

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION GIVEN ASHEVILLE SQUAD.

Jolly, Good Spirited Time Enjoyed by Basket Ball Boys.

The Greensboro High School basket ball team were delighted to have as their guests the Asheville basket ball team on Saturday evening, Feb. 12th.

After a very fast and interesting game between the two well matched teams, which was played at the Y. M. C. A. and in which Greensboro was lucky enough to carry away the honors, both teams and their girl friends were invited to a nine-thirty feast at the lovely Y. W. C. A. Hut.

Everything waited in readiness to receive this attractive and enthusiastic crowd. Promptly at nine-thirty they arrived, as they had played, full of pep, and ready to show the Asheville team they were delighted to have them here.

Miss Wilson, in her usual gracious manner, met them at the door, immediately tagging each fellow with a cupid, and each girl with a heart. The numbers on these were to serve as guides to the proper places to be chosen around the attractively decorated tables.

The tables with the letters G. H. S. and A. H. S. carefully arranged in hearts, also Valentines and candles, around which were gathered fifty of Greensboro's and Asheville's young people, were indeed a lovely sight which St. Valentine himself would have been proud to see.

Before taking their seats the whole crowd sang the "Howdy Song," which has been on the lips of most of the people in Greensboro for two weeks. After shaking hands with the one next to them, the one they liked best, and the one they didn't like, which afforded much merriment, the group was seated to partake of a delicious salad course and hot chocolate.

No sooner seated than the fun began. Hoyt Boone, acting as toastmaster, called on several to express themselves, which they did in a very clever way.

Especially good was the speech by the captain of the Asheville team (Flowers), who declared they had never been treated better in any city, also that the game played was the cleanest, best played and hardest fought he had ever played in. He thanked Greensboro for her good spirit, and expressed a desire to return.

Greensboro's captain, Jimmie Poole, answered this, assuring the Asheville team that on a return trip they might expect the same treatment, even to the score.

Each member of both teams had a word, many of which were very clever, witty and snappy.

As fellows will do, "call on the girls," of course on this Valentine occasion their opinions were desired. They, as usual, had much to say, and said it. Nellie Irvin, captain of the girls' basket ball team, made a splendid speech, which proved to all present she could not only play ball but speak as well.

As no basket ball game is complete without a word from the coacher, so even at a late supper a word from them is appreciated.

Mr. York spoke of the spirit the Asheville team displayed and the splendid sportsmanship exhibited, telling them in his own words what has been so well expressed by another, "When the Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He writes, not whether you won or lost, but how you played the game."

The Asheville principal, Mr. Hutchinson, stated how glad he was to be with the team on their trip to Greensboro and commended the boys for the good spirit shown.

After singing several songs full of school pep, we extended to the Asheville Manager Hayes and his team an invitation to come back soon, promising them we will "treat them good," feed them well and beat them fair.

May the boys of Greensboro High School have many more such entertainments for their visiting teams and girl friends.

GREENSBORO FIVE WINS FROM BURLINGTON BOYS

Score Was 31 to 21—Burlington Is Eliminated From the Championship Series—Fine Game.

Greensboro eliminated Burlington from the State High School basket ball championship last night at Guilford College, when the locals by fast and clever passing and the ability to find the basket won the first game of the elimination series, 31 to 21. Burlington put up a game fight, but at all times there appeared to be only one possible outcome to the game. Poole and Daniel for Greensboro led in scoring and Koenig did some splendid guarding. Jones and Webster were the outstanding players for Burlington.

By winning this game, Greensboro is entitled to play Lexington Friday night. The game will be played at Guilford college on account of a ruling of the Chapel Hill authorities that whenever desirable the game be played on neutral territory.

The line-up: Greensboro, Poole, lf.; Britton, rf.; Daniel, c.; Ballard, rg.; Koenig, lg. Burlington, Webster, lf.; Jones, rf.; Nicholson, c.; Gibbs, rg.; Schoffner, lg. Substitutes, Stafford for Britton; Transou for Ballard. Referee, Stuart.

PRELIMINARIES HELD

the state debating championship now. Winston won the cup three years ago and covets the honor again. So the debate bids fair to be a hard fought contest. The team is an unusually good one and we feel confident that it will put up a typical G. H. S. fight.

G. S. S. CONTINUES VICTORIOUS
MARCH; TEN STRAIGHT GAMES

The first half began with Trinity scoring the first goal. But G. H. S. began its old fight and at the end of the half the score stood 10-10.

The second half was a fight from start to finish, with the score being tied and broken almost consecutively. But good, hard, consistent fighting and better ability to shoot gave G. H. S. a margin of two points.

The work of Poole and Britton and Ballard on their goals from the field was a feature for G. H. S., Koenig and Daniel also showing their same old fight. For Trinity Park, Stokesberry, S. Roane and R. Roane featured.
