might have been, but with the changes in arrangement we believe that the conduct will be a great deal better in the future.

They lost in Monroe by hard luck. We have always heard it said that if a team fought a clean fight and lost they had won a victory in one sense of the word if not in another. We are glad to hear people who saw the game say that it was a game of pure sports from start to finish.

We are glad to see that the whole school is taking so much interest in athletics. Never before in the history of G. H. S. has athletics meant so much to the life of the school. The football of the past and the basket ball at the present are the two main things we hear of about the school now. The interest in the basket ball has already started and the faculty and members of the student body are trying to work out some plan so that the members of the different classes may develop their athletic talents.

SENIORS AND RINGS

The Seniors have at last selected and ordered their class rings. The seal to be used on the rings was decided upon six weeks ago, but the style of the ring was not decided upon at that time—whether it be hammered Roman gold or plain gold. Unfortunately we were delayed six weeks in getting the samples of these two rings. The two rings were put before the class, of which one was to be selected. Most everyone chose the hammered Roman gold ring, which is truly a very handsome design.

The ring bears the letters G. H. S., attractively designed, with a lamp of knowledge in the center of the ring and the figures 1921 at the bottom.

The rings were ordered from the Chas. H. Elliot Co., of Philadelphia, who has so forgiven us a very good deal.

JUNIOR HIGH'S SURPRISE

Since the first of the year the four classes of the Junior High have been contesting in Spelling. Each week class medians and averages have been taken and much interest has been inspired.

Last week it was suggested that a "Spelling Banner" be made that would show the standing of the different classes from week to week, the banner each week to be in the classroom of the winner for the previous week.

Some of the A class girls volunteered to make the banner as best they could with the material that the pupils would find in their mothers' scrap bags.

Howard Wimbish showed some enthusiasm over the banner at home and his father and mother absorbed the good spirit. On Thursday Mrs. Wimbish sent us a most exquisite banner mounted on blue satin background and hand decorated in white and silver.

The following letter of thanks has been written to Mr. and Mrs. Wimbish in an effort to express our appreciation:

Junior High School,
Dec. 8, 1920.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wimbish:

In behalf of the boys and girls of the Junior High School won't you allow me to thank you for the beautiful Spelling Banner which you so graciously furnished and made for us?

We appreciate Howard's enthusiasm and your interest in the making of the banner. The four grades have been talking about how they would take the banner away have contributed a great deal to the spirit from each other. We assure you that you of the Junior High School, and have awakened in us a greater desire for work.

Thanking you again for your interest and kindness, I am,

Very truly,
Lucile Sharp,
7th Grade A,
Junior High School.

MEN TEACHERS OF GUILFORD HEAR DR. ANGELL

The last meeting of the "Schoolmasters' Club" was held on the evening of Dec. 3, with a supper in the High School Cafeteria. The guest of honor was Dr. Angell, English lecturer and political candidate, who spoke later at the State College.

The Schoolmasters' Club is an organization of men engaged in educational work in the public schools of Greensboro and Guilford county, and in the various colleges located in the county. The membership includes the men of the High School faculty.

ENJOYABLE PARTY GIVEN BY ROOM 1, ANNEX B.

On Tuesday, Nov. 23, Room 1, Annex B, taught by Miss Inabelle Coleman, gave a delightful party at the home of Miss Jenny Lind Penn on Church street.

During the time spent a number of interesting games were played. First, a music game was thoroughly enjoyed, Miss Margaret Pritchett winning the prize, a box of candy.

Next a contest on seeing who could get the most words out of "Thanksgiving," Miss Virginia Beacham winning the prize.

Progressive conversation afforded much pleasure. It was decided that Mr. Roy Bumpass and Miss Virginia Beacham were the most attractive speakers present, both winning a prize of a box of candy.

After a delightful course of refreshments the guests departed.

THE ANNUAL

Prospects for an Annual this year are very bright. The Seniors are determined to have one and they want the very best. Estimates are being prepared by printers and photographers will soon be ready. As soon as these are finished work will begin at once on assembling the material.

BOYS!

Real boys, who require good shoes, here is your opportunity to get the best at a very reasonable price.

Hurley Cordovan Shoes
$15.00

Those shoes have been selling all the season for $18.00 and $19.00. They are real shoes and a great bargain. "Ask the man who wears them."

Other leathers and styles at reduced prices.
