COACH BILL YORK
"Bill" York is the man that puts across everything he starts. The success of the G. H. S. eleven is due to the constant patience and hard work of "Bill." Always, whether winning or losing, he was ready and willing to do all in his power to pull G. H. S. through with her old pep and glory.

MANAGER HOYT BOONE, G. H. S.
Only through the hard work of "Rooney" Boone was the team able to go when the time was set. Always, with the same good humor, he would arrange schedules and see that proper entertainment was supplied for our visitors. Much of the success of the team was due to "Rooney" too small to play but not too small to do good hard work.

JIM HENDRIX, G. H. S.
Halfback.
As captain and pilot of the team Jim has wound up a most creditable High School football career, and has a promising future in his coming four years at college. Jim's quick thinking and sound judgment, coupled up with his pretty broken field running, were factors in bringing about Greensboro's victories. Not only on the gridiron, but as one of the leading men of the Senior Class, Hendrix's loss will be felt strongly next year.

FRED MAUS, G. H. S.
Left End.
This is "Fritz's" last year at G. H. S. and his third year on the team. Although he was the smallest on the team he was always in the play. No matter where the play went "Fritz" was always ready for the tackle. Especially in the Monroe game he showed his fight and determination that no other on either team showed.

C. C. FORDHAM, G. H. S.*
Fullback.
With that heavy weight of his and that wonderful drive "Christy" would hit the line for a gain or die trying. He always hit with the force of an engine. G. H. S. loses another of its greatest back field men when "Christy" leaves this year.

JOE GRIMSLEY, G. H. S.*
Halfback.
Joe was one of the big ground gainers of the team this season. Always with a punch that made any line give he would hit the line. Though crippled most of the time he always showed that same old punch when in the game. With his wonderful playing he was the envy of all teams.

GEORGE TAYLOR, G. H. S.*
Guard.
One of the hardest fighting men on the squad, a guard that every football team would be proud of, George made left guard on the all State Second team for his hard, consistent fighting, and his ever-sounding shout to his teammates to fight hard. Do you remember the Charlotte-Greensboro game in Charlotte? You do? Well, you heard about George starring in that game then. Here's his motto: "Fight 'em hard, Greensboro. Let's go!"

JOE TRANSOU, G. H. S.*
Tackle.
Ah, there's the rub! "Joedy" had the honor of being picked as all State tackle, an honor to be proud of, and Joe deserved it. His ability to tackle, to size up the offensive on defensive is unexcelled. Joe would tackle hard, lose a tooth or two, sprain his arm, but would always grunt and take his position as if nothing had happened. Some grit, eh? And that's the way "Joedy" made his way into the position he won—a tackle on the All State team.

CHARLES HINKLE, G. H. S.*
End.
"Hink" has been playing on the team for two years. He has been putting up some hard work and is especially good on defensive, with those long arms he reaches across the line and tackles the man. In the latter part of the season Hink developed to be good at punting also. G. H. S. will also lose Hinkle this year.

KENNETH LEWIS, G. H. S.
Guard.
This was "Goat's" first year on the squad. He came out the first of last season, but on account of sickness was forced to stop. Although new at the game he developed into a steady, reliable and dependable player. Besides ability, "Goat" had something which is perhaps of more value than ability; he had the spirit of fight and stick-to-it. Although injured at times he stuck to his post and delivered the same reliable playing. On defensive Lewis was right into every play which came toward his side of the line, often breaking through and throwing the runner for a loss. On offensive "Goat" was right there with his hard drive and used it to advantage when he was called on to open a hole.

GARLAND DANIEL, G. H. S.*
Center.
Garland was the young giant of our team, being perhaps its heaviest man. He was one of the most valuable men on the squad, playing his position at center with exceptional ability, both in line work and in passing, doing all the punting, part of the drop-kicking, kicking off and goal kicking. On defensive Garland played both in the line and out of it, doing good work in both places, but his best work was perhaps in the line. He often broke up plays in the opposing backfield before they got started, and when the opponents were forced to punt he always kept their kicker in a hurry and several times broke up punts, one of which resulted in a touchdown for G. H. S. On offensive "Dan" contributed his accurate passing and always took care of his man as well. This is his second year and he still has two more.

BRYAN BARKER, G. H. S.*
Tackle.
"Bunnie" was the original "bad actor" of our team. The way he used his hands on defensive was discouraging to many opponents. He played the game for all he was worth, and it was this hard playing which made him the terror of his opponents. When the line was holding on the 5-yard line or in the middle of the field, you could always find "Bunyan" in the midst of the fun. Very few plays off or over right tackle ever passed the line of scrimmage, due largely to him. On offensive "Bunyan" always had his man out of the play and when he kicked his man never threatened to break it up. This is Bryan's second year and he will be on hand next year to do still better.

ARCHIE BROWN, G. H. S.
End.
This was Archie's first year on the football field, and he showed up fine. He produced the goods in wonderful style and is unsurpassed in speed. The team loses Archie this year, but he will bear watching wherever he goes. When it comes to those tackles Archie is right there.

JOHN FRANK BALLARD, G. H. S.
Halfback.
John did great work on those long end runs. And once started he was hard to stop. Starting out at the beginning of the season as a line man he soon showed that this was not his place. It was his first year out, but he did excellent work and was splendid on passes.

PAUL TRANSOU, G. H. S.
Quarterback.
Transou generalled the team this year. His particular skill at calling just the proper play at the proper time distinguished him as being one of the coolest headed handlers of a team in the state. When a forward pass was called Paul was always at the right place. He was light of weight, but as hard as an express train to stop. This was his first year, but he played like a veteran.

COLON FORSYTH, G. H. S.
Guard.
"Varsity" entered a new career this year, as this was his first at football. From the fight that he put up this year everyone sees that he has a chance for two more big years of football. Varsity's ability to block his always large opponent, and to fight when fighting counts was always evident. His voice could always be heard "to hold that line," and he always practised what he preached. Go to it Varsity and make it again. Give 'em the same old punch.

The Greensboro High School Eleven has been a great success this year. Great credit is due the whole squad, as they all could not play the game. There were only 15 who made letters. This does not mean that the others did not work hard, for only with the whole squad was such a record as this year's possible.
