

COPIES OF HIGH LIFE ENTER IN CONTEST OF PRESS SOCIETY

First Year That Convention Meets Outside of National Headquarters.

GALE DELIVERS ADDRESS

Quin Ryan, Radio Announcer of Chicago Tribune Will Speak at Banquet.

Already HIGH LIFE copies have been sent to Chicago to be entered in the eighth convention of the National Scholastic Press Association. The Wuboldt Hall on McKinlock campus of Northwestern University will be used for the convention purpose.

Selection of Chicago for the convention marks the first time that the meet has ever been held in a city other than that in which national headquarters of N. S. P. A. are located.

Because of the fact that Chicago is to be host, the eighth convention promises to be the greatest in the history of the association. The location of the city is ideal for the majority of N. S. P. A. members. Railroad fares, a big factor in holding down the attendance at the seventh convention, will be reduced to a minimum for hundreds of publication members. The city itself will supply enough delegates for a creditable gathering. Bus and train schedules from all points are exceptionally favorable to a large attendance. The best of speaking talent can be secured right in the city.

Miss Zona Gale will deliver the main address at the Friday afternoon convocation. Her subject will be one of her own choosing. Seldom has N. S. P. A. been able to secure as a speaker a person as well known as Zona Gale.

William S. Hedges, president of the National Association of Broadcasters and the radio editor of the Chicago Daily News, will speak on the subject, "To the Radio, the Newspaper's Competitor." Bruce R. McCay, acting chairman, department of journalism, University of Minnesota, has for his subject, "A Press Criticism and Press Critics."

"Four Roads to Printland" is the title of Professor H. F. Harrington's address. Professor Harrington is director of the Medill School of Journalism and author of "Chats on Feature Writing" and other books.

Benjamin F. Buck, assistant superintendent of Chicago Schools and a friend of school publications, will talk on "High School Publications and School Life."

Quin Ryan, radio announcer of the Chicago Tribune, will be speaker at the banquet. E. H. Johnson, president, National Association College Teachers of Journalism, has for a subject, "Why Study Journalism?"

So far is known now, no delegate will be sent from Greensboro high school.

PALMER MEMORIAL WILL GIVE PROGRAM

The chapel program on the afternoon of November 25 will be a musical one furnished by some member of the Palmer Memorial Institute at Sedalia, North Carolina.

Miss A. Bailey will accompany the quartette and transportation will be furnished for them by members of the Hi-Y club.

The Hi-Y club was very fortunate in getting these colored students to perform for the Greensboro high pupils.

Elizabeth Wills

SOME YEARS AGO

CLASS COMPLETES FOUR-TUBE SETS

Senior Students are Given Preference by Stanley Johnson to Take Class.

EXTRA FEE IS CHARGED

"We've got loud-speakers jumping up and down," Stanley Johnson declares. His radio class having completed four-tube sets, has begun five-tube sets.

Mr. Johnson is urging all juniors and seniors who wish to take this course, to enter the class next semester. He says he will give the seniors preference because they will not have later opportunity to take the course.

Boys who wish to enroll in this class for the next term have to apply to Mr. Johnson personally. There will be no registration for this class on the regular registration day. A definite period will be set aside for radio, however. Radio will probably skip years, running as an elective course every other year because of large numbers in the course. The fee will be two dollars instead of one, from now on.

PUBLICATION SPONSORS TWO CONTESTS HERE

Cartoon Contest and Short Story Contest Are Pertaining to Christmas.

ADVISERS OF PAPER ARE JUDGES

"Twas the night before Christmas, And all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, Not even a mouse."

The staff of HIGH LIFE is sponsoring a cartoon and short story contest. The rules of the cartoon contest are as follows:

1. The cartoon must be on plain white paper size 8x12 inches.
2. Drawn in India ink.
3. The cartoon must pertain to Christmas.
4. It must be turned in to Miss Henri Etta Lee, in Room 9, not later than December 10.

The rules for the short, short story contest are:

1. The story must concern Christmas.
2. It must not be less than six hundred and twenty-five words nor more than eight hundred.
3. The story is to be handed to English teachers not later than December 10.
4. The story must be typewritten.

TODAY'S NEWS

Today the last game of the season is played. G. H. S. vs. Gastonia!

Miss Lily Walker speaks on "What Price Math" at a convention in the eastern part of the state today.

Thanksgiving holidays begin on Thursday, November 28, continuing until Monday, December 2, when C. W. Phillips expects students to return to the high school.

National Scholastic Press association holds convention December 5 and 6 in Chicago, Illinois. HIGH LIFE is entered in the contest.

Radio classes will have changes in requisites next semester.

Miss Gertrude Farlow's class has given a picture for one of the rooms of the new high school.

Today is the last day of the second report period. Reports will be issued Wednesday, November 27.

Monday, November 25, is Artists' Nite at G. H. S.

Superintendent Phillips writes editor-in-chief of HIGH LIFE, commending school activities of the semester. His letter appears on page 2.

The Girls' Athletic Association has elected officers. Results of their election have been announced.

"Nothing but the Truth" is the gossip about the teachers in this issue of HIGH LIFE.

Miss Laura Tillett entertained the English department at her home last Saturday.

The Reflector staff for the year has not yet been completed. Officers, already elected, have made several contracts with various concerns. Plans for obtaining advertisements are being made. The motif of the senior yearbook will be announced in the next issue of HIGH LIFE when a complete list of the staff will also appear.

HIGH LIFE is sponsoring a contest for Christmas cartoons and short stories. The contest ends December 10.

The Touchlight Society held a business meeting yesterday, November 21. Committees, to be announced later, were appointed.

MID-TERM GRADUATES SPONSOR FIRST SOCIAL

Honor Mothers and Dads With Reception—Class Officials and Committee Chairmen Compose Receiving Line.

Not the annual senior tea, but a parent-senior reception is the name given the first of the socials sponsored by the mid-term graduates.

In the school library on Wednesday, November 20, from 8:00 to 10:00 o'clock, seniors entertained their dads and mothers.

Earl Slocum, director of the Greensboro senior high school orchestra, Harris Mitchell, J. C. Cole, and the boys' quartet composed of "Red" Paris, G. W. Stamper, Allen Stanley, and Guy Hope, furnished entertainment for the evening as did Adelaide Fortune, Lois Lazenby, Anna Laura Felder, Grady Miller, head of city school music, little Helen Wharton, Addie Brown's dancing class, Katherine Jenkins, Frank Warner, Cleo McCready, and the string quartet.

Richard Frazier

AT AN EARLY AGE

FOUR FRENCH CLUBS ORGANIZE AT G. H. S.

French IV Student and French III Students Decide to Form Societies.

JO CAUSEY IS SPONSOR

One each of the French classes III, IV, and V have organized French clubs. Plans are on foot to organize more. These clubs hold a meeting every week. The meetings are conducted entirely in French, no English being spoken. Part of each meeting is devoted to a program, and some clubs are planning social activities.

Once every two months it is planned to have all the French clubs meet together for a special program. One such meeting will be held before Christmas.

The object of the club is to familiarize the students with the spoken French, and to enable them to learn something of the habits and customs of the French people.

Officers that have been elected are: French V, Grace Curtis, Susan Gregory, Eleanor Randolph, Harvey Anderson, and Edwin Sisk. French IV: Bernard Money, Charles Pratt, Buster Litaker, Dorothy Burnside, Annie Laurie Felder, and Elsie Miller. French III: Lois Lazenby, William Apple, and Jaqueline Alderman.

EIGHT LATIN STUDENTS BUY PICTURE FOR CLASS

Students Find Facts About Picture; Other Latin Classes Plan to Buy "Applan Way."

"The Bridge and Castle of St. Angelo with St. Peter's Dome" is a picture which has recently been bought by the sixth period Latin 4 class, taught by Miss Gertrude Farlow.

The cost of the picture was divided equally among the 28 members of the class and they each contributed.

The picture, which is in connection with other things being studied, was ordered from the Perry Picture company and framed at the Art Shop of Greensboro.

Since the picture has arrived, certain members of each of Miss Farlow's classes have looked up important facts about the outstanding things in the picture.

The other Latin 4 class, which convenes at the second period are thinking seriously of buying a picture of "The Applan Way." It was voted upon unanimously and they want to get it before long so that they may enjoy it before the semester is over.

HIGH SCHOOL PLANS ARTIST NITE HERE FOR PUBLIC NOV. 25

High School Orchestra Contributes to Program Sponsored by P. T. A.

GRADY MILLER IN CHARGE

"An Odd Entanglement," One-Act Play, Will be Presented During the Evening.

An opportunity of hearing some of the best talent of Greensboro and a chance to all of those who have not seen the new high school and its facilities will be afforded Monday evening, November 25 at 8:00 o'clock in the Greensboro high school auditorium.

The money that is made on that evening will go toward buying the necessities of the high school that do not come from the city budget, particularly the uniforms for the band.

PROGRAM

Under the auspices of the Greensboro high school P. T. A.—Mrs. S. O. Lindeman, president.

Greensboro high school auditorium Monday evening, November 25 at 8:00 o'clock.

Program arranged by Mrs. W. P. Knight and H. Grady Miller.

1. Greensboro high school orchestra—Earl A. Slocum, director.
2. American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, H. Grady Miller, director—march selected; J. C. M. Minnette, drill master, C. H. Ingram, drum major.
3. Greensboro College Trio—trios selected—Miss Rachael Creech, Miss Virginia Port, Miss Grace Robertson.
4. A few minutes with Frank Warner.
5. A one-act play—"An Odd Entanglement," by Oscar Firkins—under the auspices of Greensboro Little Theatre.

Cast

- |  |                   |
|--|-------------------|
| Hary Walton  | John Bonitz       |
| Mable Walton, his wife   | Isabelle Ferguson |
| Mildred Beresford  | May Thompson      |
| (Directed by Miss Kate Hall)   |                   |
| 6. Intermission, Orchestra.  |                   |
| 7. American Legion Quartette—quartettes selected. Paul Giles, Ralph Hodgkin, Ray Hesch, Fred Phipps. |                   |
| 8. Mrs. Elber Hangar.  |                   |
| 9. Mike Mania, written by Mrs. Moody Stroud.   |                   |

Cast

- |   |                     |
|---|---------------------|
| Professor Static  | Benjamin Bates      |
| Mrs. Ebenezer Highpower   | Mrs. E. C. Caldwell |
| Tiny  | Mrs. Henry Ware     |
| 10. "Tapping it Off," Leo Bynum, Jr.                            |                     |
| 11. Greensboro Male Chorus                                      |                     |
| (a) Song of John Robin, Candish.                                |                     |
| (b) Drink to me only With Thine Eyes, Old English.              |                     |
| 12. Acrobatic Dance, Mary Donaldson.                            |                     |
| 13. Dance Adagio, Mrs. Leo Bynumand, Miss Ella Miles Goldsmith. |                     |

Officers

- |                      |               |
|----------------------|---------------|
| Mrs. S. J. Stern     | Ticket sales  |
| Mrs. W. W. Whaley    | publicity     |
| Mrs. H. P. Leake     | candy sales   |
| Mr. J. J. H. Johnson | stage manager |
| Shelby Fretzgerald   | electrician   |
| Frances Rogers       | announcer     |

Ushers

Trudy Carver, head usher; Angela Patterson, Maenette Graff, Mary Elizabeth Cunningham, Winifred Penn, Margaret Byrd, Mabel Block.

Appreciation: The committee wishes to thank each individual who contributed toward making this program a success.