AIN'T IT PUCULIAR?

Did you ever go to a football game and watch the poor cheer leaders working their heads off in the attempt to get the crowd to show a little life and yell? And did you ever go to a boxing or wrestling meet and see the same cheer leaders trying to make the same crowd be quiet? Ain't it an illustration of one of the eccentricities of human nature? Try to make them yell and each rooster imitates a clam. But tell them to be quiet and they will split their throats.

And ain't it peculiar that despite all the work that we put out to produce this really excellent sport page, every body says and thinks that it is rotten.

GIRL'S RESERVE CLUBS WILL ENTERTAIN HI-Y

The G. H. S. Girls Reserve will entertain all the HI-Y boys at a dinner next Wednesday night at the Y. W. C. A.

Ruth Marley, chairman of the program committee has charge, and the valentine idea will be carried out.

This should be a very interesting entertainment. For the first time this form of a banquet has been held, and it is hoped that it will prove successful.

Will Play Alexander Wilson February 14—a Hard Game is Expected.

Reversing their form after the defeat at the hands of the Pointers last week, our girl's basketball team produced their best game of the season to down the Old Town six, 45-20. Despite the seeming one-sidedness of the score the game was fought to the final whistle.

Team Matches Team

From the tip off to the end of the first quarter, the teams contested evenly. The score at the quarter was nine to nine. Then Cram, of G. H. S., put her team in the lead with five field goals in succession. The game was marked by the excellent team play shown by the locals.

Butler Stars

Butler, Greensboro forward, was especially outstanding in the way in which she fed the ball to the forwards under the basket, and was to a large extent responsible for her team's victory. Byrd, Holtz, and Hay, produced some exceptional guarding. The G. H. S. pivots and feints were clicking better than in any previous games of the season.

McCollum is Good

McCollum, flashy forward was high scorer for Greensboro with nineteen points; while Davis led the Old Town girls with a total of 16 points.

Last year Old Town defeated Greensboro 40 to 25.

SCHOOL WRESTLERS WIN, DRAW, LOSE

Boxing Team Isn't Successful Thus Far—Moore Wins in Oak Ridge Meet.

VICTORY IS SURPRISE

The G. H. S. mat team is rounding into mid-season form with a draw, a defeat, and a win to its credit in meets with Leaksville, Durham, and Oak Ridge. The boxers, probably due to a chronic lack of material, have not been doing so well.

Out of the first three meets, Hiram Bell won two matches by falls, David Morrah won two falls, Bernard Gilmer took two falls, Avery one fall, and Apple one time decision.

Moore, of the boxers, won and drew in the first two meets, and G. E. Morgan won by a technical knockout in Leaksville.

The Greensboro victory in the Oak Ridge meet came as a surprise to fans, as it was generally supposed that Oak Ridge would have a much more powerful grappling team than Greensboro.

Summary for Durham meet:
105—Ervin (D) threw Sustaire.
115—Mann (D) threw E. Douglas.
125—Edward (D) threw Gilmer.

155—Wilson (D) won time decision over Apple.

165—Avery (G) threw Byron.

CAPT. MCACHERY STARS

Reserves Lose Game 8-25—Pointers Hold Locals Scoreless in Second Half.

Greensboro High's basketball losing streak held on Tuesday night, as the G. H. S. varsity lost to Charlotte, 12-31, and the reserves bowed to High Point, 8-25.

Before a small crowd, Charlotte demonstrated the type of basketball that has made them the conference leaders and undoubtedly the strongest high school team in the state.

McChery, the Charlotte captain, was high scorer with 11 points, and looked to be the most polished player on the floor.

The keynote of Charlotte's overwhelming Greensboro was their accuracy in shooting for the basket. When a Queen City boy shot, he generally dropped it in. Bell, of Charlotte, also performed well, but Charlotte had in the main a whole team of stars.

Witten was high scorer for Greensboro with five points. Curtis and Morris, Greensboro guards, produced some pretty teamwork.

Morris made the first score on a foul shot, but Charlotte retaliated with three field goals in rapid succession. Witten pulled the most spectacular shot of the game, with a long throw from the middle of the floor into the basket.

The reserves were also outclassed by the High Point reserves.

The score was knotted 8-8 at the half, but the Pointers came back in the second to ring up 17 more points. And they held the Gate City five scoreless for the whole of the last period.

Goodwin and Carr did all the starring that was done for Greensboro.

An added attraction was a three-round exhibition boxing bout between Aldred and Allen, candidates for the 115-pound berth on the boxing team.

FANS PLANNING GOLF TEAM FOR HIGH SCHOOL

A. P. Routh Backs Golders; Meets With Six Schools Are Pending at Present.

It seems that the golf bug has been turned loose at G. H. S. There is a movement on foot to start a golf team, and quite a few boys have evinced their interest in having golf as a school sport. Mr. Routh is promoting the team.

Arrangements are being made with Asheville, Charlotte, Salisbury, High Point, Winston, and Raleigh high schools for possible meets. School golf meets at Greensboro will probably be played on the Sedgefield course.

Greensboro's team will be built around Fred Newnam, Frank Abernathy, and Ed Michaels. Other likely candidates: Frank Causey, Sherwood Hedgepeth, John Nutt, Charles Edwards, Emary Carver, Ben Robinson, Roy Stallings, and John Gunter.

GRUMBLES AND GROWLS

The strongest and most polished team in the state in many opinions, Charlotte, played here last Tuesday night.

An enormous crowd of around one hundred saw the game. What in the world is the matter with the local public and the student body we can't imagine. But, we think that if the city, and the local newspapers in particular, would lend a hand, we could develop at least as good a school spirit as any in the state. In short this; the city of Charlotte is behind their team every time. And Charlotte has a school spirit and a team that wins.

G. H. S. has been invited to participate in the national basketball tournament at Chicago, according to Coach Routh. The invitation will not be accepted, however.

you are inclined to grumble, just think of last year's record.

The boys' basketball team has been having a losing streak recently but if And girls athletics don't draw any support at all.

Everybody that saw the Charlotte game will agree with us that it was well worth the quarter to see the Charlotte team in action. And that was a mighty nice little fight between the halves.

If you don't enjoy that one why don't go again, but it is our firm belief that this is all that is necessary; if everyone would go just once, then there wouldn't be any trouble to get them there the next time.
