Good-Bye

Seniors

HIGH LIFE

And Old G. H. S.

NUMBER 15

VOLUME IX

GREENSBORO HIGH SCHOOL, MAY 24, 1929

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

Harvey Anderson Named President of Student Body MADE SCHOOL HEAD

STUDENT CHOICE Leaders for Next Year Elected at General Election Held May 14 and 15

WHITE NEW GIRLS' HEAD Girls Choose Her as President of Cour cil-Elect Semester Officers and Other Representatives

Using the Australian ballot for second election, the student body of Greensboro High elected leaders for the coming year. The polls were open all day Tuesday, May 14, and all offierrs named except president of the student body. Boyd Morris was elimi-nated in the first election, necessitating a second voting on May 15. The count ing of the second vote revealed that Harvey Anderson led J. Barnes by a good majority.

Girls of the high school elected Priscilla White president of the Girls' Council. It was by a small majority Council. that Priscilla won over Sarah B. Ciegg her strongest rival for the position The election of the three cheer leaders was open to all the students of the school who had registered the previous week. Harriet Powers, capturing the largest number of votes, automatically becomes chief cheer leader. Ernes Hunt and Charles Shoffner were named as assistants

Class Elections

Semester presidents, Girls' Council representatives, and Student Council representatives were the other officers chosen by the semesters at the election Tuesday. Ed Michaels will head the Tuesday. rising senior class, semester 8, and W. M. Paris leads semester 7. Guy Hope is president of rising semester 6, and Rigdon Dees was named by classmates to lead the semester 5 group. Marjorid Boone and Mary Rucker are the new leaders of the sophomore classes, semes ters 4 and 3, respectively. Joe Dees was named leader of the freshman class, semester 2.

Representatives on the Girls' Council from the rising semesters were: Mary Burton High, 8; Sarah Burton Clegg, 7; Mary Greer, 6; Anna Wills, 5; Mary E. Cunningham, 4; Anna Atkinson, 3; Margaret Knight, 2.

Representing the seven semesters or the Student Council for the year 1929-30 are: Margaret Leak, 8; Carey Sloan, 7; Margaret Smathers, 6; Charles Shaffer, 5; Mary Scott Jones, 4; Elmer Wrenn, 3; John Hayes, 2.

Harvey Anderson, newly-elected presi-dent of the student body, will be inaugurated at a mass meeting of the entire student body Thursday, May 30.

PUBLICATION HONORED AT C. S. P. A. CONVENTION

laurel at the won a new fourth annual Southern Interscholastic Press Association convention held at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., May 10-11. The publica-tion took first place in the magazine class A contest. IIIGH LIFE won honorable mention in the newspaper class A contest.

Following Dr. Smith's address there were several short talks by representatives from some of the 1928 S. I. P. A. winners. Lucy Crocker represented Homespun, and in a three-minute talk sketched the magazine's make-up. There were about 130 delegates at the convention, being more than for tives of High Point. any previous year. The boys were entertained at fraternity houses

GUY B. PHILLIPS

WEDDING FEATURES ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Marriage of Sarah Clegg and Charles Rives Symbolical of Union of Classes

STRICKLAND OFFICIATES

In response to the following invitation, seniors of this high school were entertained by the juniors:

"Mr. and Mrs. Semester Six requ the honor of your presence at the marrlage of their daughter, Ima Junior, to Mr. U. R. A. Senior, on Friday, the teuth of May, at eight o'clock in the evening at the Jefferson Club."

The inclosed card read, "Reception nmediately after the ceremony." Due to the fact that the Jefferson Club was being remodeled the Masonic Temple was the place at which the ceremony ada reception took place.

Prior to the wedding, several musical selections were rendered by Lois Lazen-by, W. M. Paris, and J. C. Coe.

The wedding procession entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. "Reverend" James Strickland, junior of G. H. S., officiated in the ring ceremony. Mr. C. W. Phillips, ring ceremony. Mr. C. W. Phillips, father of the bride, gave his daughter in marriage. "Mendelssohn's Wedding March" was used as the recessional. Previous to the night of the junior-senior, members of these classes had selected Sarah Burton Clegg as the bride, Charles Rives as the bridegroom, Araminta Gant as maid of honor, and Harry Murray as best man. A buffet supper was served during the evening. Dancing was enjoyed from 9:30 to 11 o'clock. Sarah Clegg and Margaret Kernodle presided at the punch bowl. The culmination of the entertainment for seniors was the cutting of the huge wedding cake.

In the final dual debate with High Point Friday morning, May 17, the query for discussion was, Resolved, that the United States should cancel their inter-allied war debts. Greensboro High School, defending the negative, was the winner

Harry Buice, Charles Hogan, and Arlindo Cate were the debaters from Greensboro, and Mabel Koontz, Eloise Best, and Margaret Andrews, upholding the affirmative, were the representa

coached the dual debate

MR. GUY B. PHILLIPS BY SCHOOL BOARD

Is Brother of C. W. Phillips and Former Principal of Greensboro High School

ACTIVE IN ASSOCIATIONS

At Present Superintendent of Salisbury Schools Where He Has Been Since He Left Here in 1924

Mr. Guy B. Phillips was elected superintendent of schools of the Greater Greensboro school district at a call meeting of the school board May 14, in the office of E. D. Broadhurst, chair man of the board of education.

Mr. Phillips is at present the super intendent of the Salisbury schools, hav ing held this office since 1924. Before becoming affiliated with the Salisbury system he served for three years as principal of Greensboro High School. He is the brother of C. W. Phillips, present principal of the high school and acting superintendent of city schools. Frederick Archer, former superintendent, resigned in October, and it was then that Mr. Phillips became the acting head of the city schools.

The new superintendent was graded from the University of No ıdu ated North Carolina in 1913. For three years he was head of the English department and athletic coach in the Raleigh school, going in 1916 to Oxford as superintendent, a post which he held for four years. His next connection was with the Greensboro High School as principal. He left here in 1924 to become superintendent of the Salisbury schools

Mr. Phillips has been active in the state educational and physical associa tions. He was for two years president of the physical education association and is at present a director of the Educational Association of the state. He is also president of the North Carolina High School Girls' Athletic Association, a position he has held since the organization of the association in 1921.

SENIORS ELECT EDITORS FOR TWO PUBLICATIONS

Early Elections of Staff by the Editor Aids in Completing Next Year's Appointments

HIGH LIFE EDITOR EXPERIENCED

Semesters 6 and $\overline{7}$, the rising senior classes of the high school, named the new editors for the student publica ed the tions, High Life and Homespun, at a meeting on May 3. Margaret Kernodle and Elizabeth Leak will share the joint responsibility of the paper, being elected managing editor and editor, respective-Susan Gregory was elected editor 15. in-chief of Homespun.

Business managers for the two pub lications were also chosen. The classes elected Ed Michaels, with James Strickland as assistant, for the Homespun staff, and Carl Kellam and Leila George Cram will serve in the same capacity on the HIGH LIFE staff.

All the new editors for High Life have had at least a year's experience in journalism. The new Homespun editor has not been connected directly with the school magazine, but Susan has contributed material for several of the

125 High School Seniors Receive Diplomas June 7

Examination Schedules

Senior May 30—Sixth and first periods May 31-Second and third periods. June 3-Fourth and fifth periods. June 4—Make-ups.

Regular June 4—Sixth and first periods. June 5—Second and third periods. June 6—Fourth and fifth periods. June 7—Make-ups on account of illness or for seventh period classes

HIGH SCHOOL CAST PRESENTS PINAFORE

One Matinee and One Night Performance Given-Two Casts Are Used

OPERA IS HIGHLY PRAISED

"H. M. S. Pinafore" a Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, was presented the music department of Central High School, May 17, in the Aycock Memo-rial building of N. C. C. "'Pinafore' is the best production of the kind ever presented by Greensboro High School students," says Mr. C. W. Phillips. Mr. Phillips has received a number of calls, both personal and telephone. congratulating him on the success of the production. The G. H. S. principal gives Mr. Miller, director, credit for this, but Mr. Miller does not hesitate to place all honor on the students and his executive staff.

The casts were chosen from the two glee clubs. Two casts were selected, one for the afternoon, and the other for the night performance. The leads for both performances were: Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., Shelby Fitzgerald, G. W. Stamper; Captain Carcoran, Everett Stamper; Ralph Rackstram, Guy Hope, "Red" Paris; Bill Babstay, John Lindeman, Allen Stanley: Josephine, Lois Lazenby, Annie Laurie Felder; Buttercup, Ethel Gray Rogers, Rachel Lipscomb; Hebe, Adelaide Fortune.

The directors were Mr. II. Grady Miller and Mr. J. II. Johnson. Mrs. Mrs. Alma G. Coletrane was in charge of the costumes, and Louise Thacker, gradu-ate of G. H. S., directed the chorus work. Mr. Byron A, Haworth was in charge of the publicity. These directors composed the executive staff that as-sisted Mr. Miller in preparations for the performance.

DISTINGUISHED AWARDS PRESENTED STUDENTS

Columbia Gaither, Bernard Money, Ruth Thompson, Virginia Shelton Receive Typing Pins in Chapel

Among the outstanding honors in the high school is the awarding of pins from the commercial department. In chapel Monday, May 20, sever pins for proficiency were awarded, The most distinguished award was made to Columbia Gaither. Although she is Columbia Gaither. Although she is just a junior she has attained the high-est honor of them all, a gold pin for typing fifty-five words a minute. This is Columbia's first semester in typing, yet she is doing the typing of a seventh semester student.

tributed material for both the complete term of the other awards went to be nature issues this year. By an early election the complete Money, who typed 50 words a minute; required in' staffs for next year have been approximately. Wirginia Shelton, 42 words a minute. Miss Tillett.

SERMON JUNE R. J. Tamblyn Delivers Sermon at Grace Methodist Protestant Church

CLASS DAY IS JUNE 6 Scene of Program Will Be an Inn With

Innkeeper as Master of Ceremonies

One hundred and twenty-five seniors will receive diplomas on Friday night, June 7. The awarding of diplomas will come as a culmination of four years of high school work and as the end of Greensboro High's commencement.

Rev. R. J. Tamblyn will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on the night of June 2. This will be the beginning of the commencement exercises. Class day exercises will be given at Odell Memo rial Hall Thursday night, June 6. The stage setting will be that of an old tavern or inn with the seniors as pil-grims. This will carry out the idea of Chaucer's Canterbury Pilgrims. Presiding as innkeeper will be Carl Jones, senior class president. Dixon Thacker, Louis Brooks, and Marguerite Wells will read tales of the pilgrims on parade. These three are class prophet, historian, and testator, respectively. The tales, relating the past, present, and future of the graduates, imitate Chaucer's heroic couplet.

Charler's heroic couper. Clark to Speak Mr. Harry Clark, of Furman Uni-versity, will make the commencement address Friday night. Odell Memorial hall will again be the scene for the final commencement exercises. Mr. Clark is an educational speaker of of great demand, and Principal Phillips thinks G. H. S. is fortunate in securing such a man

After the address presentatio ards will be made by Mr. Phillips. Attendance records, athletic and scholastic honors will be announced and then prizes and cups will be awarded. The Morehead cup will be awarded the senior who has subnitted the best paper on "Colonial Guilford." The Civitan essay cup will be given the student writing the best paper on some phases of citizenship. These two awards will be kept by the winners until the next graduation exercise. The scholarship trophy will go to the senior having the highest average for the entire four years of high school. This award at the spring graduation is made by the Monarch Club of this city. Greensboro's O. Henry Study Club this city. makes the award of a complete set of O. Henry's works to the student sub-mitting the best short story. The last and this the best short story. The last award, and most coveted each year, is the cup which goes to the best all-around senior. Members of the senior class name that student by secret bal-lot. The award is made annually by the Parent-Teacher Association G. 11. S.

SHAKESPEARE CLASS IS NEW STUDY COURSE

A new course of study will be introduced in Greensboro High School next year by Miss Laura A. Tillett, head of the English department. This will be a Shakespeare class, which will consist of the study of five or six Shake-spearean dramas, and much time will be devoted to the dramatization scenes in plays that are not being studied. Much outside reading will be required in the class. This new course will be taught by