

Winterling Affairs Top Scholar Rating; Brinkley Is Second

Moore Announces Spencer,
Jones, Page, Runners-Up;
23 Students Make Special

"Attaining the highest scholastic average during the past six weeks, Ruth Winterling, led the school with the outstanding rating of 97%," announced Miss Ida Belle Moore, faculty chairman of the scholastic committee, yesterday. Following closely, Billy Brinkley reached the 96.87% mark. The remaining places of honor were captured by Elva Spencer, 96.8%, Elmer Jones, 96.8%, and Dianne Page, 96.5%.

Others earning the 95% or above standard for the special honor roll were: Betty Jane Bledsoe, Martha Pearson, Bobby Perry, Mary Lou Sawyer, Elva Spencer, Hazel Swinson, Arleen Whitener, Ruth Winterling, Melvin Grablowsky, Billy Brinkley, Leslie Sharpe, Betty Shipman, Sarah Jeffress, Elmer Jones, Eleanor Dare Taylor, Josephine Duncan, and Elsie Lewis.

Those making up the regular roll are: Neil Beard, Evelyn Baruhardt, Ernest Beasley, Virginia Scott, Marilyn Silverstein, Ann Thornton, Jack Smith, Baxter Stapleton, Bennie Lowe, Mary Ellen Lewis, James Lee, Conrad McClintock, Charles Swearingen, Charles Vache, Alice Trosper, Joe Watts, Margaret Welker, Rachael Whiteside, Catherine Winn, Aylene Roseberry, Charlotte Robbins, Frances Nantz, Lolene Harrison, Betty Hendrix, Margaret Hoffman, Joan Holleyman, Earl Holliday, Annette Hopkins, Preston Floyd, Charles Fogleman, Elizabeth Gabriel, Jean Elizabeth Garber, James DeHaven, Sylvia Hunter, Jewell Hyatt, Virginia Johnston, Martha Koontz, Mary Jean Bowyer, Evelyn Showfety, Ann Southerland, Gladys Teague, Hazel York, Anne Edmunds, Jack Watson, Edith Webster, Martha Williams, Sarah Armstrong, Nancy Benson, Eva Bowles, Rachel Baxter, Vivienne O'Connor, Peggy O'Connell, Irl Newton, Betty Neese, Irma Estes, Jane Eller, Mickey Pickling, Doris Crawford, Catherine Cox, Katherine Harris, Barbara Bond, Margaret Boren, Anne Chrismon, Tom Carpenter, Edna Carraway, John Cine, Louise Morton, Martie McLennan, Elaine Miller, Lacy Sellars, Berry Reid, Thomas Huffles, Louise Howard, Carol Jarvis, Vivian Jessup, Doris Jones, Faye Thomas, Gene Thornton, Celia Varner, Nancy Cowherd, Janet Cox, Lina Crawford, Aurelia Dunstan, Terpsie Kypriss, Althea Hardin, Jack Harris, Virginia Haynes, Beverly Heitman, Walter Hiatt, Rebecca Morgan, Ann Newton, Beverly Nigh, Helen Pappas, Dorothy Parker, Virginia Phillips, Billie Gene Phillips, Claibourne Poindexter.

Sale Planned to Educate Youth Declares Burnett

"If high school students could be made to see the important part they can, and should, play in the fight against tuberculosis, a great part of the struggle would be over," declared Mrs. J. Henry Burnett, Jr., chairman of the Greensboro Christmas seal sale, when interviewed this week about the sales campaign being conducted in the city.

"Tuberculosis dangers," Mrs. Burnett explained, "cannot be stressed too strongly in public school systems, for knowledge today will prevent disease tomorrow. Every penny secured in the local headquarters goes to prevent the duplication of cases which endanger the lives of every man, woman, and child in the city."

Can Get Rid of Race Prejudice

The director indicated that despite the fact that there are more active cases among the Negro race, the association, as well as all wide-awake citizens, realize that if any are to be protected, all must be. "I feel that there is nothing which can do more to rid our nation of race prejudices than for the American youth, both white and colored, to give, and give freely, to a cause which will not only insure a long and healthful life for each but a more equal and united front against all problems," declared Mrs. Burnett when she explained that, in last year's sale, the Negro schools bought more Christmas seals than the white.

Emblem Explained

The double-barred cross, now in its twentieth year of service as the official emblem of this humanitarian association, signifies the two main features of tuberculosis control; namely, to help the person with the disease, and to prevent its spread to others. In her voluntary role Mrs. Burnett is endeavoring not only to raise the money necessary for the continuance of clinics and sanatoriums under the support of the association, but to keep constantly the sign of this cross and its significance in the public eye, heart, and mind.

Season's Greetings

From

Guilford Dairy

117 W. Lee St.

Buy the Girl-Friend's
Christmas Gift

At

Ned Cohen's Jewel Box

134 S. Elm St.

Greensboro Loses Great Sportsman

John W. Trimble, one of Greensboro high's most ardent supporters and a leading citizen of Greensboro, died Saturday, December 7. With him passed one of the Whirlwinds' favorite sports enthusiasts.

Trimble attended every baseball game this past season, except two, in which cases his business detained him. Once when the local Whirlwinds journeyed to Gastonia for a baseball game, the game had just begun when Trimble arrived with his family, who had driven over 100 miles in an hour and a half to attend the game.

Not having a son of his own old enough to participate in the school activities, he watched the boys of the local school teams and cheered them on to victory.

The death of John Trimble will be felt by every athlete and coach at Senior high, and they all join voices in paying tribute to a truly great man.

cial emblem of this humanitarian association, signifies the two main features of tuberculosis control; namely, to help the person with the disease, and to prevent its spread to others. In her voluntary role Mrs. Burnett is endeavoring not only to raise the money necessary for the continuance of clinics and sanatoriums under the support of the association, but to keep constantly the sign of this cross and its significance in the public eye, heart, and mind.

Holiday Greetings

From

Boyd's

CRITERION

Mon. & Tues, Dec. 16-17

"All This, and Heaven Too"

From the World-Applauded
Novel by Rachel Field

With

Bette Davis
Charles Boyer

Opens 11:00

Adults 15c Matinee
20c Night
Children 10c

Ella Lee Taylor Reveals Faculty Holiday Addresses

(Continued from Page One)

No. 2, Cleveland, N. C.; Miss Ida Belle Moore, Burgaw, N. C.; Miss Margaret Moser, 122 Tate St., City; Mrs. Alma Peobles, 513 1/2 N. Edgeworth St., City; Miss Cathleen Pike, 502 Forest Ave., City; Miss Viva Playfoot, Galeton, Pa.; Mrs. Myrtle Richards, 325 McIver St., City; W. A. Richards, 325 McIver St., City; Mrs. Blanche Smith, 517 S. Aycock St., City; Miss Louise Smith, 211 Tate St., City; Miss Jessie B. Strickland, Dunn, N. C.; F. Edgar Thomas, 248 Lee Ave., Wadesboro, N.

Dropped Out of School

Doug (Curly) Dickerson, former backfield star of Greensboro high and current passing ace of the N. C. State Wolfpack, has been forced to drop out of school. Doug was placed on many North Carolina all-star teams in the speculations of sports columnists throughout the state.

C.; Miss Lily Walker, 307 Murray St., City; Miss Lottie Wall, 1702 Ashboro St., City.

CLEIN'S SHOE SHOP

332 S. Elm St.

Quality Shoe Repairing
Phone 9613

50th Anniversary

Bernau Jewelry Co.

210 S. Greene St.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

REMEMBER—"You Always Save at Belk's"

For Campus
Wear—Shop

Belk's

Students

and

College Shop

Second Floor

For Complete
Assortments

BELK'S

Jefferson Square

- All Wool Sport Coats $9.50
- All Wool Skirts $1.77
- Sweaters Each 99c
- Oxfords Pair $1.94
- Wool Jackets Each $2.98

FASHION SHOP

308 S. Elm St.

Harry's FLOWERS

Please

Harry's Flowers

416 W. Market St. Phone 4243

What More Can You Give
Than a Gift for the Home?

Furniture
Rugs
Accessories Electrical

MORRISON-NEESE

112 S. Greene St.

Above All . . . A Good Roof!

With

ETERNIT TIMBERTEX

These "wood textured" shingles will give your home all the charm of weather-aged cypress and the durability and fireproofness of asbestos-cement. Their soft mellow colors are an integral part of the shingle itself. No upkeep. The first cost is the last.

Gale City Roofing Co.

Make This Christmas

MUSICAL

With

CONN

BAND INSTRUMENTS

C. G. CONN, LTD., World's Largest Manufacturers, ELKHART, INDIANA, U. S. A.

Make this a Musical Christmas with the "Choice of the Artists"—a Conn Band Instrument! Our stock is now complete and ready for your inspection. Come in today and have your Instrument layed away for Christmas delivery.

Greensboro Music Company

207 W. Market St.

Dial 2-0739