Subscribers Requested To Pay Overdue Fees

"All students who have not paid the 25-cent dues for the High Life subscription for the second semester should do so immediately," stated Herbert Hattaway, head of the circulation department, today.

Unless this payment is made before the close of the semester, the individual will run the risk of not being allowed to graduate or to register for the 1942 fall semester until the account is settled. All unpaid subscription fees should be turned in to room 10.

Approximately 19 students completed their payments this week.

G. H. S. Averages 16.5 In Flag Code Contest

With an average of 16.5, Greensboro Senior high was .7 below the city school average of 17.2 in the flag code contest given two weeks ago, announced Prin cipal A. P. Routh last week.

Students attributed the low average to the fact that there are only ten min-utes every morning for them to study the flag code, whereas other schools have at least an hour or more a day.

Seniors Dream of Cups Awarded at Graduation

nearer, seniors begin to dream of the night when they will swish across the school work.

Best All Round

The most coveted cup and the one which carries the greatest honor is the best all-round student cup, presented each year by the Parent-Teachers' association to the student who is chosen by the vote of his fellow seniors. Douglass Hunt, president of the student body hast year, won this award in 1941.

Trophies given last year included the might when they will swish across the stage in their caps and gowns and proudly receive their diplomas.

A few also cherish the hope that, by some unbelievable luck, they will walk away the night of commencement, the happy owner of one of the cups offered each year to the most outstanding seniors in the various fields of high school work.

Trophies given last year included the home economics silver platter, presented to the most outstanding girl in this field, the dramatics trophy, awarded to the most active student in that work, the D. A. R. and U. D. C. cups offered to the students writing the most outstanding term paper on the Revolutionary and Civil War periods, respectively, and the debating cup.

Dacia Lewis To Serve As Official Recorder: Speed Election Plans

With colorful banners marking off home room seating and political guns blasting, the school election season will begin with the new feature, a nominat-ing convention, to be held May 12 in

"The purpose of the convention is to get school-wide participation in our student elections, to make every student feel that he had a finger in the selecting of our officers," announced Virginia Stoffel, chairman of the board of elections, Tuesday, in explaining the new sature. set-up.

Presiding over the convention will be Bob Perry as chairman, Bill Donald, president of the student council, as fabulator, and Dacia Lewis as secre-

Virginia continued her explanation by declaring: "Each home room will have two delegates and two votes at the convention. These delegates will be instructed beforehand how to east their votes. When the roll is called, the speaking delegate will answer with his home room's vote, which may be split. There will be a roll call for each major office."

Virginia also stated: "Each home room must instruct its delegates as to their first, second, third, etc., choices so that if there is a deadlock, a delegate will know how to proceed."

She concluded by emphasizing that "the delegate must know how, for whom and when to vote. He must be up on his P's and Q's."
